On Jan. 18, 2003, No. 17 Maryland downed No. 1 Duke, 87-72, in the Terps' first slaying of a top-ranked team in Comcast Center.

Maryland's new home for Terrapin Athletics was completed in the fall of 2002 and has already provided five seasons of toppled attendance records and memories on the hardwood. Comcast Center provides a seating capacity of 17,950 fans for basketball, and serves as a campus site for university special events and select community events.

The Terrapins' first public basketball event was its 2002 Midnight Madness celebration, which has grown to one of the premiere student events of the academic year. In its first season, 281,057 fans were on hand to witness Terrapin basketball games for a per-game average of 17,566 as the Terrapins finished fifth in the nation. The Terps went on to finish fifth in the nation once again in 2003-04, with a school-record 287,200 spectators packing the arena for 16 full sellouts and a capacity per-game average of 17,950. Maryland drew 299,391 fans to Comcast Center during the 2004-05 season, again setting a school record. The Terps finished eighth in the nation in home attendance last season and have a five-year average of 17,200.

The honored jersey numbers of 15 of the greatest men's basketball players in school history, as well as banners commemorating the 2002 national championship and the 2002 National Coach of the Year Gary Williams, hang high above the court in Comcast Center's rafters. The 2004 ACC Tournament Championship banner was added three years ago.

Twenty suites provide enhanced viewing and entertainment capabilities for Maryland fans. Maryland's student section, affectionately known as "GARYLAND," accommodates 4,000 of the Terps' perennial ardent supporters. Students fill the first 10 rows that ring the arena floor and a majority of seats on the arena's west wall – which at an intimidating 35 degree incline provides the Terrapins' with a unique home court advantage.

Comcast Center houses the university's athletics administration offices and includes a 7,000-square-foot Academic Support Center, providing an enhanced study atmosphere for the school's nearly 750 student-athletes on 27 teams. An additional 1,500-seat gymnasium serves as home to the Terps' volleyball, gymnastics and wrestling teams, and Sprint Heritage Hall multi-purpose room is equipped to host banquets, press conferences, meetings and serve as a pregame restaurant suite overlooking the competition arena.

Comcast Center is an excellent place for alumni and fans to enjoy their favorite sports and share in their common Terrapin spirit. Visitors can learn about the men and women who have forged the Maryland Athletics program among the nation's elite as they stroll through the Terrapin Walk of Fame and History. The Terrapin Team Store, located just off the soaring three-level atrium lobby, allows visitors to outfit their pride.

Maryland has once again reclaimed the status of having the best student activities center and basketball arena in the country.

2002 NATIONAL CHAMPIONS

NCAA Final Four MVP Juan Dixon had 155 points in the 2002 tourney, the ninth-highest figure in tournament history. His five steals against Indiana were the most in a title game since 1990.

CHAMPION

The Terps' 32 victories broke the Maryland record for wins in a season. The Terps became the 15th team in ACC history to win 30 games.

Gary Williams became the first coach to lead his alma mater to an NCAA championship since 1974.

Maryland's Baxter & Dixon duo is the highest-scoring tandem (4,127 points) in NCAA history to win a national championship. They are the 12th-highest scoring duo of all time.

2004 ACC CHAMPIONS

Maryland's ACC Tournament title was the third in school history (1958, 1984, 2004) and the first for the Terps in 20 years.

Then-sophomore John Gilchrist averaged 24.0 points, 6.3 assists and 5.3 rebounds per game en route to Tournament MVP honors.

ACC CHAMPIONS

87	No. 3 WAKE FOREST	86
85	No. 2 NC STATE	82
95	No. 1 Duke	87 (OT)

Maryland was only the third team in tournament history to beat the No. 3 seed, the No. 2 seed and the No. 1 seed en route to the conference crown.

The Terps overcame a 21-point first-half deficit to defeat NC State in the ACC Semifinal Round, marking the greatest comeback in the tournament's 51-year history.

SHIP TRADITION

The Terrapins, statistically the youngest team in college basketball in 2004, captured the Atlantic Coast Conference Tournament title in a season where the ACC was rated the toughest conference in the nation.

BASKETBALL ALUMNI

Former men's basketball players are among the most devoted followers of the Maryland team, and continue their involvement each year through various events, including an annual alumni game during Midnight Madness festivities and an alumni golf outing with Gary Williams.

BASKETBA

MARYLAND MADNESS

The Midnight Madness tradition that Charles "Lefty" Driesell started in College Park in 1971 continues today, and arguably, nobody does it better than the University of Maryland.

Perennially one of the Athletics Department's most popular events, Maryland Madness always features a music and laser light show and performances by the Terrapin Spirit Squad, the Gymkana Troupe and the dance team. More than 15,000 screaming fans have turned out annually to the event to catch a sneak preview of the Terps during their annual intrasquad scrimmage.

Head coach Gary Williams has made his spectacular Maryland Madness entrance a tradition. He rode out onto the court in a Harley-Davidson motorcycle in 2003, and drove Donnie Neuenberger's "Fear the Turtle" NASCAR one the floor in 2004.

A Gary Williams look-alike contest was part of the festivities in 2004, which was a fan-favorite during the evening's program. Maryland Madness was televised live on Comcast SportsNet in 2004 and 2006.

BASKETBALL TRAVEL

The Maryland basketball team flies charter airplanes to nearly every game on its schedule. Pictured is a 50-passenger aircraft which transports the Terps from city to city throughout the season. This regional jet features two-by-two seating with no middle seats, and is the quietest flying jet in the world. It can cruise at 530 mph and up to 41,000 feet.

Charter flights make getting to, and coming back from, any destination easy and comfortable. This type of travel allows the Terps to be on campus and in class as soon as possible following road games, and overnight stays are minimized. The convenience and comfort of charter airplane travel allows for convenient, efficient, frequent service as well as maximized practice and study time.

IN THE COMMUNITY

The Terrapins and head coach Gary Williams are active members of the University of Maryland and greater Baltimore-Washington, D.C., community. The men's basketball team is involved in extensive charity, fund-raising and public speaking events throughout the year, particularly in the offseason.

In September of 2004, University of Maryland President C.D. Mote Jr. announced that Williams will co-chair the scholarship component of Maryland's ongoing $200 million fund-raising campaign. Williams served as the commencement speaking at the graduation proceedings for the Robert H. Smith School of Business in 2004. He has been heavily involved in the NABC's Coaches vs. Cancer efforts, a program that is a partnership between the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the American Cancer Society. Williams also has worked with Maryland grad Boomer Esiason and others to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, hosting charity basketball games and golf events. For the past two years, he has served as the honorary chairman for the Walk Far for N.A.A.R., which has raised more than one million dollars for the National Alliance of Autism Research. He has also chaired Salvation Army's FORE Kids golf tournament in 2003 and 2004, which raises proceedings for Washington D.C.'s youth

In the fall of 2004, Terrapin players and coaches joined with members of the Greek community in raising $21,000 for Ronald McDonald House Charities as they took part in the Hoops For Kids event at Ritchie Coliseum.

FAMILY

COMMITMENT TO EDUCATION

Under Gary Williams, the Maryland basketball program continues to place a high priority on education and the personal growth of its student-athletes. Jerome Burney has been named the recipient of the LeFrak Scholarship Award. The scholarship represents an endowment established by the Samuel J. and Ethel LeFrak Foundation, and is awarded annually to three Maryland student-athletes who exhibit extraordinary athletic, leadership and scholarship abilities.

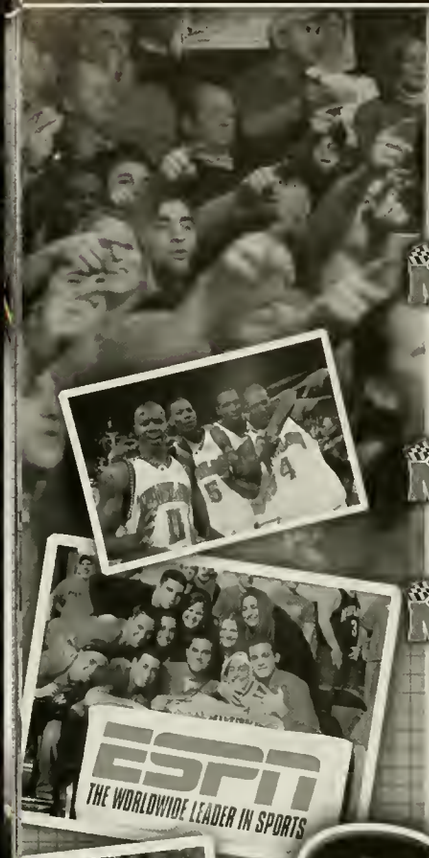
Many former Terps continue to work toward their degrees while continuing to pursue professional basketball opportunities. Keith Booth, a four-year starter and 1997 All-American, graduated in 2003 pursuing a professional basketball career that included winning an NBA Championship in 1998, and is now one of Gary Williams' assistant coaches. Former Terps Calvin McCall, Laron Profit and Terrell Stokes are among the recent men's basketball players to earn degrees from the University of Maryland. Maryland student-athletes all work toward completion of their college degree with the assistance of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit.

NBA SUPERSTAR STEVE FRANCIS

One of Terrapin basketball's most prominent alumni superstars in recent years, two-time NBA All-Star Steve Francis remains very close to Maryland's campus in the off-season. Francis, an All-American with the Terps in 1999 and the NBA Co-Rookie of the Year in 2000, maintains close ties with the Terrapin program and can be found in and around College Park during the summer playing pick-up, making public appearances, or in some cases, helping students in need.

Some of Maryland's students were temporarily without a home following a tornado in the fall of 2001 that swept through campus, but Francis was on hand to help. The NBA superstar did his part to aid in local relief efforts by offering a free meal to the near-700 students who reside in the University Courtyard apartments, which had been rendered unsafe after the disaster. Nearly 110 students got word of Francis' dinner and were in attendance at the UM Golf Course banquet facility. Francis joined the group for dinner, remarking to the group that he remembered people supporting him while he was a Maryland student and it was a small way that he could give back to those who helped him.

2007-08 LeFrak Scholar
Jerome Burney



Maryland basketball games have become a loud and boisterous experience with capacity crowds since Gary Williams took over as head coach for the 1989-90 season. The Terrapins boast one of the most active and enthusiastic crowds in the country, which has helped carry the Maryland program to two Final Four appearances, the 2002 national championship, the 2004 ACC title and record-breaking attendance in each of the last five seasons at Comcast Center.

Maryland's home attendance numbers have ranked at least eighth in the nation in each of the last five seasons. After shattering all previous records in Comcast Center's first season with an overall attendance of 281,057 (average of 17,566), Maryland eclipsed that mark with 16 full sellouts in 2003-04 when it drew a per-game average of 17,970 to home games.

In 2006-07, Maryland set a school record when 319,616 fans came to see Maryland basketball games. Over the last five years, home attendance has skyrocketed to 1,479,225, with an average of 17,200 each time the Terps play in Comcast Center.

After averaging 13,377 fans and ranking 20th in the country in 1998, the Terps set a then-school record with a 14,474 average in 1999 while ranking 15th nationally. In 2002, Cole Field House's final season, Maryland continued to draw capacity numbers, averaging 14,166 fans and ranking 17th. The Terps drew 14,058 fans and ranked 18th in 2001. Those totals were only eclipsed by the Terps' move to Comcast Center, which ranks as the second-largest on-campus arena in the ACC.

For the past eight seasons, the Terps have set school records and ranked in the top 10 nationally in overall attendance, home and away. Maryland eclipsed its own overall record in five straight seasons and has played before at least 400,000 fans in nine consecutive seasons.

Maryland's school-record home attendance average in 2004 included 16 regular-season home games played before crowds that reached a capacity 17,950. Maryland played to 100 percent capacity for the entire season in the $125 million, 17,950-seat Comcast Center, after playing to 98 percent capacity in the arena's inaugural year.

Maryland has combined to fill its home arena to more than 96 percent capacity since the 1993-94 season.

More than 3.1 million people have watched men's basketball in College Park over the last 14 seasons, as the Terps have forged one of the most consistent and animated home crowds in the nation. The Terps own a 186-30 (.861) home record in the last 14 seasons, with perfect marks in 2002 (15-0) and 1995 (16-0).

During Gary Williams' tenure as head coach, the Terps have achieved double-digit home victories in 17 out of 18 seasons.

ACC AND THE RPI REPORT

The ACC has been the top-rated conference in the nation five of the past 12 years according to the RPI Report, and in the top three nationally every year since 1996. In addition to 2004 and 2005, the ACC rated first for three consecutive seasons (1996-98), ranked second in 1999 and 2007, third in 2000, second in 2002 and third in 2003 and 2006.

ACC SETS ATTENDANCE MARK

For the second consecutive year, the ACC surpassed the two million mark in attendance with the 12 league teams totaling 2,434,902 over 219 regular season games and six tournament sessions. Maryland was eighth in the nation with an average of 16,822 fans per home game.

ASSOCIATED PRESS POLLS REFLECT ACC STRENGTH

With Maryland's No. 1 ranking in the final USA Today/ESPN poll in 2002, the ACC became the first conference in history to have two different teams finish the season ranked No. 1 in the two major polls. Duke finished the season as the top-ranked team in the Associated Press poll and helped the ACC become the first league in NCAA history to finish No. 1 in the final AP poll in consecutive seasons.

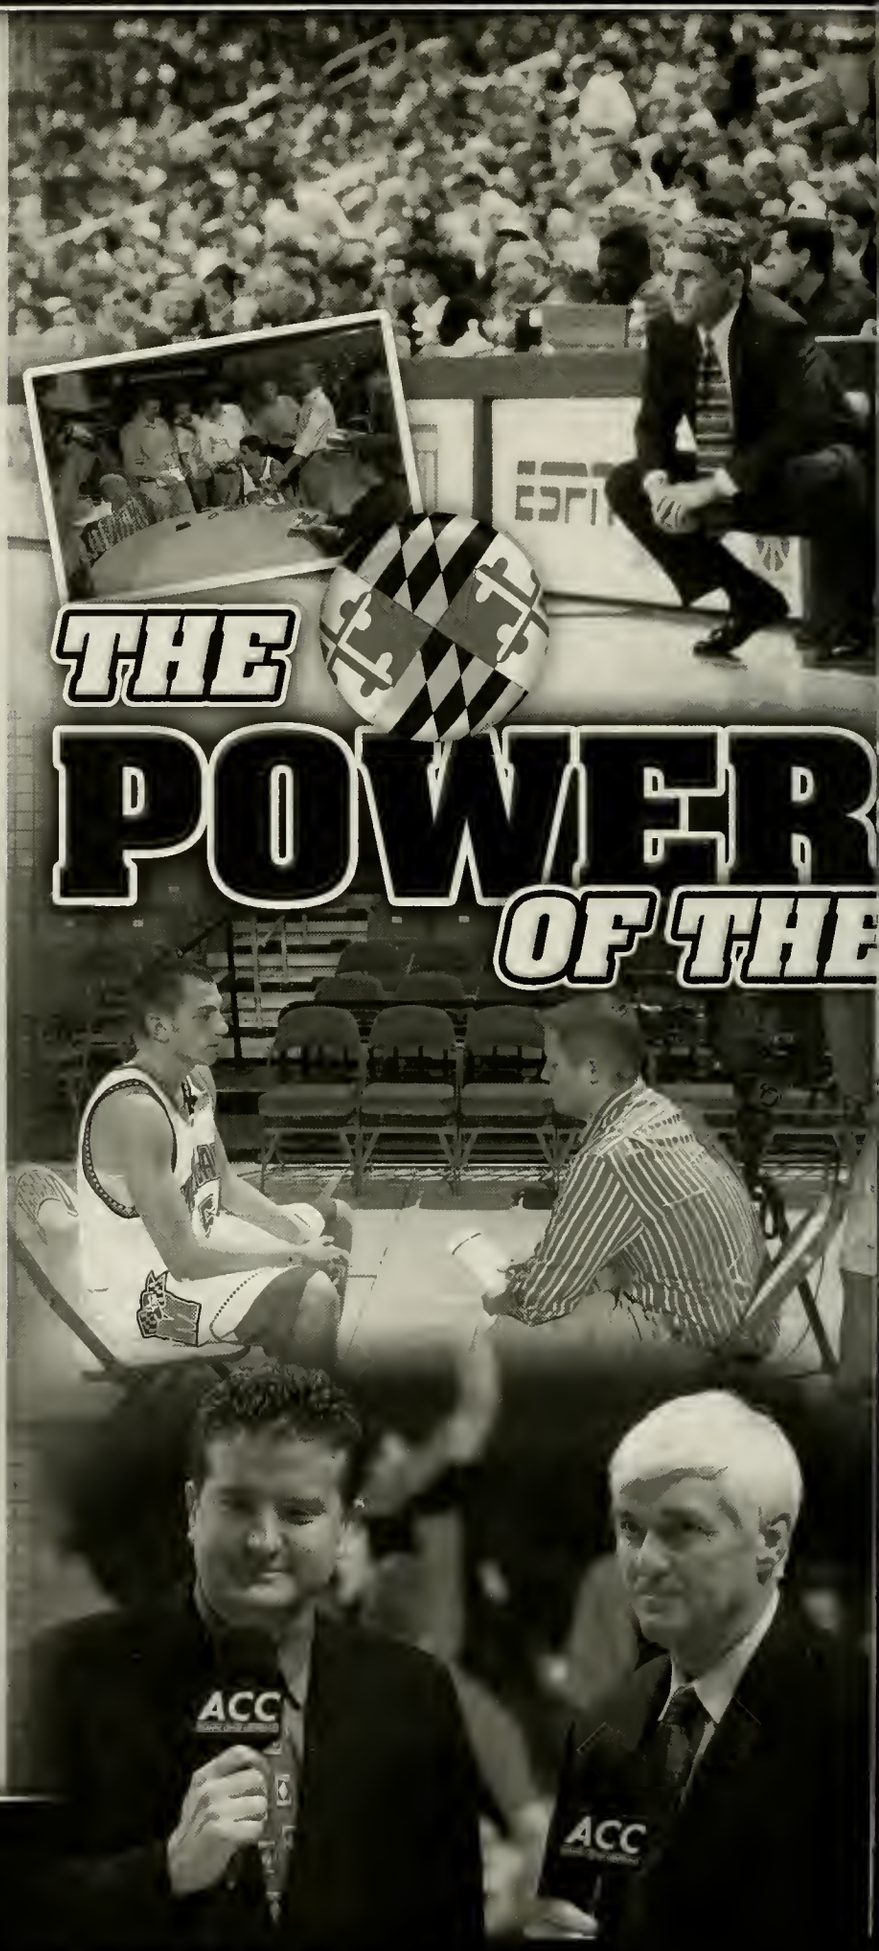
ACC UNPRECEDENTED IN THE ASSOCIATED PRESS POLL

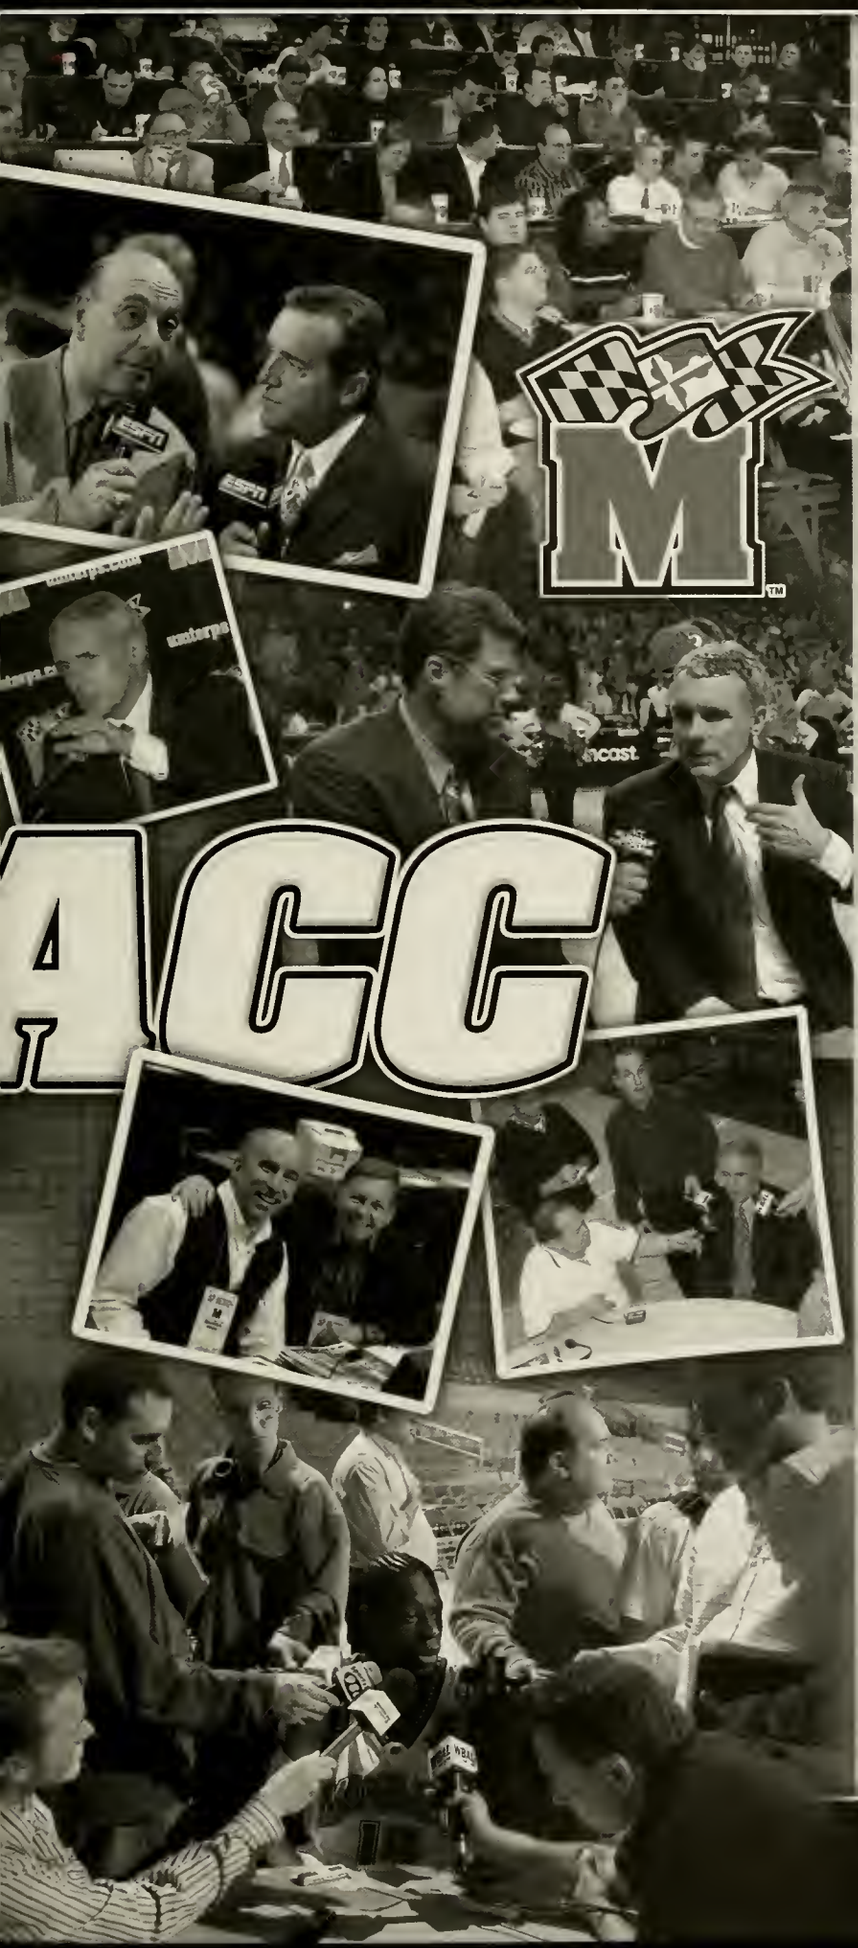
The ACC became the first conference in history to have seven teams ranked in the Associated Press poll during two consecutive weeks during the 1997-98 season. Maryland, North Carolina, Duke, Florida State, Clemson, Wake Forest and Georgia Tech were each ranked in the AP polls of Dec. 1 and 8. The ACC reached unprecedented success in the AP poll in 2000-01, with five different teams ranked in the Top 25 from start-to-finish: Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, Virginia and Wake Forest. The ACC has had at least three teams in the final AP poll in 25 of the last 28 years, including a national-mast six teams in 2003. Six of the 12 teams in the ACC were ranked at least eight times in 2005-06.

ACC IN THE NCAA TOURNAMENT

In terms of success, the Atlantic Coast Conference is unrivaled in the history of the NCAA Tournament. The league teams have made the ACC the winningest conference all-time in NCAA Tournament play, with a cumulative record of 364-203 (.642).

■ In 2005, North Carolina became the third ACC team to win a national championship in the span of five years and the 11th overall. The ACC has had at least one Final Four team in 16 of the last 20 years and 21 of the last 27.





■ Over the last 19 years, ACC teams have made more Final Four appearances than any other conference. Since 1988, the ACC has made 20 Final Four appearances, with the Big 10 in second at 15.

■ Since the NCAA Tournament expanded to 64 teams in 1985, the ACC has the most Tournament wins (227), the best winning percentage (.672), the most Sweet 16 appearances (62), the most regional final appearances (33) and the most Final Four teams (21).

■ Over the past 27 years (since 1981), four different ACC schools have won a total of eight NCAA titles, three more than any other conference.

■ The ACC is 65-33 (.663) over the past seven tournaments. The ACC has had 10 or more Tournament wins in four of the last eight years and 14 times overall.

■ In 2004, the ACC was the first conference in NCAA Tournament history to have five teams – Duke (#1), Georgia Tech (#3), NC State (#3), Maryland (#4), Wake Forest (#4) – seeded fourth or higher.

ACC Television

■ Members of the Atlantic Coast Conference will make 270 television appearances during the 2007-08 season. The schedule also boasts 180 televised games involving ACC teams and marks the 13th straight year that the league has more than 200 television appearances.

■ ACC teams will make 155 appearances on national television networks, including 54 appearances on ESPN, 33 on Fox Sports Net, 29 on ESPN2, 20 on ESPNU, 10 on ABC, eight on CBS and one on ESPN Classic.

■ Fox Sports Net and affiliates will televise 19 Sunday afternoon and evening games on national television starting with the Miami-St. John's game on December 2. This season 14 of the 19 Sunday games are conference matchups.

■ Headlining the non-conference schedule is the ninth annual Big 10/ACC Challenge, pairing two of the nation's premier conferences in a regular season challenge series. Last year the ACC won the Challenge for the eighth straight time, winning eight of the 11 games played. Also included in the regular-season schedule are 33 games against 26 non-conference opponents that earned NCAA Tournament berths a year ago.

■ In 1998-99, the ACC became the first conference in collegiate basketball history to have its entire conference-game package televised either regionally or nationally.

ACC basketball will receive extensive live television coverage during the 2007-08 season, with the ESPN networks, Fox Sports Net, CBS, and ABC combining for 155 appearances. Counting regional broadcasts, 270 appearances headline this season's schedule.

ESPN, which originated its first-ever sports broadcast from the University of Maryland in 1979, has been a regular visitor to College Park. ESPN's College Basketball GameDay picked Comcast Center as one of eight sites to broadcast its live show in 2005.

Every major television network - ABC, NBC, CBS, and Fox – has a major news gathering affiliate in both Baltimore and Washington, D.C. No university in the East boasts eight major news outlets within a 35-mile radius of its campus except the University of Maryland. Regional cable broadcasts power Comcast SportsNet and local cable outlets provide the Terps with a TV news presence that is unmatched in college basketball.

There is no better place to be than the University of Maryland, College Park. With its top-ranked academic programs, nationally recognized faculty, diverse population, and lush 1,580-acre campus located between Washington, D.C., and Baltimore, Md., it's no wonder the University of Maryland is a sought-after destination for some of the state's — and the country's — best and brightest students.

Attracting them are some 127 majors and some of the highest-ranked programs in the country. As of 2006, 91 programs rank in the top 25 nationally and a school-record 31 programs were in the top 10 in the latest U.S. News & World Report undergraduate ranking of top public universities.

Specifically, the University of Maryland's Smith School of Business was ranked 18th nationally, while the Clark School of Engineering was ranked 25th. In graduate school rankings, the Smith School of Business, the College of Education, the Clark School of Engineering, the College of Information Studies and the College of Computer, Mathematical and Physical

Terps Athletics Tops In Management, Innovation

The University of Maryland athletics department won the inaugural collegiate PRISM Award given by the the University of Massachusetts Department of Sports Management. The award honors demonstrated excellence and innovation in sports management of NCAA Division I-A and I-AA institutions.

IT'S ALL HERE

beyond the University of Maryland campus.

City lights, history, sparkling waterfronts, monumental landscapes. Jazz, film festivals, marches and demonstrations. Shopping, professional sports, regattas on the Chesapeake Bay. Not just one city, but three. Not just any city, but the nation's capital, a major port city, and the state capital of Maryland.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

The nation's capital and its major attractions are within 10 miles of College Park. And the highly efficient Metro rail system, with a station at the campus doorstep, makes navigating the greater Washington, D.C., area easy. Campus shuttle buses serve the College Park Metro station, allowing easy access to one of the country's model transportation systems.

BALTIMORE

The 12th-largest city in the United States is often referred to as the "Charm City." Located just 35 miles north of the University of Maryland, its rejuvenation as an urban center is unprecedented. The Inner Harbor, its National Aquarium and tall ships, and the nearby Oriole Park at Camden Yards create an exciting, vibrant holiday atmosphere in a city that boasts one of the world's great sea ports.

ANNAPOLIS

The state capital of Maryland lies just 30 miles east of the University of Maryland. Long called the "sailing capital of the United States," Annapolis is located at the mouth of the Severn River on the Chesapeake Bay. The historic downtown area is known for its wonderful eating and shopping opportunities. There are few places in the world that rival the Chesapeake Bay area for its appealing qualities.

February 25, 2007 – D.J. Strawberry scores a career-high 27 points as Maryland knocks off No. 5 North Carolina, 89-87, at Comcast Center. It was Maryland's 17th win over a top-five opponent under Gary Williams. [4]

March 3, 2007 – The Terrapins close the season with a 79-59 victory over NC State. The win completed a sweep of the four North Carolina teams in the conference for the first time since 1932-33, with a 6-0 mark.

March 15, 2007 – For the eighth time in 11 years, Maryland earned a top-5 seed in the NCAA Tournament as the fourth-seeded Terps knocked of No. 13 Davidson, 82-70 in the first round of the NCAA Tournament.

2007-08 SEASON PREVIEW

SEASON OUTLOOK

TERPS RETURN TALENTED CORE FOR 2007-08

After enjoying a successful 2006-07 season in which they posted an overall record of 25-9 and a 10-6 mark in league play, the Maryland Terrapins are poised for another successful year under the direction of head coach Gary Williams. The Terps advanced to the second round of the NCAA tournament last season, stretching their steak of consecutive postseason appearances to 14. Williams, who guided the Terps to the fifth-highest win total in school history a season ago, believes they are primed for another tournament run this year despite the departure of six seniors from last season's team.

Gone are key contributors from the past few seasons, including Mike Jones, Ekene Ibekwe, and D.J. Strawberry, who has taken his game to the NBA. Still, there is a feeling of optimism in College Park, as the Terps return a strong core of dynamic performers who played well and contributed throughout last season.

That stability has been a hallmark of the Terrapins under Williams who enters his 19th season as head coach of his Alma matter. Maryland's all-time winningest coach knows he has veterans with experience who can fill the void left by last year's senior class.

"We have four guys that started at times last year which is a good nucleus nowadays in college basketball," said Williams. "Learning how to win is the biggest thing you worry about each year. You can have a really good team and play really well and then it comes down to the last two or three minutes. Some teams win those games, some teams don't win those games. It's a very subtle thing, but I think these guys learned how to do that last year."

Maryland returns seven lettermen who have combined for 263 career games and 90 starts. More importantly, they stepped up with huge contributions in Maryland's biggest games last season. Senior forward James Gist led the team in scoring during league play with 13.9 points per game. As a freshman, Greivis Vasquez silenced the raucous Cameron crowd at Duke, nearly collecting a triple-double with 13 points, 12 assists, and 9 rebounds, and transfer Bambale Osby was huge in Maryland's NCAA tournament win over Davidson, with 11 points and six rebounds.

In addition to the experience they picked up on the court last season, it's also the way they blended into the program that excites Williams, as the Terps will again welcome a large freshman class of six student-athletes.

"Our returning players are confident and mature enough to understand that we have to get some of our new players playing time," noted Williams. "The new players need to feel they are a part of things from day one and feel they're respected by the older players and that they respect the veterans. We're going to put the best team on the floor, regardless of what year you are in school, but our veteran players understand that."

Just how quickly the six newcomers become comfortable will go a long way in determining how successful the Terps are this year.

"WE'RE GOING TO HAVE TO FIND WAYS TO PUT THE BALL IN THE BASKET, BUT IT DOESN'T HAVE TO COME FROM JUST HAVING GREAT OUTSIDE SHOOTING. OUR DEFENSE CAN GENERATE A LOT OF TURNOVERS WHICH WE CAN CONVERT IN TRANSITION. IN OUR HALFCOURT OFFENSE, OUR UNSELFISHNESS WILL HELP US GET EASIER SHOTS." - GARY WILLIAMS

GREIVIS VASQUEZ

"With so many new players you have to depend on the early practices," said Williams. "The early games and practices will give us a clear indication of what we can do and where our depth will come from."

The departure of last year's senior class will force the Terps to fill the scoring void left by three starters who accounted for just under 40 points per game. To maintain the offensive proficiency from a year ago, Williams knows the team can ill afford to become one dimensional.

"We're going to have to find ways to put the ball in the basket, but it doesn't have to come from just having great outside shooting," said Williams. "Our defense can generate a lot of turnovers which we can convert in transition. In our halfcourt offense, our unselfishness will help us get easier shots."

The combination of an experienced group of returnees that demonstrated the ability to win tough games in difficult situations, along with an influx of talented freshmen should give Williams all the tools to build another successful season of Maryland basketball.

BACKCOURT

Vasquez and fellow sophomore Eric Hayes will anchor the Terrapins backcourt after both enjoyed stellar freshman seasons a year ago. Both players are versatile and can either run the offense from the point guard position or play equally as well off the ball.

"It's nice to have both Eric and Greivis back for us at guard. They certainly have experience now and worked hard in the offseason to come back even better as sophomores," said Williams.

Vasquez started in 22 of 34 games last season and was named ACC All-Freshman honorable mention. He scored 9.8 points per game as a freshman and recorded 157 assists, the third-highest single-season total among rookies at Maryland, and the most of any player on last year's squad. Vasquez played with the Venezuelan national team this summer at the FIBA Americas Championships and went up against some of the top competition in the world, including Team USA. Matched up against Kobe Bryant for much of the night Vasquez still managed a team-high 12 points against the Americans.

Hayes proved to be a steady influence in the backcourt as a freshman, starting 11 games and playing in all 34. He averaged 4.8 points and dished out 132 assists. He displayed a consistent shooting touch as he connected on 39 percent of his three-point shots and led the team from the foul line, making 91 percent of his attempts from the charity stripe.

Freshman Adrian Bowie should factor into the rotation at guard. Bowie, who grew up a few miles off campus in Greenbelt, Md., enjoyed a decorated prep career at nearby Montrose Christian. He is a guard with a quick first step who should be able to get to the rim and break down the defense. Bowie teamed with Vasquez at Montrose Christian for two seasons.

Williams will have plenty of options to chose from on the wing. Sophomore Landon Milboure should see an increase in playing time for the Terps. He appeared in 16 games as a freshman, but spent the summer in College Park and the results seem to have paid off. Milbourne also joined the East Coast All-Stars, a collection of collegiate players, for an eight-day tour through Belgium and Holland this summer where he gained valuable experience against international competition.

Cliff Tucker should also compete for minutes on the wing this season. A versatile athlete who can play a number of positions, Tucker comes to College Park after enjoying a standout two-sport career as a football and basketball star at Chapin High School in El Paso, Texas. Senior Jason McAlpin and freshman David Pearman will also provide depth on the wing for the Terps.

ERIC HAYES

JAMES GIST

FRONTCOURT

Maryland's frontcourt is loaded with talented players who each possess a different skill set, giving Williams plenty of viable options. The group is led by Gist, who was named All-ACC honorable mention last year. Gist was Maryland's third-leading scorer last year with 12.8 points per game, but the Silver Spring, Md., native led the team in scoring during league play with 13.9 points per contest. His 72 blocks and 7.2 rebounds per game were both second on the team a year ago. Always an athletic high-flying player, Gist improved his shooting touch and added a reliable outside jumper to his repertoire last season. He has improved his scoring dramatically in each of his three seasons, and the Terps will look for him to do it again as a senior.

Gist gained valuable experience this summer participating with USA Basketball's Pan Am Games squad which earned fifth place in Rio De Janeiro.

"It was a great experience for James to play with Team USA this summer," noted Williams. "You get a chance to compete against players that have different styles than maybe what you play against during the season. You learn things about the game of basketball that are really valuable."

Gist enters his senior season eighth on Maryland's all-time blocked shots list (154). He needs just 111 points to become the 46th player in school history to reach the 1,000-point plateau, and would become just the 22nd player at Maryland to join the 1,000 points - 500 rebounds club.

Senior Bambale Osby gave the Terps an immediate boost in his first season with the team last year. Osby played in all 34 games and averaged 5.8 points and 3.9 rebounds. He led the team in field goal percentage (.563) and gave the Terps a spark off the bench throughout the season.

Dave Neal has seen his role expand in each of the past two seasons and the trend should continue through his junior year. He has played in 40 games as a Terp and gives Williams an experienced performer who has played valuable minutes in key spots.

After redshirting last season, Jerome Burney should provide the Terps with another solid option up front. Burney spent last season practicing against Gist and Osby after recovering from a preseason injury and is ready to make an impact of his own.

Three newcomers will also contend for playing time as freshmen. Braxton Dupree, Dino Gregory, and Shane Walker are athletic big men who fit perfectly into Williams' fast-paced style. Dupree prepped at Calvert Hall in Baltimore which produced former Terrapin great Juan Dixon. Gregory was named the 2007 All-Baltimore City Player of the Year and finished his prep career with a record of 123-19 at Mount St. Joseph. Walker played his final season at Montrose Christian with teammate Adrian Bowie and helped the Mustangs post a record of 21-3. Each of them will have the chance to contribute to the Terps' success in 2007-08.

COACHING STAFF

In the same way that experienced players can pay off on the court, experience on the bench should also pay dividends for the Terps this season. For the first time in four seasons, the Terrapins coaching staff remained intact from the previous season, a fact that Williams knows can greatly benefit the team.

"We're not about ego in terms of who gets a specific recruit or who is responsible for what," said Williams. "We just try to win as many games as we can as a team. The coaches are a team just like the players are a team."

Michael Adams returns for this third year on staff, while former Terrapin standout Keith Booth is in his fourth year as an assistant coach. Chuck Driesell, who joined the staff prior to last season, has strong ties the program, stretching back to his father Lefty's days as the Maryland head coach.

The combination of experience and devotion to the program on the staff gives Williams a comfort level on the bench and removes any potential uncertainty that comes with making changes.

"Anytime you have a change on the staff, you don't know how it's going to work," noted Williams. "We've been solid with Michael Adams, Keith Booth and Chuck Driesell on staff. It's a pretty good combination of people and I have had the opportunity to watch them now for over a year and they work well together."

SCHEDULE

In addition to the challenging league schedule that comes with being a member of the Atlantic Coast Conference, the Terrapins have assembled one of the most difficult schedules in the country, as the Terps will face at least 11 teams that participated in postseason play last year. The schedule also gives the Terrapins high visibility, as 15 games will be televised nationally.

"There are several teams in there that we're going to have to be ready for," noted Williams. "I've always felt that on any given night if you're not ready to play, it's going to be anybody's game, even though on paper one team may have an advantage. Nowadays there are so many great players and so many good teams out there."

The Terps open the season on November 11 against North Florida as part of the 2007 O'Reilly Auto Parts College Basketball Experience. Maryland hosts the College Park Regional, which also includes Hampton and Tulsa. The winner of the two-day regional will advance to the Sprint Center in Kansas City for the championship rounds on November 19 and 20. Michigan State, Missouri, and UCLA also host regionals in what should be a highly competitive tournament.

Maryland hosts Illinois on November 28 as part of the annual Big 10/ACC Challenge. Last season the Terps won a thrilling matchup in Champaign. After taking on the Illini, Maryland will face Virginia Commonwealth in the annual BB&T Classic at Verizon Center. The Rams upset Duke in the first round of the NCAA tournament a year ago.

The Terrapins open ACC play against Boston College December 9 at Comcast Center. That game against the Eagles falls during a six-game homestand for the Terrapins which spans from December to early January. Other non-conference opponents who will visit Comcast Center include American, Delaware, Holy Cross, Lehigh, Morgan State, Northeastern, Ohio and Savannah State. The Terps will visit the Charlotte 49ers on January 5 in a game that will be played at the Charlotte Bobcats Arena, the site of the 2008 ACC Tournament.

During the 16-game ACC schedule, the Terrapins will have home-and-home matchups with Boston College, Duke, Virginia, Virginia Tech and Wake Forest. In league action the Terps host Clemson, Florida State and NC State. Maryland will play its only regular-season meetings against Georgia Tech, Miami and North Carolina on the road.

GARY WILLIAMS

HEAD COACH • MARYLAND '68
19TH SEASON AT MARYLAND (378-200, .654)
30TH SEASON OVERALL (585-328, .641)

Since returning to the College Park campus in 1989, Gary Williams (Maryland '68) has led his alma mater's basketball program from a period of troubled times to an era of national prominence. With 12 NCAA Tournament berths in the last 14 seasons, seven Sweet Sixteen appearances, a pair of consecutive Final Four showings, and the 2002 national championship – the first of its kind in Maryland basketball history – Williams and his staff have literally forged what is now more than a decade of dominance in college basketball's most storied and competitive conference.

Now, with 378 victories as Maryland's head coach, Williams is the school's Terrapins all-time winningest head coach, eclipsing the mark of former Terp mentor Charles "Lefty" Driesell, who amassed 348 victories in 17 seasons from 1969-70 to 1985-86. The Terrapins have averaged 23.0 wins per year since the 1994-95 season.

With 585 career victories in 29 seasons overall, Williams is the seventh-winningest active head coach in NCAA Division I men's basketball.

Williams was heralded as the national and ACC Coach of the Year during the Terps' 2002 championship run. He is one of just 12 active coaches in America to boast a national title and one of only three in the conference. He has become the third-winningest coach in ACC history after transforming the Maryland program into one of the nation's most formidable, and building a Baltimore-D.C. area following that has consistently resulted in packed arenas. After demolishing attendance records with sellout crowds during the final years of Maryland basketball at Cole Field House, Williams' Terps have finished in the top ten nationally in each of the last five seasons. The Terrapins played before 319,616 fans last season, averaging crowds of 16,822 and selling out 17 home contests.

- In June of 2005, Williams received the University of Maryland's highest alumni honor as he, Connie Chung, Renaldo Nehemiah and others were inducted into the University of Maryland's Alumni Hall of Fame. Williams was inducted into the University of Maryland's Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.
- In January of 2005, Williams was named one of Washingtonian Magazine's 'Washingtonians of the Year.' He joined others such as Washington D.C. mayor Anthony Williams and Tim Russert of NBC's Meet The Press on the prestigious list.
- In September of 2004, Williams joined Washington Redskins great Darrell Green and Washington Sports and Entertainment Chairman and CEO Abe Pollin as the inaugural inductees into the new Greater Washington Sports Hall of Champions.
- In July of 2004, Williams was appointed by Maryland president C.D. Mote to serve on the University's Great Expectations initiative, a seven-year capital campaign seeking to raise a record $1 billion in private support. Williams, along with journalist Connie Chung and technology entrepreneur Buno Pati are serving as co-chairs of the scholarship campaign, which is working to raise $350 million.
- Williams was one of only five coaches in NCAA Division I to have led his team to 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments, from 1994-2004. The Terrapins' 2007 appearance in the NCAA Tournament marked the 14th consecutive postseason berth for Williams' teams.
- In guiding his 2004 Terrapins to the ACC Tournament title, Williams became the third coach in league history to lead his team to victory over the top three seeds: No. 3 Wake Forest, No. 2 NC State and No. 1 Duke. By overcoming a 21-point first half deficit against the Wolfpack, Williams engineered the greatest comeback in the 52-year history of the ACC Tournament.
- He is one of seven college basketball coaches since 1980 to guide his alma mater to the Final Four and was the first since 1974 to lead his alma mater to a national title.
- With a victory over No. 1 Florida in Gainesville on Dec. 10, 2003, he is the winningest coach in the nation against top-ranked opponents (6).
- With his 500th win at NC State on March 2, 2003, the 1968 Maryland grad became the sixth ACC alumnus in conference history to amass as many as 500 coaching victories.
- With 378 wins as Maryland's head coach, Williams is only the sixth mentor in Atlantic Coast Conference history to pass the 300-victory milestone.
- With 157 career ACC victories as Maryland's coach, Williams is the third-winningest ACC coach in terms of conference victories. Only Dean Smith (364, North Carolina) and Mike Krzyzewski (272, Duke) have more ACC conference wins.

NATIONAL PROMINENCE

For Williams, now in his 19th season, the accomplishments of the past 14 years have been particularly sweet for a coach whose roots with the program extend to his playing days in the late 1960s, and whose earliest seasons as head coach were tormented by NCAA sanctions he inherited. The two-time Final Four architect and ACC championship mentor is himself a Maryland alumnus, who found glory for a program whose history is filled with a myriad of some of the most prominent names in college basketball annals: Shue, Lucas, Elmore, McMillen, Albert King, Bias, Buck Williams and Walt Williams.

Guiding his Maryland team to the 2004 ACC title remains a poignant source of pride for Williams and all of the Terrapin faithful. Coaching the most youth-filled team in college basketball to an incredible weekend of success, in a year where the ACC was rated the nation's most competitive conference, is not an accomplishment soon to be forgotten by Maryland's fans or the coach himself. The weekend featured three hard-fought, instant-classic contests. In the end, the Terrapins emerged victorious, with their first tournament title since 1984 and only the third in the storied history of the Maryland program. In only three days – three days that were the result of a season's worth of determination, diligence and lessons learned – the Terps were transformed from a team teetering on the edge of the NCAA bubble to a No. 4 seed in the national tournament.

The excitement of the 2004 ACC Tournament conjured images of the Terrapins' NCAA title run only two years earlier. Williams followed a remarkable 2001 Final Four season by compiling the most wins in Maryland history, going 32-4 in 2002. He engineered the school's best regular season ever (25-3), its first outright ACC regular season title since 1980, its first No. 1 seed in an NCAA Tournament, and a return to the Final Four. He earned billing as the league's coach of the year for the first time in his career and later was honored with various national awards, the Victor Award and the New York Athletic Club's Winged Foot Award as the coach of the national champions.

Capping his personal ascent to college basketball's highest pinnacle, Williams added author to his resume in summer 2002 by completing an autobiography entitled Sweet Redemption, with award-winning journalist David Vise. The book captures the essence of Williams' arrival at Maryland, the Terps' re-building efforts, their return to the NCAA Tournament in 1994 and their tournament climb ever since.

The rise of the Maryland program has run parallel with Williams' ascent among the most notable in the collegiate coaching fraternity. Williams was one of only five coaches to boast a string of 11 consecutive trips to the NCAA Tournament from 1994-2004. He has produced more than 20 wins in 10 of his last 13 seasons, and a school-record eight straight from 1996-97 to 2003-04. Williams' 16 career 20-win seasons places him eighth among active coaches.

Williams, 378-200 at Maryland, boasts a 585-328 overall record including four years at American (1979-82), four at Boston College (1983-86) and three at Ohio State (1987-89). In 29 seasons as a Division I head coach, Williams has coached in 15 NCAA Tournaments and guided nine different teams to the NCAA Sweet Sixteen. One of 26 coaches ever to take three different schools to the NCAA Tournament, Williams has guided teams to the NIT or NCAA Tournament at each of his four coaching stops.

During his run of 11 straight NCAA Tournaments at Maryland, he forged his way to becoming the winningest NCAA Tournament coach in Maryland history with 23 wins and 11 losses – nearly 70 percent. He boasts a 27-14 NCAA Tournament record overall, and has carried Maryland to the Sweet Sixteen in five of the past ten years.

TERP ALUMNUS

Williams is one of just two 500-win coaches who now engineer the programs at their respective alma maters, along with Jim Boeheim at Syracuse. With Roy Williams of North Carolina, those three also are the only active coaches to direct their alma maters to at least one Final Four appearance, with Gary Williams and Boeheim making multiple showings with their alma maters.

In 2001, Williams became just the sixth coach since 1980 to direct his alma mater to the Final Four. A year later, he became the first coach since 1974 to guide his alma mater to a national title. Williams is the only active coach to take his alma mater to consecutive Final Four appearances. He is only the eighth mentor ever to guide his alma mater to consecutive Final Fours, and the first since Houston's Guy Lewis in 1982, 1983 and 1984.

A former Terrapin point guard, Williams was a starter under coach Bud Millikan during the 1965, 1966 and 1967 seasons. He was the team captain as a senior and still lists one of his most memorable basketball moments as his experience as a spectator at the 1966 national championship game conducted at Maryland's legendary Cole Field House, between Texas Western and Kentucky.

The former Terrapin student-athlete is also noted as one of just eight former ACC basketball players ever to return to the league as a head coach. On March 2, 2003, Williams became the sixth ACC alumnus to win at least 500 games as Drew Nicholas nailed a buzzer-beating 3-pointer to down NC State, 68-65. With 378 wins as Maryland's head coach, Williams is only the sixth ACC coach to reach the 300 milestone.

WILLIAMS ERA

Inducted into the University of Maryland Sports Hall of Fame in 1999 and the University's Alumni Hall of Fame in 2005, Williams has placed his alma mater's program back among the elite in the always-competitive Atlantic Coast Conference. The Terps have become synonymous with Duke and North Carolina among the league's most dominant programs, and nationally have become a fixture among weekly polls.

Another success story during the Williams Era at Maryland was the coveted home-court win streak over non-conference foes, which spanned more than 12 years and 87 games. Maryland did not lose a non-league home game under Williams for well over a decade since just his fourth home game as head coach: Dec. 12, 1989 vs. Coppin State. The Terps went undefeated against non-conference foes during the final 12 years of competition at Cole Field House, and ran the record to 87 games before a five-point loss to No. 14 Florida on Dec. 14, 2002 at Comcast Center.

The decade of the 1990s was certainly a decade of resurgence for the Maryland basketball team.

Since Williams' arrival as head coach in the summer of 1989, the Terps have soared to a level of national prominence unmatched during the first century of the program – and unmatched by the vast majority of programs nationwide. Included among the many superior accomplishments during the Williams Era are: a school-record 11 straight NCAA Tournament appearances (1994-04) which include consecutive trips to the Final Four, a national crown and seven Sweet Sixteen appearances; the 2004 ACC title; 11 consecutive upper-division finishes in the ACC including runner-up distinction in 1999, 2000 and 2003; an outright regular season ACC title in 2002 and a shared one in 1995; a school-record 28 victories during the 1999 season which was shattered again with 32 in 2002; four NBA lottery picks, one national Player of the Year, a senior of the year and two ACC Players of the Year; an ACC Tournament MVP; and the first recipient of the nation's Senior CLASS Award.

2004 ACC CHAMPIONS

Added for good measure are a NBA Co-Rookie of the Year in Steve Francis (2000), and a preseason top-five ranking three times in four seasons (1999-2002). The result is a program and a coach who have reached icon status.

Williams is the only head coach in school history to guide the Terps to 14 postseason tournament appearances. After guiding his first two Maryland teams to winning records and overcoming an NCAA probationary period resulting from the previous regime, he guided the Terps to an NCAA Tournament appearance in just his fifth season, 1994, and earned a share of the ACC regular-season title in just his sixth, 1995.

Williams' past 14 seasons have brought Maryland from striving for contention in the Atlantic Coast Conference to the realization of the tournament title in 2004; from endeavors to become nationally competitive to the reality of 12 NCAA berths, seven Sweet Sixteen appearances, two Final Fours and of course, the 2002 NCAA championship.

In 2003, Williams took a group of experienced but mostly untested Terps to a third-straight Sweet Sixteen. Along the way, the squad earned its fourth final Top 10 ranking in five seasons, posted a seventh-straight 20-win season, recorded a school-record sixth straight finish in the upper echelon of the ACC by capturing second place, and posted a school-record sixth straight season of double-digit ACC victories. The Terrapins helped Williams to his 500th career coaching victory on March 2, 2003.

The 2002 championship itself was a product of maturity and steadfast dedication to a common goal – and included a magical ride through the final season of play at venerable Cole Field House. Williams molded a cast of seven returning players from its national semifinalists of 2001, while senior captains Lonny Baxter, Juan Dixon and Byron Mouton keyed a consistent effort from the beginning of practice in October, through an undefeated (15-0) home campaign at Cole, all the way to a net-cutting evening at the Georgia Dome on April 1. The Terrapins overcame personal obstacles and handled the ACC's and the NCAA Tournament's stiffest challenges. After winning the ACC regular season crown with a 15-1 record, the Terps' ascent to the national championship game included successive victories over perennial powers Wisconsin, Kentucky, Connecticut and Kansas – and a 64-52 defeat of Indiana in the title game. Maryland won the first national title in school history, and earned its very first No. 1 ranking, after becoming the first team in NCAA history to reach the championship game by defeating the highest possible seed in every round.

A year earlier, the Terrapins began the season with a lofty No. 5 ranking by the Associated Press and finished with the No. 4 spot by USA Today/ESPN. The Terps butted heads weekly during an ACC schedule that included five nationally ranked teams, but found their stride late in the year to win 10 of their last 12 games. Of those 10, seven nationally ranked foes fell in the Terps' path to the Final Four, with their only losses coming to eventual NCAA and ACC champion Duke. Local rival Georgetown was dispatched in the Sweet Sixteen, and an 87-73 win over No. 2-ranked and top-seeded Stanford earned Maryland its first NCAA regional title.

2002 NCAA CHAMPIONS
2004 ACC CHAMPIONS

The 2000 season may have been one of Williams' greatest coaching accomplishments ever – guiding a "rebuilding" Terrapin team to 25 wins, a second straight second-place finish in the ACC and its first trip to the conference tournament final since 1984. All with a freshman point guard (Steve Blake), three first-year starters (Baxter, Blake, Dixon) and only one senior following the loss of three players to the NBA draft. Two years later, those three first-year starters would become seasoned veterans and national champions.

Four years after tying for his first ACC regular season championship in 1995, Williams led Maryland to a then school-record 28 victories and a school-record 13 ACC victories during the 1999 season. The Terps finished the season ranked No. 5 by the Associated Press – then the highest final ranking since 1975 and only the third time in school history that the program had earned a top five final national ranking. Maryland peaked at No. 2 as it won its first 10 games of the season, and its No. 2 seed in the NCAA Tournament matched the highest tournament seed in school history.

Williams has been voted as a national coach of the year finalist five times, including his selection in 2002 as the national coach of the year by Basketball America and CBSSportsline.com, and in 2001 by Playboy. Besides the ACC coaching honor, other accolades after the 2002 championship season included the Winged Foot Award as presented by the N.Y. Athletic Club; the Victor Award as presented by the National Academy of Sports Editors; the Harry Litwack Award as Eastern Coach of the Year, presented annually by the Herb Good Club of Philadelphia; and Seaboard Region Coach of the Year honors as named by Basketball Times and Eastern Basketball. In 1998, ACC Athlete Magazine voted him as the ACC Coach of the Year. He received the same honor from College Hoops Illustrated in 2000. Following Maryland's 1997 season, when the Terps advanced to the NCAA Tournament and finished with a 9-7 record in the ACC, he was named as the Seaboard Region Coach of the Year by Basketball Times and Eastern Basketball. He was honored as the district coach of the year in 1981, and in 1983 he was named as the Eastern Coach of the Year.

Williams has cemented his legacy as one of America's greatest recruiters and college coaches — a statement backed not just by consecutive Final Four appearances or 23 winning records in 27 seasons, but by 29 NBA draft choices and the numerous former assistant coaches who now guide their own programs. Williams has mentored seven first-round selections and six NBA lottery picks: Walt Williams (#7 pick, 1992), Joe Smith (#1, 1995), Steve Francis (#2, 1999) and Chris Wilcox (#8, 2002); and Ohio State standouts Jim Jackson (#5, 1992) and Dennis Hopson (#3, 1987). Two-time European player of the year Sarunas Jasikevicius played for four years under Williams and starred in Europe before signing with the Indiana Pacers in the summer of 2005.

Williams was hired on June 13, 1989. He inherited a team that had won only nine games the year before and finished in last place in the ACC. Displaying his coaching abilities immediately, he helped the Terps to 19 wins while advancing to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament – and making him the first coach in school history to lead a team into the postseason in his first year. In addition, Maryland's 10-game improvement in the win column during Williams' first season was the largest in school history and second largest in the annals of the ACC by a first-year coach. Only the legendary Press Maravich, who improved NC State's winning ledger by 13 games in his inaugural season (1965), can boast a higher first-year improvement in the win column.

A 1968 graduate of Maryland, Williams lettered as the Terps' starting point guard from 1965-67 under head coach Bud Millikan, serving as team captain during his senior season. It was as a player in the ACC that Williams began developing his basketball philosophy. Playing beside three-year teammates Joe Harrington and Jay McMillen, he studied the game under Millikan, and it was then that he developed his penchant for the full-court pressure defenses for which his teams are now known. He learned his half court man-to-man defense from Millikan, who learned from the legendary Hank Iba. The fast-breaking offense that Williams' teams employ is similar to the style Vic Bubas' Duke teams used when Williams was a player.

PATH BACK TO COLLEGE PARK

Williams began his coaching career alongside Harrington as graduate students at Maryland under freshman coach Tom Davis. The 1969 freshman team finished with a 12-4 record as Williams bonded with Davis in a relationship that would serve him well as his coaching career progressed.

After earning a degree in business, he continued his coaching career as an assistant at Woodrow Wilson High School in Camden, N.J. After one year, he took over as the head coach and guided his first team to a perfect 27-0 record and the state title. Williams has called that season "the ultimate — there wasn't another game to win." Upon winning the NCAA West Region championship in 2001, he fondly recalled his championship at Camden as the "only other time I've ever got to cut down a net."

Williams spent one more year at Woodrow Wilson before accepting an invitation from Davis in 1972 to become an assistant at Lafayette College. While an assistant at Lafayette, Williams also served as the head soccer coach. In 1978, Williams accompanied Davis to Boston College. After one year there, Williams became the head coach at American University.

Williams immediately began making his mark. His 1981 squad set the still-standing school record for victories with a 24-6 mark, won the East Coast Conference championship, and played in the NIT. Williams was named the district coach of the year. American returned to postseason play the next season as the Williams-led Eagles went 21-9 and played in the NIT for the second consecutive year. Only once prior to Williams' arrival had AU attended a postseason tournament, and the Eagles have not returned since. Williams' four-year record at AU was 72-42.

In 1983, Williams succeeded Davis at Boston College. He was once again an instant success, posting a 25-7 record and leading the Eagles to the regular-season championship of the Big East in his first season. Making his first appearance in the NCAA Tournament, Williams directed the Eagles to the Sweet 16. He finished third in the balloting for national coach of the year, and was honored again as the Eastern Coach of the Year by his peers. He went on to duplicate that NCAA Tournament success again in 1985, leading B.C. back to the Sweet Sixteen.

In 1987, Williams accepted the head coaching job at Ohio State, becoming the 10th basketball coach in that school's illustrious history. He succeeded Eldon Miller and once again enjoyed success. In three years, the Buckeyes made three postseason appearances. His first squad defeated then-No. 1 and unbeaten Iowa (coached by Tom Davis) in the regular season, in what would be the first of many giant-killings. During Williams' three-year term at Ohio State, OSU defeated a second-ranked Purdue team, perennial power Kansas and highly regarded Big Ten powers Michigan and Illinois. Each of Williams' three Ohio State teams advanced to postseason play, and he laid the groundwork for the highly successful teams that followed when he left Columbus for College Park.

WILLIAMS IN THE COMMUNITY

The Terrapin's head coach is an active member of the University of Maryland and greater Baltimore-Washington, D.C. community. Williams is involved in extensive charity, fund-raising and public speaking events throughout the year, particularly in the offseason

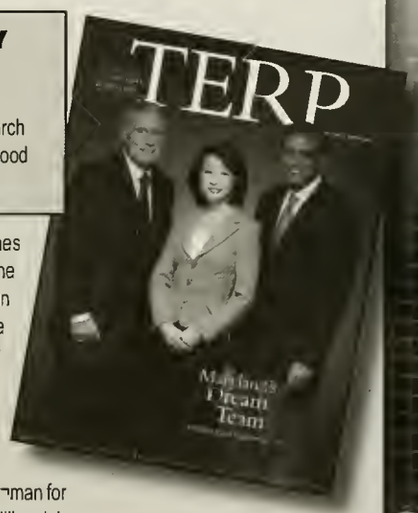
In July of 2004, University President C.D. Mote Jr. appointed Williams to co-chair the scholarship component of Maryland's ongoing $1 billion Great Expectations campaign. Williams, along with journalist Connie Chung and technology entrepreneur Buno Pati serve as co-chairs of the scholarship campaign, which is working to raise $350 million. In addition to a pledge of a half-million dollars of his own for academic scholarships at the university, Williams represents the University at various functions and performs various networking duties to spearhead the fund-raising effort.

During the summer of 2006, Williams participated in Operation Hardwood, a goodwill tour to support the American troops serving in the Middle East. He spent a week touring the Persian Gulf region and coaching basketball teams made up of the best military players.

Williams served as the commencement speaker at the graduation proceedings for the Robert H. Smith School of Business. Williams, a 1968 University graduate with a degree in business, addressed the Class of 2004 at the Comcast Center ceremony.

WILLIAMS' RECENT CHARITY WORK HAS BENEFITED:

Coaches vs. Cancer, Cystic Fibrosis Foundation
Great Expectations Campaign, National Autism Research
National Physical Education Council, Operation Hardwood
The Salvation Army, The Babe Ruth Museum



Williams has been heavily involved in the NABC's Coaches vs. Cancer efforts. The program is a partnership between the National Association of Basketball Coaches and the American Cancer Society. The coaches participating in this program are dedicated to fighting cancer through increased support for research, patient services, and prevention education.

Williams has also worked with Maryland grad Boomer Esiason and others to benefit the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation, hosting charity basketball games and golf events.

In addition, Williams has also served as the honorary chairman for the Walk Far for N.A.A.R., which has raised more than one million dollars for the National Alliance of Autism Research. He has also chaired the Salvation Army's FORE Kids golf tournament in 2003 and 2004, which raises proceeds for Washington, D.C.'s youth.

MICHAEL ADAMS

ASSISTANT COACH
BOSTON COLLEGE '85
THIRD SEASON AT MARYLAND

Michael Adams is a familiar face to the Washington, D.C. area, having played for the Washington Bullets in the late 1980s and early 1990s, having served as a television analyst for the Bullets on Home Team Sports in 1996-97 and having spent the 2004 season as the head coach of the WNBA's Washington Mystics.

Now in his third season on staff with the Terrapins, Adams is responsible for player development, advance scouting, game preparation, and recruiting. Adams paid immediate dividends in his first year with the Terps, helping assemble Maryland's freshman class which was rated No. 18 in the nation by Rivals.com.

His addition to head coach Gary Williams' staff in April of 2005 garnered instant national acclaim as CBSSportsline.com tabbed him "...one of the best assistant coach hires of the off-season." His ties to University of Maryland head coach Gary Williams go back to the days when Adams played for Williams at Boston College from 1982-85. Adams brings 14 years of professional basketball experience to the Terrapins, as both a player and coach.

One of the most proficient 3-point shooters in NBA history, Adams spent 11 seasons as a player in the league, which included stints with Sacramento, Washington (1986-87 and 1991-94), Denver and Charlotte. Adams averaged 14.7 points, 6.7 assists and 2.9 rebounds per contest through his 11-year career. He led the NBA in 3-point field goals made during the 1987-88 and 1990-91 seasons, and made at least one 3-point field goal in 79 consecutive games across the 1988 and 1989 seasons, placing him second all-time in the NBA's record books behind (fellow Boston College alum) Dana Barros' 89.

Adams' best season statistically came in 1990-91, when he averaged 26.5 points and 10.5 assists. In 1992, as a member of the Bullets, Adams was selected to the Eastern Conference All-Star team. That year he finished third in the fan voting for the starting spot.

Adams began his coaching career in 1999, serving as assistant coach of the International Basketball League's Richmond Rhythm and helping that team to the 1999 championship game. In 2000, he returned to the NBA as an assistant coach with the Vancouver Grizzlies, moving with the team to Memphis until the end of the 2001-02 season.

As the head coach of the Mystics in 2004, Adams led the WNBA squad to a 17-17 overall record and a berth in the playoffs for the first time in two seasons.

Adams enjoyed a stellar collegiate career during his four years at Boston College, finishing as the school's fifth-leading scorer before being selected in the third round of the 1985 NBA Draft by the Sacramento Kings. Adams earned a bachelor's degree in communications from Boston College, and his jersey was retired there in 1999.

A native of Hartford, Conn., and a standout high school player at Hartford Public High School, Adams has eight siblings. In 2002, he was inducted into the Hartford Public High School Athletic Hall of Fame for basketball. In December 1999, Sports Illustrated named Adams one of the 50 Greatest Connecticut Sports Figures.

Adams now resides in Mitchellville, Md. Off the court, he has been active in many community activities, including coaching his son's youth basketball teams and volunteering for other local organizations. His son, Michael Christian, is another budding point guard and is a a freshman at Good Counsel High School.

CHUCK DRIESELL

ASSISTANT COACH
MARYLAND '85
SECOND SEASON AT MARYLAND

Former Terp shooting guard and Maryland alumnus Chuck Driesell enters his second season on head coach Gary Williams' staff. Driesell, who is respected as a recruiter has gone head-to-head with schools from the ACC, Southeastern Conference and the Big East. He brings 17 years of collegiate coaching experience to the Terps' program where his father, the legendary Charles 'Lefty" Driesell, coached from 1969-86.

During his first season on staff in 2006-07 the Terrapins posted a 25-9 record. Maryland went 10-6 in ACC play and advanced to the second round of the NCAA Tournament. An integral part of the coaching staff, Driesell works as the lead recruiting coordinator for the Terps. In addition, he is responsible for advance scouting, player development, and game preparation.

Driesell joined the Maryland staff after serving as head coach at Bishop Ireton High School from 2004 to 2006. During that time he coached current Terrapin Shane Walker. Prior to his stint at Bishop Ireton, he was an assistant coach and recruiting coordinator at Georgetown University in 2003-04. Driesell spent six seasons (1997-2003) as head coach at Marymount University (Division III) in Arlington, Va., where he guided the Saints to an 88-72 mark. In 1999-2000, he led Marymount to the Capital Athletic Conference Tournament Championship and its first Division III NCAA Tournament appearance. Driesell also served as assistant athletic director at Marymount from 1999-2003.

Before arriving at Marymount, Driesell spent nine seasons as associate head coach at James Madison under his father, where he helped guide the Dukes to unprecedented success. From 1989-94, JMU either won or tied for five consecutive Colonial Athletic Association regular-season championships (the only team in the country to do so at the time). The Dukes captured the 1994 CAA Tournament title and advanced to the NCAA Tournament, where James Madison lost to eventual national finalist Florida, 64-62. JMU compiled a 159-111 record (85-45 CAA) and made four postseason appearances in nine seasons under the Driesells.

As a four-year letterwinner at Maryland from 1981-85, Driesell was part of four postseason teams under his father's leadership. The Terps won 85 games during his career, while making three NCAA Tournament appearances and capturing the 1984 ACC Championship. The Silver Spring, Md., native was also an ACC Honor Roll selection three of his four years at Maryland and graduated with a B.S. in business marketing in 1985. Following graduation, Driesell began his coaching career at the United States Naval Prep School, where he amassed a 40-29 record from 1985-88.

KEITH BOOTH

ASSISTANT COACH
MARYLAND '03
FOURTH SEASON AT MARYLAND

In his fourth season on Gary Williams' coaching staff, former Terrapin All-American and NBA World Champion Keith Booth is back to the place he called home from 1994-97. A powerful and versatile athlete from his playing days in the post, Booth led the Terrapins to four NCAA Tournaments, including a pair of Sweet Sixteen appearances, and in 1994 began Maryland's streak of 11-consecutive NCAA berths that ran from 1994 to 2004.

Booth assists with the daily operations of the men's basketball program, including recruiting, advance scouting, player development, and game preparation. During his time on staff, the Terrapins have won no fewer than 19 games and posted 25 wins in 2006-07.

In a dominant senior season at Maryland, Booth led the Terps in scoring (19.5 ppg), rebounding (7.9 rpg) and steals (2.0 spg) and is still Maryland's all-time leader in free throws made (576). Booth finished his impressive career at Maryland among the Terps' all-time leaders in scoring (8th, 1,776 points), rebounding (6th, 916 points), steals (5th, 193) and is one of 15 players to have his jersey honored above the Terps' home court at Comcast Center.

CHARM CITY CONNECTION

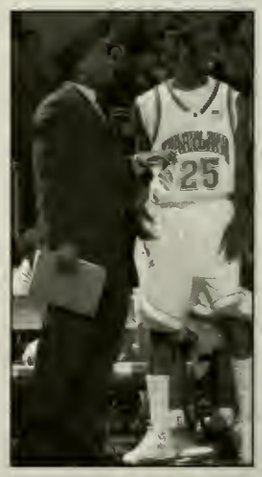
The Baltimore, Md., native's decision to attend the University out of Dunbar High School was considered one of the major recruiting windfalls for Williams and the Terps in the mid-1990s. As a 6-6 guard, Booth was frequently called upon by Williams to guard bigger opponents, and he always rose to occasion.

"Keith Booth was the most important recruit during my years here in terms of getting our basketball program to the national level," said Williams when Booth was introduced as an assistant coach at his alma mater. "Keith always achieved success against larger opponents, and his competitive attitude will carry over to our players."

As a senior at Dunbar, Booth was a Parade and McDonald's All-American selection, he also led his team to the Maryland Class "A" State Championship. Booth was named "Player of the Year" in Baltimore City and the state of Maryland by the Baltimore Sun. A year earlier Booth led his Dunbar squad to a 29-0 record as a junior, helping the team to a No.1 national ranking by USA Today.

It was Booth's decision to attend Maryland that revived the Terps' recruiting pipeline to talent-rich Baltimore. Terrapin star Rodney Elliott followed Booth from the Charm City and enjoyed a successful career as a Terp, and in 1998 another Baltimore native, Juan Dixon, arrived on campus. Dixon, of course, would help continue Maryland's resurgence begun by Booth and teammate Joe Smith, as he eventually became the Terps' all-time scoring leader and keyed Maryland to the 2002 National Championship.

Back at Maryland, Booth assists in all facets of the basketball program. He will work with the athletics department's Academic Support and Career Development to ensure that the team's academic responsibilities are met. He will contribute to the on court coaching, opponent scouting, and recruiting. He will also assume responsibilities as the co-director of the Gary Williams basketball camp, coordinating the management of the coaches, scheduling of the facilities, housing, meals and guest speakers.



PROVEN CHAMPION

After a stellar career at Maryland playing alongside Smith, Elliott Johnny Rhodes and others, Booth was an AP third team All-America selection as a senior in 1997. Booth left Maryland with a host of accolades including All-ACC honors four times over, earning first team honors as a senior, third team as a junior, and honorable mention designation during his freshman and sophomore seasons.

Booth's teams appeared in two NCAA Sweet Sixteens, finishing his sophomore season as ACC Regular Season Co-Champions and ranked No. 10 in the country in the final AP poll. That year (1994-95) the Terps compiled a 26-8 record, including a perfect 16-0 record at Cole Field House. Booth finished his Terrapin career with averages of 14.1 points per game and 7.3 rebounds.

After his playing years at Maryland, Booth was a first round draft pick of the Chicago Bulls in 1997, taken as the #28 selection overall. Booth became the second player in school history to win a NBA Championship when the Michael Jordan-led Bulls won the title in 1998. Booth had his best NBA game on March 30, 1999, as he posted career highs of 18 points, nine rebounds and six assists against the Philadelphia 76ers.

Following a pair of seasons in the NBA, Booth returned to campus and finished his degree in criminology and criminal justice in 2003. Booth worked at an after school program at his former high school Dunbar, and rediscovered his love of coaching while managing a middle school baseball team in Baltimore.

ROBERT EHSAN

ASSISTANT RECRUITING COORDINATOR
UC-DAVIS '05
THIRD YEAR AT MARYLAND

Robert Ehsan begins his third year in the University of Maryland basketball program as the assistant recruiting coordinator after spending two seasons as graduate assistant on Gary Williams' staff. He assists with the day-to-day activities of the basketball office, including supporting recruiting, assisting in scheduling, supervising student managers and assisting in operations. Ehsan is responsible for maintaining the Terrapins' recruiting database and works closely with the Gary Williams summer camps and golf tournament.

"Robert is one of the top young assistants in college basketball," said head coach Gary Williams, regarding the former graduate assistant. "He has been a tremendous asset for our program working with academics, advance scouting, player development and game management."

The Terrapins have been to the postseason in each of the past three years and have a record of 63-35 with Ehsan on staff. In 2006-07, the Terps finished 25-9, including a 10-6 mark in league play. Maryland's 25 victories last year was the fourth-highest win total in school history and four Terps earned all-conference honors following the season.

Ehsan played four seasons at the University of California, Davis. He started his last two seasons for the Aggies and was the team captain in his senior year. Ehsan finished 23rd in the nation in free-throw percentage as a junior for Cal-Davis, which was in a transition period while moving from NCAA Division II to Division I. At Davis, Ehsan received the Gordon S. Baranco Award, symbolizing exceptional leadership, unselfishness, work ethic and commitment toward the team.

He became interested in coaching while assisting with camp staffs at Santa Clara, UC Santa Barbara, UC Davis and Gary Williams Basketball Camp at Maryland. Ehsan also held other positions in finance and marketing during summers. Ehsan led his Bella Vista High School team in scoring during all four seasons and was a three-time all-league pick at the Sacramento-area school.

He earned a bachelor's degree in economics while at UC Davis, making the athletics honor roll from 2002 through 2005. Ehsan is scheduled to complete a master's of business administration from UMUC in April of 2008. A native of Sacramento, Calif., he resides in College Park.

TROY WAINWRIGHT

DIRECTOR OF BASKETBALL OPERATIONS
UMUC '04
12TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Troy Wainwright, the director of basketball operations, is in his 12th year as a member of Gary Williams' staff. He is an essential part of the success of the team, both on and off the court, and is responsible for the administration of the basketball office.

Wainwright is responsible for all internal operations of the basketball program and serves as a liaison to the athletics department including Deborah Yow, Maryland's director of athletics. He is involved in the day-to-day operations of the team, including budgetary matters, team travel, on-campus housing and dining contracts. In addition, Wainwright is responsible for non-conference scheduling and works with the conference office to coordinate the Terps' ACC schedule.

A native of Berlin, Md., Wainwright has played an integral role in the Terps' success since his arrival. The Terps have appeared in the NCAA Tournament nine times, won the NCAA championship in 2002 and captured the ACC title in 2004. Maryland has averaged over 20 wins during his 11 seasons with the team, despite playing the second-toughest schedule in the nation in 2005, the third most difficult in 2002 and the fifth most arduous in 1998. In 2003, 1998 and 1999 the Terps advanced to the Sweet Sixteen of the NCAA Tournament, and in 1999, Maryland won 28 games and was ranked fifth in the nation. In 2001, the Terps advanced to the Final Four and were ranked No. 4 in final rankings by USA Today/ESPN, and of course, in 2002 the Maryland basketball family captured its first-ever national championship and finished with a No. 1 ranking.

Among Wainwright's chief responsibilities is the administration of team travel plans. Wainwright coordinates all transportation (air and ground) as well as hotel accommodations. During his tenure, Wainwright has successfully coordinated travel to nine NCAA Tournaments, 11 ACC Tournaments, Hawaii, Puerto Rico and Madison Square Garden, as well as every regular season game. Wainwright successfully directed the Terrapins up and down the East Coast during the 2002 NCAA championship run, to Nashville and San Antonio as part of Maryland's 2003 Sweet Sixteen campaign, and to Denver for a school-record 11th straight NCAA appearance in 2004.

During the summer of 2004, Wainwright played an integral role in coordinating travel for the Terrapins during a 12-day, five-game tour of Italy.

Wainwright serves as the director of the annual Gary Williams golf tournament that raises money to endow scholarships for the basketball program. The tournament has raised more than $300,000 during the 11 years since Wainwright's arrival. As tournament director, Wainwright helps solicit sponsorships and participants, and helps with event management on the day of the event. In addition, he coordinates team and individual player awards and a silent auction.

Wainwright also serves as the co-director of the Gary Williams basketball camp each summer. He helps coordinate virtually every aspect of the camp including housing, meals and camp speakers. The recent Gary Williams camps were the largest in its history, attracting more than 1,200 overnight campers each over a three-week period in each of the last four summers.

A TERP RETURNS

Wainwright was a sociology major at the University of Maryland and went on to work as an account manager with the Washington Bullets from 1992-1994. He then served as an advertising account executive at the Washington Times from 1994-96. He completed a degree at University of Maryland, University College in 2004.

Wainwright served as head manager for the basketball team during Williams' first season at Maryland, 1990, and accompanied the Terps as they advanced to the second round of the National Invitation Tournament. He served as an assistant manager for the three years preceding Williams' arrival in College Park. Wainwright is scheduled to complete a master's degree in management from UMUC in May of 2008.

PETE YURISH

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING COACH
SHEPHERD '87
THIRD YEAR AT MARYLAND

Pete Yurish enters his third season as the strength and conditioning coach for the men's basketball program. His appointment to the position paid immediate dividends for the Terps, who broke 22 of 24 all-time records during the summer of 2006. In the spring of 2007, the Terrapins re-broke two of those records. Yurish also works with the swimming and diving programs at Maryland. During 2005-06 26 of the 32 student-athletes set personal-bests in their respective events.

Prior to joined the staff at Maryland, Yurish spent 12 seasons on the staff at Shepherd University in nearby Shepherdstown, W.Va. While at Shepherd, he was an assistant football coach, as well as coordinating all strength and conditioning activities for the Rams' athletic teams. Under Yurish's guidance, the strength and conditioning program at Shepherd became one of the best in the region, as the Rams set over 40 school records in the weight room during the last three years. Shepherd produced 14 NSCA All-Americans with Yurish on staff.

Yurish served as the defensive line/weight and strength coach at Lenoir-Rhyne (1991-92), Catawba (1992), and as a graduate assistant at East Carolina (1989-90).

As a varsity letterman, he earned first team All-West Virginia Conference honors in 1986 and led the league in defensive efficiency, helping Shepherd to the WVIAC title and the NAIA playoffs. He still ranks among the career leaders in total tackles (315) and solo tackles (143), as he served as a defensive captain for three years and helped the Rams to a four-year record of 29-13 from 1983-86. Yurish was inducted into the Shepherd College Athletic Hall of Fame in 1999.

A 1987 graduate of Shepherd, Yurish earned a bachelor's degree in physical education before moving on to East Carolina, where he received his master's in educational administration.

Yurish and his wife, Katrina, reside in Boonsboro, Md., with their son, Calleb.

J.J. BUSH

ATHLETIC TRAINER
FLORIDA STATE '69
36TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

J.J. Bush is in his 16th season as the athletic trainer for Gary Williams and the Terrapin men's basketball program. The past 15 years represents his second stint working with the program for the University of Maryland 30-Year Service Award winner, as he was also the team's trainer from 1972-1976.

As the trainer for the basketball team, Bush coordinates the daily medical treatments for all the players and supervises all rehabilitative efforts in case of injury. In the last 14 years, Bush has accompanied the Terrapins to 12 NCAA Tournaments, including seven Sweet Sixteen appearances, two Final Fours and the national championship in 2002.

Bush came to the university in 1972 as an assistant trainer and began working immediately with the men's basketball team. The team won the Atlantic Coast Conference regular season championship in 1975 and averaged 23 wins per season during his first four-year stint.

From 1979 until 1992, Bush served as the head trainer of the Terrapin football team, which claimed four ACC championships and played in nine bowl games during that era. In 1992 he returned to Cole Field House and the basketball team as an assistant to the athletics director.

In addition to his training duties, Bush teaches basic and advanced courses on care and prevention of athletic injuries in Maryland's College of Health and Human Performance, and is a frequent lecturer throughout the Mid-Atlantic region of the United States.

In May 2005, Bush was a member of the inaugural class inducted into the Maryland Athletic Trainers Association Hall of Fame. A founding member of MATA, Bush is credited as the author of the organization's constitution and by-laws.

A native of Fort Lauderdale, Fla., Bush, 60, graduated from Florida State University in 1969. He and his wife Gina have two children, Brandon and Jordan, and reside in University Park, Md.

AL TIFFANY

BASKETBALL EQUIPMENT MANAGER
MARYLAND '95 • THIRD YEAR AT MARYLAND

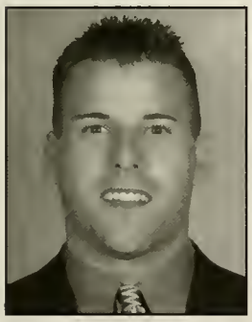
Al Tiffany is in his third season at his alma mater to serve as the equipment manager for the men's basketball team. He is responsible for ordering and issuing game uniforms and practice gear for the Terps, as well as coordinating laundry services for the team at home and on the road.

Tiffany comes to Maryland from the U.S. Naval Academy, where he served for five years in the athletics department on the equipment staff. A former student basketball manager for four years while at Maryland, Tiffany was the head basketball manager in his senior year. He earned his bachelor's degree in kinesiology from Maryland in 1995.

Tiffany will also direct the equipment needs for all teams at Comcast Center, including women's basketball, wrestling, volleyball and softball.

MATTHEW LISIEWSKI

VIDEO DIRECTOR
FLORIDA '02 • SECOND YEAR AT MARYLAND



Matthew Lisiewski enters his second season as video coordinator for the men's basketball program. Lisiewski is responsible for producing all scouting video, film exchange, and recruiting videos. In addition, he is responsible for post-season tournament tapes, fulfilling media requests for archived footage and assists with the postseason banquet highlight video. Lisiewski also assists with the Gary Williams golf outing and summer basketball camp.

Prior to joining the Terrapins for the 2006-07 season, Lisiewski spent two years as video coordinator and head manager with Southern Methodist University in Dallas, Texas. In addition to his duties with film exchange and scouting video, he served as co-director of the Mustangs' summer camps and handled all equipment needs for the men's basketball program. Lisiewski was responsible for set-up prior to practices and individual workouts. He also coordinated shootarounds for opposing teams during his two years with the Mustangs.

Lisiewski is a 2002 graduate of the University of Florida, where he earned his bachelor's degree in telecommunications. He interned with CNN in Atlanta, Ga., and worked for the Gator Radio Network during his time at Florida. After completing his degree, he spent a year working for Fox SportsNet in Los Angeles. A native of The Woodlands, Texas, Lisiewski has worked summer camps at Clemson, Florida, Georgia Tech, Houston, South Carolina, South Florida, Texas, Texas A&M and UCLA.

CLEO LONG-THOMAS

ADMINISTRATIVE ASSISTANT TO THE HEAD COACH 20TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Cleo Long-Thomas is in her 18th season as the administrative assistant to head coach Gary Williams and her 20th year overall at the University of Maryland. She coordinates the professional schedules of Coach Williams and assists the coaching staff. In addition, she is responsible for the overall administration and the day-to-day managerial duties of the basketball office.

Long-Thomas coordinates Williams' schedule for departmental meetings, out-of-town speaking engagements and appearances. She also coordinates travel arrangements for the entire coaching staff and is responsible for all of the senior day activities at the final home game of each season. In the postseason, Long-Thomas plans and coordinates the Terps' annual honors banquet including all invitations, decorations, seating and banquet room setup. The original administrative coordinator of the Gary Williams Basketball Camp, Long-Thomas still assists with day-to-day camp activities such as application and registration.

Long-Thomas is the proud parent of three children: Tyrone, 39, Jabari, 33, and Raven, 24. Tyrone and his wife Yolanda have given Long-Thomas two grandchildren, T.J., 11, and Jovan, 7.

KENNY BEAVER

ASSISTANT DIRECTOR OF OPERATIONS FIRST YEAR AT MARYLAND

Kenny Beaver enters his first season as Maryland's assistant director of operations with the men's basketball program after having served as a team manager the previous four seasons. In his new role with the basketball staff, Beaver will work closely with Troy Wainwright, assisting in the daily operations of the program. Beaver will supervise the team managers, assist with travel plans and hotel accommodations for the team and serve as a liaison with the Maryland ticket office.

'08 OPPONENTS & THE ACC

ABOUT THE ACC

THE TRADITION

John Swofford,
ACC Commissioner

Consistency. It is the mark of true excellence in any endeavor.

However, in today's intercollegiate athletics, competition has become so balanced and so competitive that it is virtually impossible to maintain a high level of consistency.

Yet the Atlantic Coast Conference has defied the odds. Now in its 55th year of competition, the ACC has long enjoyed the reputation as one of the strongest and most competitive intercollegiate conferences in the nation. And that is not mere conjecture, the numbers support it.

Since the league's inception in 1953, ACC schools have captured 105 national championships, including 56 in women's competition and 47 in men's. In addition, NCAA individual titles have gone to ACC student-athletes 139 times in men's competition and 86 times in women's action.

If success is best measured in terms of wins and losses, then the ACC is unrivaled in NCAA annals. With North Carolina's victory over Illinois in the 2005 NCAA title game, ACC teams have captured 10 NCAA basketball championships, including six over the last 17 years.

No conference has posted a better NCAA Tournament record than the ACC since the NCAA's inaugural tournament in 1939. With an impressive 65-33 mark over the past six years, the 12 current conference members have posted an NCAA Tournament-best mark of 364-203 for a sterling .642 winning percentage against the nation's toughest competition.

In the 23 years of the current 64-team field, the ACC has produced 21 Final Four teams, an average of almost one per year and five more than any other conference.

Since 1985, when the NCAA Tournament was expanded to 64 teams, ACC teams have been even more impressive compiling a 227-111 (.672) NCAA record, including 62 "Sweet 16" appearances and 21 Final Four berths - all NCAA Tournament bests. Since 1985, 62 of the 116 ACC teams receiving NCAA berths have won at least two NCAA Tournament games.

Following their title run in 2005, North Carolina's Tar Heels lead all ACC schools with four NCAA basketball championships to their credit. Duke has claimed three national titles, NC State two and Maryland one. The Tar Heels have captured NCAA titles in 1957, 1982, 1993 and 2005 while the Blue Devils won their third title in 2001, following back-to-back championships in 1991 and 1992. The Wolfpack walked away with the coveted crown in 1974 and 1983 while the Terps claimed the 2002 national title.

The ACC has 10 or more NCAA Tournament wins in four of the last seven years and 13 times overall and the league has not posted a losing record in NCAA Tournament play since 1987. The conference's 18-year non-losing streak in NCAA Tournament play is tops among all conferences.

Since 1981, the ACC has produced 36 consensus All-Americans - 16 more than any other conference. Since 1981, the ACC has accounted for 26 percent of the nation's consensus All-Americans (36-of-140).

Six of the last 11 and eight of the last 15 consensus National Players of the Year have come from the ACC. Since 1975, the ACC has had 15 consensus national players of the year - 12 more than any other conference. Eight of the ACC's 15 National Players of the Year were unanimous selections.

A year ago the ACC led all conferences with 54 players in the NBA. In addition, over the past two years 23 ACC players have made their NBA debuts, including 15 in 2006 and eight last year.

This past June the ACC led all conferences with six players selected in the first round of the annual NBA draft. The ACC has had the most, or tied for the most, first round draft picks in four of the past six years and in 10 of the last 15. Since 1986, the ACC has had 88 first round selections - 19 more than any other conference.

The ACC became the first conference in NCAA history to have 10 teams finish the season with 20 or more wins and for the second-straight year, 10 ACC teams took part in post-season play in 2006-07, including an ACC record seven NCAA Tournament teams.

For the first time in league history, the ACC surpassed the 2.4 million mark in attendance in 2006-07. The 12 league schools totaled 2,435,441 over 213 regular season games and six ACC Tournament sessions.

The stature of ACC basketball is no where more clearly defined than by the league's regional and national television exposure. A year ago, a record-setting 278 television appearances involving ACC teams, highlighted the 2006-07 schedule, including 156 appearances on national television networks.

THE CHAMPIONSHIPS

The conference will conduct championship competition in 25 sports during the 2007-08 academic year - 12 for men and 13 for women.

The first ACC championship was held in swimming on February 25, 1954. The conference did not conduct championships in cross country, wrestling or tennis during the first year.

The 12 sports for men include football, cross country, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, wrestling, baseball, tennis, golf and lacrosse. Fencing, which was started in 1971, was discontinued in 1981.

Championships for women are currently conducted in cross country, volleyball, field hockey, soccer, basketball, swimming, indoor and outdoor track, tennis, golf, lacrosse, softball and rowing.

A HISTORY

The Atlantic Coast Conference was founded on May 8, 1953, at the Sedgefield Inn near Greensboro, N.C., with seven charter members - Clemson, Duke, Maryland, North Carolina, North Carolina State, South Carolina and Wake Forest - drawing up the conference bylaws.

The withdrawal of seven schools from the Southern Conference came early on the morning of May 8, 1953, during the Southern Conference's annual spring meeting. On June 14, 1953, the seven members met in Raleigh, N.C., where a set of bylaws was adopted and the name became officially the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Suggestions from fans for the name of the new conference appeared in the region's newspapers prior to the meeting in Raleigh. Some of the names suggested were: Dixie, Mid South, Mid Atlantic, East Coast, Seaboard, Colonial, Tobacco, Blue-Gray, Piedmont, Southern Seven and the Shoreline.

Duke's Eddie Cameron recommended that the name of the conference be the Atlantic Coast Conference, and the motion was passed unanimously. The meeting concluded with each member institution assessed $200.00 to pay for conference expenses.

On December 4, 1953, conference officials met again at Sedgefield and officially admitted the University of Virginia as the league's eighth member. The first, and only, withdrawal of a school from the ACC came on June 30, 1971, when the University of South Carolina tendered its resignation.

The ACC operated with seven members until April 3, 1978, when the Georgia Institute of Technology was admitted. The Atlanta school had withdrawn from the Southeastern Conference in January of 1964.

The ACC expanded to nine members on July 1, 1991, with the addition of Florida State University.

The conference expanded to 11 members on July 1, 2004, with the addition of the University of Miami and Virginia Polytechnic Institute and State University. On October 17, 2003, Boston College accepted an invitation to become the league's 12th member starting with the 2005-06 academic year.

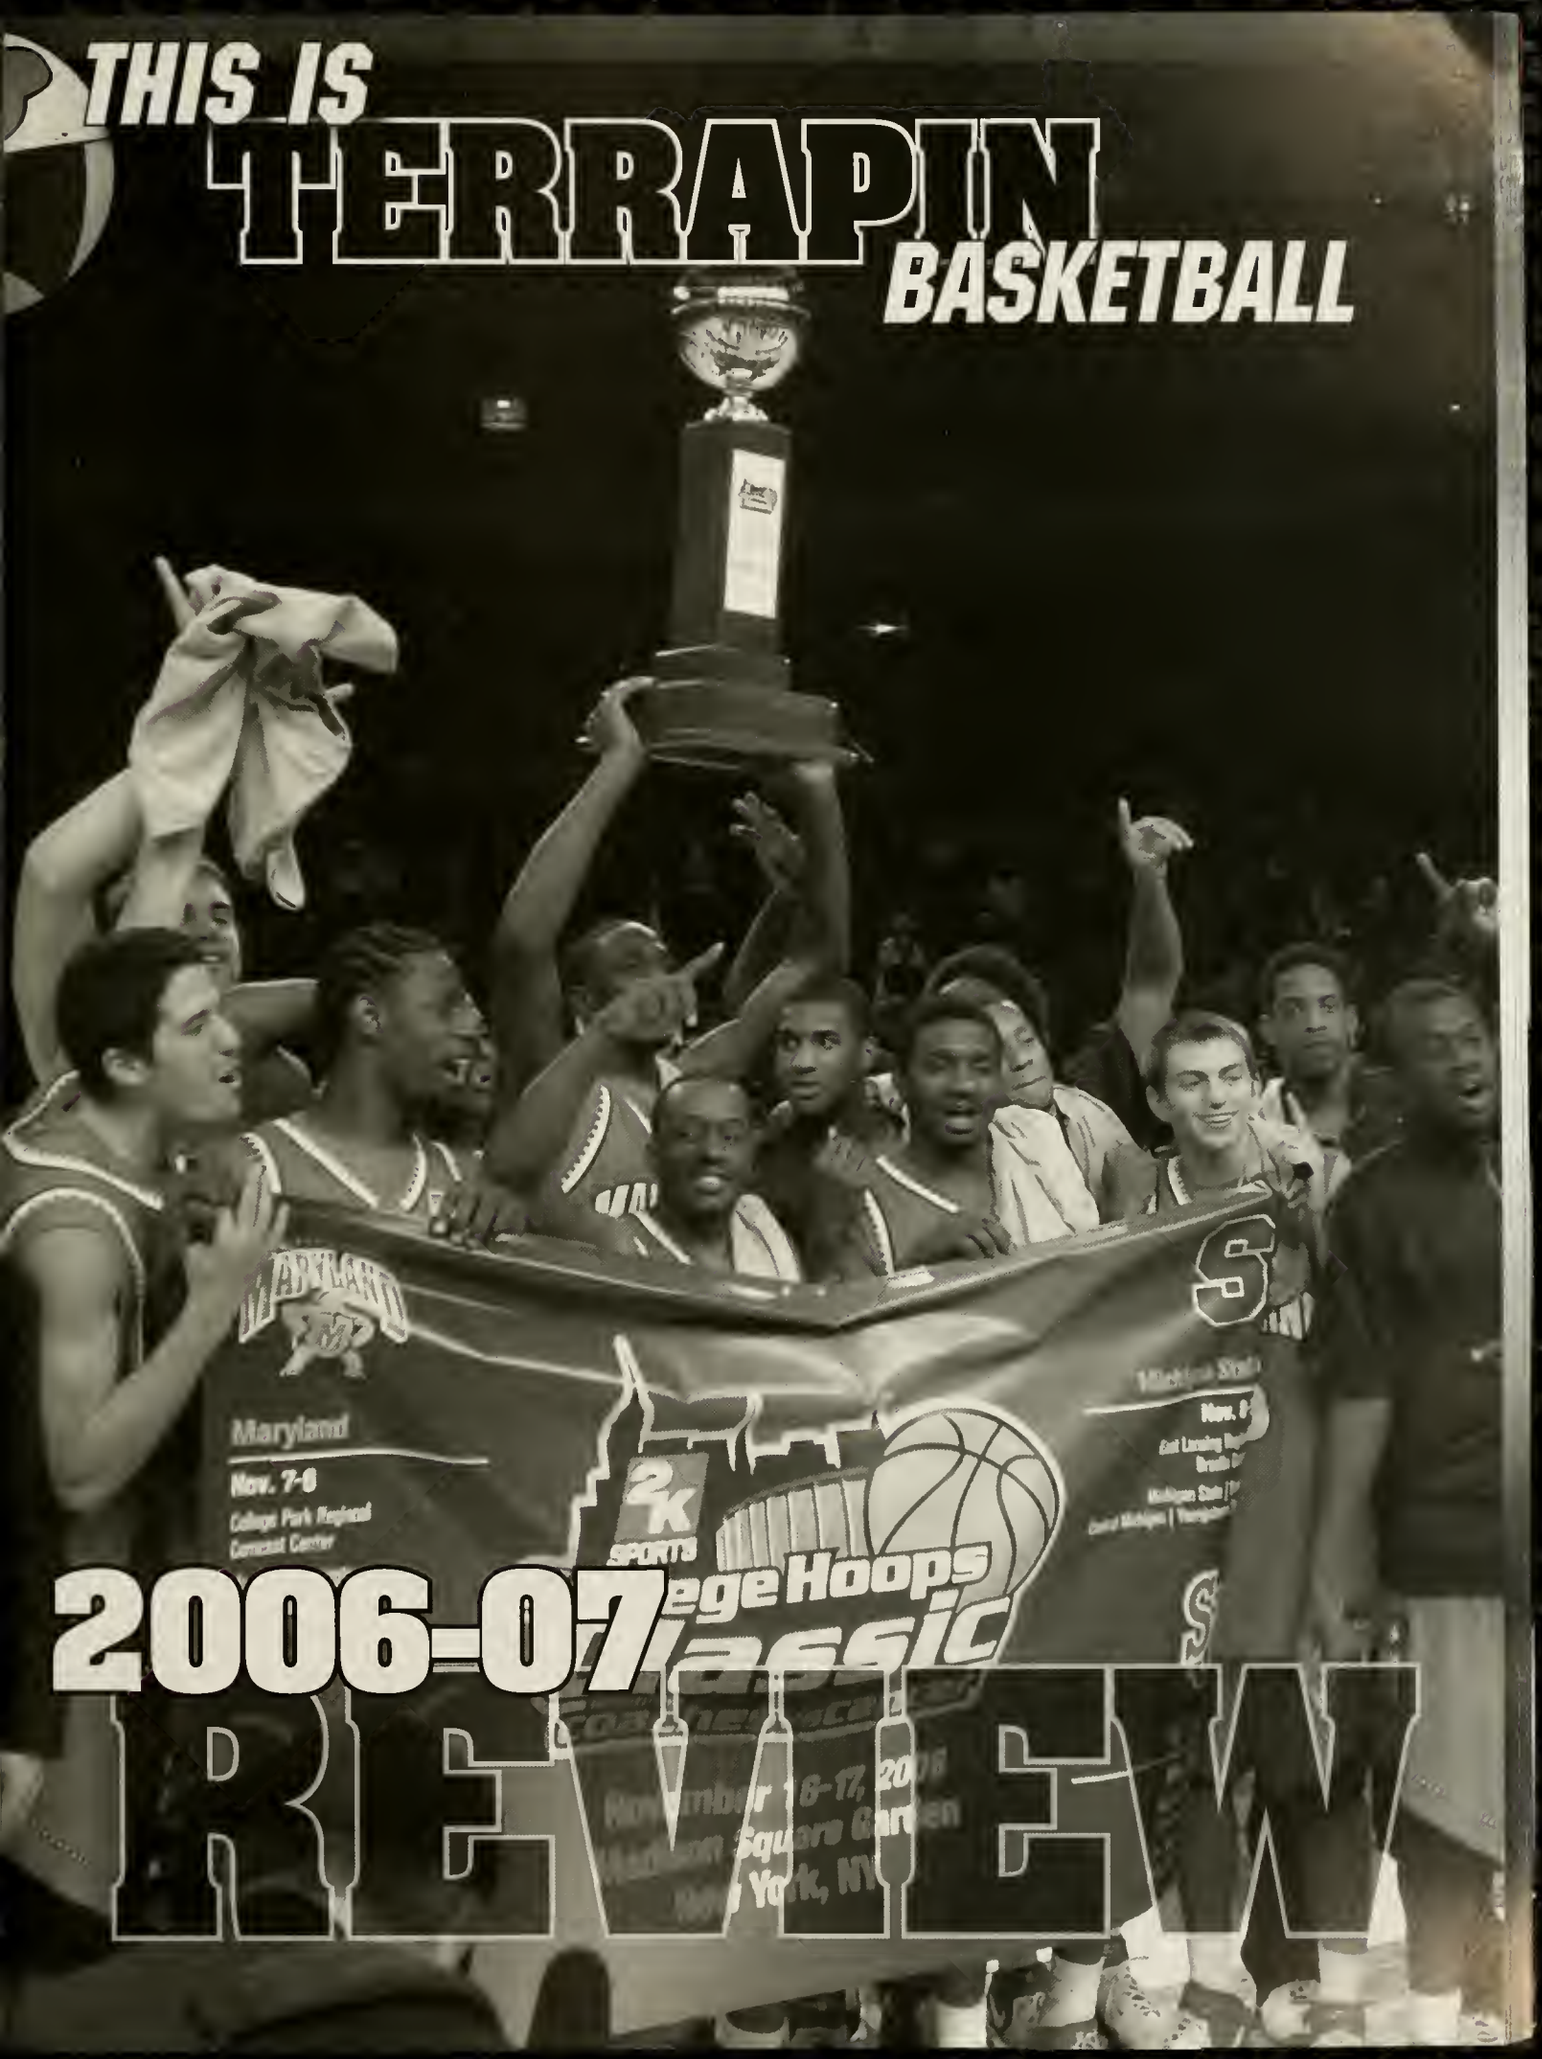
THIS IS TERRAPIN BASKETBALL



2006-07 REVIEW

2006-07 REVIEW NOTEBOOK

- The Terrapins made their 14th consecutive postseason appearance by earning the No. 4 seed in the Midwest Region of the NCAA Tournament. Maryland finished the season 25-9, marking the 11th straight season the Terps have won at least 19 games. The Terrapins finished with a 10-6 record in the Atlantic Coast Conference, which tied for the second-best record in the league. Maryland's 10 conference victories was its highest win total in league play since 2002-03.

- Maryland finished the season ranked 18th in the Associated Press Poll and 23rd in the final ESPN/USA Today Coaches Poll. The Terps were 13th in the Sagarin Ratings and finished the year 16th in RPI. Maryland's scheduled was ranked the 15th toughest in the nation.

- Maryland's 25 victories was the highest single-season win total since the Terrapins won 32 games en route to the 2002 National Championship. The Terps' 25 wins was tied for the fourth-highest win total of any Gary Williams-led team.

- The Terps finished the season 3-0 against Duke and North Carolina, marking the first time since 1938-39 that Maryland swept the Blue Devils and Tar Heels. With wins over Davidson, High Point, NC State and Wake Forest, Maryland swept the entire state of North Carolina for the first time since 1932-33.

- Scoring 79.0 points per game, the Terps ranked second in the ACC and 13th nationally in scoring offense. The Terrapins led the ACC in three-point field goal percentage (.385). Maryland averaged 17.3 assists, which ranked second in the league and 14th nationally.

- Maryland was among the nation's best defensive teams in 2006-07. The Terps led the ACC and were eighth in the nation in field goal percentage defense (.389). Maryland was tops in the ACC and fifth in the country for blocked shots (6.9 bpg). The Terrapins also led the ACC in three point field goal percentage defense (.302).

- Three Maryland seniors joined an elite club during 2006-07 as Ekene Ibekwe, Mike Jones and D.J. Strawberry each reached the 1,000-point plateau. Jones finished his career 30th on Maryland's all-time scoring list with 1,180 points. Strawberry tallied 1,126 career points to finish in 35th place, while Ibekwe recorded 1,109 points to rank 37th in scoring all-time.

- Strawberry was named Second Team All-ACC as a senior. He finished 11th in the ACC in scoring (14.9 ppg) and ranked ninth in field goal percentage (.477). Strawberry was also named to the ACC All-Defensive Team as he paced the Terrapins and ranked fourth in the ACC in steals per game (2.03 spg). He was a three-time ACC Player of the Week honoree and was named to the USBWA All-District Team.

- Ibekwe was named to the ACC All-Defensive Team and garnered honorable mention All-ACC plaudits. He led the league and was 15th in the country with 2.7 blocked shots per game and ranked fourth in rebounds (7.8 rpg). Ibekwe finished his career with 1,109 points, 781 rebounds, and 230 blocked shots, becoming just the fourth Terps to record 1,000 points, 500 rebounds and 200 blocked shots.

- Jones capped his career as one of the most prolific three-point shooters in school history. He finished with 203 career three-pointers, which ranked second all-time at Maryland. Jones attempted 495 career three pointers, which was the third-highest total in school history. He knocked down 81 three pointers this season, marking the third highest single-season total for a senior at Maryland.

HAMPTON 75
RV/RV MARYLAND 102

Nov. 7, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center • 2K Sports College Hoops Classic

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) -D.J. Strawberry scored 19 points, Ekene Ibekwe had 10 points and 10 rebounds, and Maryland beat Hampton Tuesday night to advance to the second round of the 2K Sports College Hoops Classic.

The Terrapins (1-0) on Wednesday will face Vermont, which cruised past New Orleans 82-65 in the opener of a doubleheader that drew a crowd of 7,148.

Maryland scored the game's first six points and never relinquished the lead. The Terrapins led by 13 with eight minutes gone and by 25 late in the first half, even though coach Gary Williams used 11 different players in the opening 20 minutes.

It was 51-34 early in the second half before a jumper by Mike Jones and a three-point play by Strawberry extended the lead. Hampton never cut the gap below 20 the rest of the way.

Jones scored 13 points for Maryland, which placed six players in double figures. Freshman Eric Hayes had five assists in his debut as Maryland's starting point guard.

Demario Mattox led the Pirates (0-1) with 21 points and Vincent Simpson scored 14, only two after halftime.

Hampton, the defending Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference champion, lost its first game under coach Kevin Nickelberry. The Pirates have 10 newcomers on the roster, including seven freshmen.

Game #2

VERMONT 63
RV/RV MARYLAND 81

Nov. 8, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center • 2K Sports College Hoops Classic

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) -Mike Jones and D.J. Strawberry each scored 19 points, and Maryland advanced to the semifinals of the 2K College Hoops Classic by beating Vermont Wednesday night.

The Terrapins' next game in the tournament will be Nov. 16 at Madison Square Garden. Before that, they play Florida A&M on Sunday.

With Jones leading the way, Maryland (2-0) stretched a four-point advantage into a 45-28 lead with 16:34 left. Jones scored 11 points in the final 4 minutes of the first half, then had a follow and a 3-pointer in a 9-1 run immediately after halftime.

Jones went 8-for-15 from the floor and tied his career high with five assists. Bambale Osby scored 11 points and freshman Eric Hayes had eight assists for Maryland, which opened the tournament by defeating Hampton 102-75.

Mike Trimboli scored 15 points on 5-for-17 shooting and had five of Vermont's seven assists. The Catamounts (1-1) finished with a 49-38 rebounding edge, but shot 33 percent and went 2-for-16 from beyond the arc.

Neither team led by more than four points until Maryland got five points from Jones in a 9-1 run that made it 28-19. After Vermont got within five, Jones closed the half with two straight jumpers for a 36-27 lead.

Strawberry opened the second half with two free throws and Jones made a basket before another two foul shots by Strawberry made it 42-27. Jones then followed a Vermont free throw with a jumper behind the key.

Game #3

FLORIDA A&M 54
RV/RV MARYLAND 93

Nov. 13, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Maryland scored 18 successive points in the first half and cruised to its third straight lopsided victory, 93-54 over Florida A&M on Sunday night.

Mike Jones had 16 points and a career-high nine rebounds for the unbeaten Terrapins, who have won their three games by an average of 28 points. Maryland next faces St. John's on Thursday night in the semifinals of the 2K Sports College Hoops Classic.

Freshman Greivis Vasquez had 13 points, seven assists and six rebounds for the Terrapins, and D.J. Strawberry contributed 12 points and six assists.

Rome Sanders scored 12 points for Florida A&M (0-1), now 0-17 against Atlantic Coast Conference foes. The Rattlers shot 36 percent from the field, went 10-for-18 at the line and committed 23 turnovers.

Maryland, which had never before faced Florida A&M, improved to 30-1 against the Mid-Eastern Athletic Conference.

The Terrapins never trailed. It was 7-6 before Maryland peeled off 18 unanswered points to turn the game into a rout. Five different players contributed to the run, including Vasquez, who finished it off with a layup and a 3-pointer.

After Darius Glover interrupted the Maryland surge with a free throw, Vasquez hit a jumper and freshman Eric Hayes added a 3-pointer to make it 30-7.

Florida A&M closed to 44-22 at the half and trailed 50-28 with 16 minutes left before a tip-in by Strawberry ignited a 13-6 spree that put the Terps up 63-34.

Game #4

RV/RV MARYLAND 92
ST. JOHN'S 60

Nov. 16, 2006 • New York, N.Y.
Madison Square Garden • 2K Sports College Hoops Classic

NEW YORK (AP) -Ekene Ibekwe bettered his career high by outscoring St. John's in the first half, and Maryland went on to a victory over the Red Storm on Thursday night in the semifinals of the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic.

The Terrapins (4-0) advanced to Friday night's championship game at Madison Square Garden.

Ibekwe, a 6-foot-9 senior who had 14 rebounds, scored all 22 of his points in the first half when he outscored St. John's (2-1) by one as Maryland took a 58-21 lead. His previous career best was 21 points, the last time against Boston College last season.

St. John's just couldn't handle Maryland's pressure defense and the Red Storm committed turnovers on the first three possessions of the Terrapins' 15-0 run that made it 25-6.

Maryland simply had to make layups after turnovers - St. John's had 13 in the first half - to build the big lead, and the Red Storm couldn't make a shot when they did handle the pressure, shooting 21.2 percent (7-for-33) in the half, including 2-for-11 from 3-point range.

D.J. Strawberry had 13 of his 19 points in the first half when the Terrapins shot 53.7 percent (22-for-41) and had a 29-16 advantage on the boards.

Mike Jones added 18 points for Maryland, which was never behind in the game and has trailed this season for a total of 1 minute, 23 seconds. James Gist had 12 points, 10 rebounds and five blocked shots for the Terrapins.

RV/RV MARYLAND 62
RV/RV MICHIGAN STATE 60

Nov. 16, 2006 • New York, N.Y.
Madison Square Garden • 2K Sports College Hoops Classic

NEW YORK (AP) — D.J. Strawberry scored 17 points for Maryland, which shot 55 percent from the field in beating Michigan State on Friday night to win the Coaches vs. Cancer Classic.

The Terrapins (5-0) were able to win despite scoring just two points over the final 3-1/2 minutes and survived a hectic ending.

Michigan State (4-1) used a 6-2 run to get within 62-59 with 1:21 to play. Each team turned the ball over and Maryland called a timeout with 12 seconds to play and 4 seconds left on the shot clock.

The Terrapins inbounded the ball near midcourt and freshman guard Eric Hayes was forced to let go a long 3-point attempt as the clock ran out. It appeared the ball missed the rim, which would have been a violation, but Michigan State's Idong Ibok grabbed the rebound.

He turned with the ball with his arms raised and was called for an offensive foul.

Strawberry, selected the tournament's MVP, missed two free throws with 4.5 seconds left.

Michigan State's Drew Neitzel was fouled with 0.2 seconds left before he could get a shot attempt off. He made the first free throw and missed the second on purpose but the Spartans couldn't get off a clean tip.

Neitzel hit a 3 with 5:19 left to get the Spartans within 52-51, but Mike Jones and Greivis Vasquez each hit a 3 in an 8-2 run that put the Terrapins up 60-53 with 3:42 left. James Gist, who had 14 points, capped that run with a dunk with 3:42 left, Maryland's last field goal of the game.

Maryland, which crushed St. John's 92-60 in its semifinal, forced Michigan State into 18 turnovers, three off its average for the first four games of the season.

WINTHROP 60
#24/25 MARYLAND 71

Nov. 12, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Ekene Ibekwe scored 18 points and Bambale Osby ignited a decisive run that carried Maryland past Winthrop Monday night.

Osby finished with a season-high 14 points and D.J. Strawberry had 11 points for the Terrapins (6-0), who are off to their best start since opening the 1998-99 season 10-0. Maryland dominated in the paint, outscoring Winthrop 40-18.

Craig Bradshaw scored a season-high 15 points and Torrell Martin 14 for Winthrop, which has dropped two of three games. The Eagles shot 30 percent from the field and were 5-for-28 on 3-point attempts.

Winthrop started 7-for-23 from the floor, committed 10 first-half turnovers and trailed 42-26 at halftime.

The Eagles' outside shooting kept the game close early, and Bradshaw's 3-pointer gave Winthrop its only lead, 12-11, with 13:54 left in the half.

Osby entered the game and sparked a 14-3 run that produced a 25-15 Maryland lead with 8:13 left in the half. Osby had eight points during the spurt, starting it with an inside move on Maryland's third chance at the basket and ending it with a bank shot.

The Terrapins used an 8-0 run early in the second half to go ahead 52-30. In between two baskets by Strawberry, Mike Jones scored on a transition jam and Ibekwe hit two free throws.

HIGH POINT 63
#24/25 MARYLAND 81

Nov. 24, 2006 • College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) -Ekene Ibekwe scored 16 points, James Gist and D.J. Strawberry each had 15, and Maryland pulled away in the second half to beat High Point Friday.

Freshman Greivis Vasquez added 11 points for the Terrapins, who never trailed in the game. Maryland went 6-for-12 from 3-point range and outscored the Panthers 19-2 at the line in improving to 7-0 for the first time since 1998.

Arizona Reid scored 19 points on 9-for-17 shooting and Mike Jefferson added 16 for High Point (3-3). Reid, who had a team-high five rebounds, fouled out with 7:28 left.

Maryland opened the second half with a 9-2 run to expand its 37-33 halftime edge to 46-35. Four different players scored in the surge, which provided the Terrapins with a double-digit lead for the first time since it was 25-15.

It was 52-43 when Reid picked up his fourth foul with 13:17 remaining. After Landon Quick scored for the Panthers, Maryland guard Parrish Brown made a 3-pointer, followed his own miss with a layup and tossed an alley-oop pass to Strawberry to make it 59-45.

Vasquez then made two free throws for a 16-point lead with 11 minutes to go.

EKENE IBEKWE

Maryland outscored the Panthers 7-0 at the line in the first half, but Reid scored 15 points and High Point went 5-for-12 from 3-point range to keep it close.

Game #8

#18/23 MARYLAND 72
RV/RV ILLINOIS 66

Dec. 3, 2006 • Champaign, Ill.
Assembly Hall • ACC/Big 10 Challenge

CHAMPAIGN, Ill. (AP) - Maryland freshman Greivis Vasquez wasn't bothered by Illinois' loud homecourt that has been intimidating to visiting non-conference schools for eight years.

Terps teammate Mike Jones even likened the atmosphere to the raucous one at Duke's Cameron Indoor Stadium.

Tuning out the orange-clad partisans, Vasquez and Jones led Maryland to a 72-66 win Tuesday night, ending Illinois' 51-game non-conference winning streak at Assembly Hall dating back to 1988.

Vasquez scored 15 of his 17 points in the second half as the Terps recovered after losing a large lead. Vasquez's steal and layup with 1:22 left to play gave the Terps the 65-60 lead.

With Jones scoring 19 and Vasquez playing like an experienced veteran, Maryland was able to overcome the absence of shot blocker and rebounder Ekene Ibekwe, who sat out with an ankle injury. The Terps' 8-0 start is their best since the 1988-89 team won its first 10.

Maryland (8-0) built a 14-point lead less than 8 minutes into the game and was up 20-6 when James Gist dunked with 12:55 left in the first half. Jones and Gist led Maryland in the first half. Jones had 13 points including 3-of-3 3-point shooting, and Gist added 9 points and 5 rebounds.

Maryland increased the lead to 29-14 when Jones hit another 3-pointer with just more than 7 minutes to go in the half. The Illini (7-1), behind Warren Carter, went on a 12-3 run in the last 6:48 of the first half to make it 33-28 at the break.

Illinois' Trent Meacham made two free throws cut it to three with 1:59 to go before Vazquez made his key steal. Osby, who filled in nicely for Ibekwe, made a pair of free throws to give the Terps a 67-60 advantage with 43 seconds to play.

Dec. 3, 2006 • Washington, D.C.
Verizon Center • BB&T Classic

WASHINGTON (AP) - Kyle McAlarney scored a career-high 18 points and keyed a second-half run to help Notre Dame beat Maryland Sunday night, handing the Terrapins their first loss of the season.

The Irish (6-1) were shooting just 31 percent before they made ten straight shots, including five 3-pointers, during a 25-7 run that turned a 44-37 deficit into a 62-51 lead in a span of 5 minutes.

McAlarney scored 10 during the run, including eight straight that gave the Irish a 57-49 lead.

Maryland (8-1) got no closer than six points the rest of the game.

McAlarney finished 6-of-11 from the field, including 4-of-6 from 3-point range. Rob Kurz also scored 16 for the Irish and Colin Falls scored 14 despite hitting only one of eight 3-pointers.

D.J. Strawberry led the Terrapins with 17 points. Freshman Greivis Vasquez scored 13 on 4-of-15 shooting, and Ekene Ibekwe also scored 13.

The Irish shot just 33 percent in the first half and Maryland led 32-29 at halftime. But the Irish improved to 56 percent shooting in the second half.

Maryland shot 42 percent, including 6-of-18 on 3-point shots.

#22/23 MARYLAND 79

Dec. 6, 2006 • College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Mike Jones scored 18 points and No. 23 Maryland rebounded from its first loss of the season with a victory over Fordham.

D.J. Strawberry and Greivis Vasquez each had 16 points for the Terrapins (9-1), who improved to 8-1 all-time against the Rams (4-3). Ekene Ibekwe, who spent much of the game in foul trouble, had a career-best seven of Maryland's season-high 13 blocked shots.

Marcus Stout scored 20 points and Bryant Dunston had 17 for Fordham, which had a three-game winning streak snapped. Sebastian Greene added 11 points and eight rebounds for the Rams.

The Terrapins, who shot 56 percent from the field for the game, pulled away by opening the second half with a 12-2 run. Jones started and ended the run, burying 3-pointers from the deep in the left corner, and Maryland hit eight of its first 12 shots of the half.

By contrast, the Rams made only seven field goals in the second half and finished 18-for-57 from the floor overall.

Maryland survived a slow start and 13 points by Dunston for a 39-33 halftime lead. The Rams finished 11-for-32 from the field in the opening 20 minutes.

Maryland went on a 20-7 run that made it 32-22. Strawberry and Jones each had five points in the run, while Fordham was limited to one field goal in a 4-minute span.

#22/23 MARYLAND 62
BOSTON COLLEGE 73

Dec. 10, 2006 • Chestnut Hill, Mass.
Conte Forum

BOSTON (AP) — Jared Dudley had 20 points and 11 rebounds, and Sean Williams added 10 points, 11 rebounds and seven blocked shots to lead Boston College to a victory over No. 23 Maryland on Sunday night in the Atlantic Coast Conference opener for both teams.

Tyrese Rice scored 17 points — 12 in the first half when the Eagles (6-2, 1-0) opened a 19-10 lead and never trailed. Maryland (9-2, 0-1) tied it twice in the first half but never got closer than three points in the second.

James Gist had 17 points and 10 rebounds for the Terrapins, who were off to their best start since going 10-0 to begin the 1998-99 season, a year they went to the NCAA regional semifinals.

Bambale Osby had 10 points and nine rebounds for the Terps. D.J. Strawberry, Maryland's leading scorer at 15.2 points per game, picked up two fouls in the first 44 seconds and scored just two points in eight minutes in the first half. He finished with five points.

BC led 58-50 before Osby scored on a putback, but missed the foul shot that would have given him a three-point play. Mike Jones made a 3-pointer to cut the deficit to 58-55 with 6:25 to play.

It was 63-59 when BC scored the next six points, starting with a blocked shot by Williams and a fast-break jam by Sean Marshall. After Dudley missed three free throws, Williams hit a turnaround from the left side and Dudley hit a short jumper in the lane to make it 69-59 with 1:22 left.

Dudley moved into the top 10 on BC's all-time list with 1,654 points, passing Michael Adams. Adams was part of the Eagles team that went to the regional finals in 1982; that team was coached by Gary Williams, who is the head coach at Maryland with Adams as an assistant.

Game #12

MISSOURI-KANSAS CITY 50
RV/RV MARYLAND 101

Dec. 13, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — Mike Jones set a school record with nine 3-pointers and scored a career-high 27 points, leading Maryland past Missouri-Kansas City Wednesday night.

Jones had six 3-pointers in the first half to help the Terrapins (10-2) take a 56-22 lead. The senior guard finished 9-for-13 from beyond the arc, surpassing the school mark of seven 3-pointers in a game, set by Walt Williams in 1992 and matched by Jones last season.

Jones tied the record with his first shot of the second half and set it with 18:56 left. He added another trey with 16:19 to go — giving him nine straight from long range — before missing.

His previous career high in points was 25. D.J. Strawberry scored 20 for the Terrapins and James Gist added 14.

Maryland made 17 3-pointers, breaking the school mark of 13 set in 2001 and tied in 2002. The Terrapins attempted a school-record 37 shots from beyond the arc.

Quinton Day led UMKC (3-8) with 17 points.

Bambale Osby gave the Terps a lead they never relinquished by opening the scoring with a dunk. He finished with five points; Vasquez contributed eight assists and six rebounds.

UMKC missed its initial four shots while Maryland took a 6-0 lead. Minutes later, Jones hit his first 3-pointer of the night to spark an 8-0 spurt that made it 14-4.

It was 24-13 before Jones connected twice from long range within a 22-second span to begin a 15-0 run that put Maryland up 39-13.

AMERICAN 54
RV/RV MARYLAND 66

Dec. 23, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - D.J. Strawberry scored 19 points and fueled a second-half run that enabled Maryland to pull away from American University in a 66-54 victory Saturday.

James Gist had 13 points and 12 rebounds for the Terrapins (11-2), and Ekene Ibekwe added 11 points and 13 rebounds.

Playing for the first time in 10 days, Maryland overcame a slow start behind Strawberry, who went 3-for-6 from 3-point range and finished with a team-high six assists.

Andre Ingram scored 24 points for the Eagles (7-4), who stayed close throughout the opening 16 minutes.

Maryland trailed 27-26 before Strawberry made two free throws and reserve center Will Bowers hit a jumper to spark an 11-0 run that put the Terrapins ahead for good. Strawberry scored five points in the surge and Bowers had two baskets.

After American closed to 37-31 at halftime, Maryland took command by opening the second half with a 13-2 spree. Gist got things started with a dunk and Mike Jones followed with a 3-pointer.

Paulius Joneliunas answered with a layup for the Eagles, but successive 3-pointers by Strawberry and two foul shots by Ibekwe made it 50-33 with 15:33 left.

The margin reached 18 points when Strawberry sank two free throws with 13:03 to go.

MOUNT ST. MARY'S 50
RV/RV MARYLAND 91

Dec. 28, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) -Mike Jones sank all five of his 3-point shots in the opening four minutes and finished with a career-high 29 points, leading Maryland past Mount St. Mary's Thursday night.

Jones nearly outscored the Mountaineers in the first half, totalling 22 points on 7-for-12 shooting to stake the Terrapins (12-2) to a 55-24 lead.

D.J. Strawberry matched his career high with 20 points and freshman Greivis Vasquez had 9 points, eight rebounds and eight assists for Maryland, which improved to 6-0 against its in-state foe.

Chris Vann and Kelly Beidler had 12 points apiece for Mount St. Mary's (2-10).

Jones had six points in only 66 seconds and 15 with 16:12 left in the first half. He finished 10-for-21 overall and made 7 of 13 attempts from 3-point range.

With Jones leading the way, Maryland went up 15-1 before the Mountaineers made their first field goal - with nearly eight minutes elapsed. The Mount missed 19 of its first 22 shots from the floor and trailed 36-9 with 7:39 left in the first half.

The Terrapins shot 60 percent before halftime and played hard on the other end as well, limiting the Mountaineers to 27 percent shooting (9-for-33).

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - D.J. Strawberry scored a career-high 23 points to lead Maryland to a win against Siena on Sunday.

Ekene Ibekwe added 18 points and nine rebounds, and James Gist scored 17 points and a career-high 13 rebounds for the Terrapins (13-2).

Maryland got a stern test from the Saints (6-5), who led several times in the first half. The score was tied at halftime.

The Terrapins led by just one point before going on a 20-7 run midway through the second half. Maryland led 54-53 with 14:30 to play, but extended the lead to 74-60 with 7:45 to go with the decisive run.

During the run, Strawberry scored nine points and Gist added six points.

Siena shot just 34 percent from the field, and Maryland made 54 percent of its shots. Siena scored a school-record 11 three-pointers.

Kenny Hasbrouck led Siena with 16 points, and David Ryan added 15 points on five 3-pointers as the Saints had four players in double-figures.

Michael Haddix added 12 points and 11 rebounds, and Edwin Ubiles 11 points and nine rebounds for the Saints.

Maryland outscored Siena 25-8 at the foul line, making 20 in the second half.

Game #16

IONA 57
RV/RV MARYLAND 88
Jan. 4, 2007 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) — D.J. Strawberry scored 20 points, James Gist and Ekene Ibekwe had 11 apiece, and Maryland rolled to its fifth straight victory, a triumph over winless Iona on Thursday night.

Mike Jones and Greivis Vasquez each scored 10 points for the Terrapins (14-2), who begin a run of 15 straight ACC games next week.

Strawberry went 7-for-11 from the floor, led the Terrapins with seven assists and added six rebounds. The senior guard has led Maryland in scoring in seven games this season.

Justin Marshall and Alejo Rodriguez scored 11 points apiece for Iona (0-12). Iona finished with 24 turnovers and made half as many field goals (18) as the Terrapins.

Maryland led 51-34 with 16 minutes left. Jones made one of two foul shots to start a 10-1 run that included successive dunks by Strawberry and Will Bowers.

The Terrapins shot 50 percent and forced 13 turnovers in taking a 43-28 halftime lead.

The score was tied at 4 before Maryland scored 10 straight points during a run of five turnovers by Iona. Ibekwe started the surge with a jumper and two free throws, and Strawberry and Jones followed with 3-pointers.

Then, after Anthony Bruin made two foul shots for the Gaels, Bambale Osby made two straight baskets to spark a 10-2 spree that put the Terrapins up 24-8. At that point, Iona was 3-for-6 from the floor with nine turnovers.

Game #17

MIAMI 63
#25/RV MARYLAND 58
Jan. 21, 2006 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Mike Jones finished with 17 points to lead Maryland, while Ekene Ibekwe and James Gist each added 10, but Miami limited Maryland to 22 percent shooting and controlled the boards in a 63-58 victory Wednesday night.

Miami (9-8, 2-1 Atlantic Coast Conference) made only 19 of 61 shots (31 percent) from the floor, including 3-for-15 from 3-point range, and committed 15 turnovers. But the Hurricanes held Maryland to one field goal over the final 9 minutes, 36 seconds to end the Terrapins' five-game winning streak.

Anthony Harris scored 15 points and Jack McClinton had 12 for Miami, which outrebounded Maryland 55-41 and went 14-for-16 at the foul line over the final 1:19.

D.J. Strawberry, the Terrapins' leading scorer, went 1-for-8 from the field and finished with seven points - all in the final three minutes. The Terrapins finished 13-for-58 from the field (6-for-23 from beyond the arc) but kept it close by going 26-for-35 at the line.

Maryland trailed only 30-25 early in the second half before giving the sellout crowd reason to cheer.

Two free throws by Ekene Ibekwe and a 15-foot jumper by Will Bowers got the Terrapins within one, and a 3-pointer by James Gist tied it. Then, after a basket by Miami, freshman Eric Hayes hit a 3-pointer to Maryland its first lead since 19-17.

Two foul shots by McClinton and layups by Brian Asbury and Harris put the Hurricanes up 40-35 with 9:55 left. Miami went ahead 43-37 before the Terrapins used six successive free throws to draw even with 5 minutes to go.

The Hurricanes answered with two foul shots by Asbury and a follow-shot by Collins, then held off Maryland with a fine performance at the line.

Game #18

#14/17 CLEMSON 87
#25/RV MARYLAND 92
Jan. 13, 2007 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Ekene Ibekwe had 20 points and 10 rebounds, posting his fourth double-double of the season, and the Maryland Terrapins defeated No. 17 Clemson, 92-87.

D.J. Strawberry added 14 points, James Gist had 12, and Mike Jones and Greivis Vasquez each scored 10 for the Terrapins (15-3, 1-2 Atlantic Coast Conference). Maryland shot 63 percent for the game and made 25 of 31 free throws.

James Mays led the previously unbeaten Tigers (17-1, 3-1) with 22 points and 15 rebounds. K.C. Rivers had 18 points and Vernon Hamilton finished with 15 points. Vernon Hamilton also had 15 points for the Tigers to pass the 1,000-point milestone for his career.

Clemson had held opponents to an average of 61 points a game. The last time the Tigers started 17-0 was the 1986-87 season.

MIKE JONES

Maryland outrebounded the Tigers 35-29 and held them without a single fast-break basket.

The Terrapins went up 27-17 with 8:33 remaining in the first half. But Clemson responded with an 11-0 run, and Rivers' 3-pointer with 6:42 left gave Clemson the lead again.

After another Rivers' basket gave Clemson a 30-29 lead, Maryland stormed back with an 8-0 run to go up 37-30. After that, the Terrapins stretched the lead to 46-37. Rivers and Booker each scored once to make it 48-42 at halftime.

Clemson never got closer than five in the second half with Maryland leading by as much as 11 with 2:53 remaining.

#22/RV MARYLAND 91
VIRGINIA 103

Jan. 16, 2007 • Charlottesville, Va.
John Paul Jones Arena

CHARLOTTESVILLE, Va. (AP) - Mamadi Diane scored a career-high 26 points and Sean Singletary added 25 and seven assists Tuesday night to lead Virginia past Maryland.

Virginia (10-6, 2-2 Atlantic Coast Conference) blew a 20-point first half lead, allowing Maryland to close to within three early in the second half.

But the Cavs scored 12 straight to make it 70-55 with 9:50 remaining, and from there the Terrapins (15-4, 1-3) couldn't get closer than eight.

Mike Jones led Maryland with 18 points. Greivis Vazquez made five 3-pointers and scored 17. Ekene Ibekwe also had 17 before fouling out in the closing minute.

Two free throws by Ibekwe pulled the Terps to within 58-55 with 14:36 to play. After Virginia turned the ball over on a 10-second violation, Maryland also turned it over and Jamil Tucker hit his third 3-pointer in as many tries for the Cavaliers.

A dunk by Jason Cain gave Virginia a 50-30 lead with 2:45 left in the first half, but then the Cavaliers turned the ball over on four straight possessions. The Terps scored the last 13 points of the period, with Vasquez making all of his eight first-half points in 30 seconds.

Maryland came in having won six of its last seven and had beaten Clemson in its last game Saturday, ending the Tigers' run as the last unbeaten Division I school.

Jan. 21 2007 • Blaksburg, Va.

BLACKSBURG, Va. (AP) - Maryland battled back from a late eight-point deficit in regulation Sunday against No. 23 Virginia Tech, but fell in overtime.

The Hokies (14-5, 4-1), who let a 58-50 lead disappear in the final 6 minutes when they managed just one more point, went ahead to stay on two free throws by Gordon with 3:08 left, then padded their lead on a putback with 2:11 to play.

Coleman Collins added 11 points and 14 rebounds for the Hokies.

D.J. Strawberry led Maryland with 16 points, and Mike Jones and Greivis Vasquez had 12 each.

The Hokies, who joined the Top 25 for the first time in more than a decade after an eight-day stretch that included victories at Duke and at home against North Carolina, led 58-50 after Collins scored inside with 6:24 left.

However, a three-point play by Vasquez, a putback by Ekene Ibekwe, and then a drive and two free throws by Strawberry gave the Terrapins a 59-58 advantage with 1:45 left.

Collins tied it when he made the second of two free throws with 59 seconds left, then blocked a shot by Vasquez with 42 seconds remaining.

In the extra period, Jones scored right away for the Terps, but Dowdell scored on a drive, Gordon hit a pair of free throws, and Dowdell then made a steal and scored on a rebound of Gordon's miss, giving the Hokies a 65-61 advantage with 2:11 remaining.

RV/RV GEORGIA TECH 65
RV/RV/MARYLAND 80

Jan. 24, 2007 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - James Gist scored 16 of his career-high 26 points in the pivotal first half, and Maryland handed Georgia Tech its 16th straight road loss Wednesday night.

Gist made all six of his field-goal tries and the Terrapins went 16-for-31 in building a 43-26 halftime lead. Maryland (16-5, 2-4 ACC) never let the margin slip below 11 points in the second half.

Gist, a junior forward, surpassed his previous career high of 18 points with a layup that made it 62-48 with 7:58 left. He went 10-for-11 from the floor.

D.J. Strawberry scored 13 and Eric Hayes had 12 points and seven assists for the Terrapins.

Thaddeus Young led Georgia Tech (13-6, 2-4) with 21 points. The Yellow Jackets haven't won a road game since Feb. 26, 2005, and they never led in this one.

Georgia Tech has dropped five straight to Maryland, including an 87-84 decision in Atlanta last season.

The Yellow Jackets came in averaging 82.7 points per game, and their shooting percentage of 50.7 was tops in the ACC. Against Maryland, they went 29-for-61 (47.5 percent), including 1-for-17 from 3-point range, and were 6-for-16 at the foul line.

In the first half, the Terrapins used runs of 17-5 and 13-2 to leave Georgia Tech facing its largest halftime deficit of the season.

Gist scored seven points and Strawberry had six in a 13-2 spurt that made it 39-19. A dunk by Gist capped the run and a torrid stretch in which the Terrapins made 10 of 12 shots from the floor.

FLORIDA STATE 96

Jan. 30, 2007 • Tallahassee, Fla.
Tucker Center

TALLAHASSEE, Fla. (AP) - James Gist scored 23 points on hot 10-of-14 shooting, while Greivis Vasquez added 13 and Ekene Ibekwe chipped in with 10 as Florida State defeated Maryland on Tuesday night.

For Florida State, Al Thornton scored 27 points and Jason Rich added a career-high 24 points .

Maryland fell to 16-6 overall and 2-5 in the Atlantic Coast Conference.

Florida State (16-6, 4-4 ACC) made 30 of its first 43 shots to maintain a double-digit lead for most of the second half as it evened its ACC record halfway through the conference schedule after an 0-3 start.

Thornton, the ACC's top scorer in league games, made 12 of 17 shots and grabbed a game-high eight rebounds while Rich was 10 of 12 from the field for Florida State, which shot 61.7 percent for the game and enjoyed a 33-19 rebound advantage.

Florida State led 49-46 in a sizzling first half.

The Seminoles, who led by as many as six on four occasions in the half, hit 18 of 28 for 64.3 percent with Maryland 19 of 30 for 63.3 percent. The Terrapins finished the game shooting 57.4 percent, but shot poorly at the free throw line where they made only 11 of 21.

WAKE FOREST 72

Feb. 3, 2007 • Winston-Salem, N.C.
Joel Coliseum

WINSTON-SALEM, N.C. (AP) - Ekene Ibekwe scored 16 points, including his 1,000th career point, and Maryland held off a second-half rally Saturday night to beat Wake Forest.

James Gist added 17 points, D.J. Strawberry 14 and Eric Hayes 12 for the Terrapins (17-6, 3-5 Atlantic Coast Conference), who led by as many as 23 points midway through the second half.

Michael Drum and Kyle Visser scored 16 points each and L.D. Williams had 12 for the Demon Deacons (10-12, 2-8), who lost for the seventh time in eight league games.

Ahead 32-24 at the break, Maryland went on a 21-8 run in the opening eight minutes of the second half, with Will Bowers' jumper putting the Terrapins ahead 55-32 with 12:53 remaining.

Wake Forest whittled away at Maryland's lead, pulling within 74-69 on Williams' 3-pointer with 30.6 seconds left. But the Terrapins hit 5 of 6 from the free throw line in the final 28 seconds to preserve their second ACC win in three games.

The win also made Maryland head coach Gary Williams the third coach in league history to reach 150 regular-season ACC victories, joining former North Carolina coach Dean Smith and Duke's Krzyzewski.

Ibekwe became the 44th Terrapins player and the second this season - the other was Mike Jones, who passed the mark on Jan. 30 against Florida State - to score 1,000 career points.

RV/RV VIRGINIA 69
RV/RV MARYLAND 65

Feb. 6, 2007 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - Mike Jones finished with 18 points, leading four Maryland players in double figures but Virginia gained sole possession of first place in the Atlantic Coast Conference with its seventh straight victory on Tuesday night.

Adrian Joseph had 13 points for the surprising Cavaliers (16-6, 8-2), who held on after losing most of a 15-point lead in the second half. Reynolds made two free throws for a

Jones led the Terrapins (17-7, 3-6) with 18 points and Greivis Vasquez had 13, all in the first half. Maryland had won nine of its last 12 games against Virginia and was 13-1 at home.

Up by 10 at halftime, the Cavaliers used a 9-4 spurt early in the second half to make it 56-41 with 13:22 to go. Sean Singletary had two baskets in the surge and Joseph added a 3-pointer.

It was 59-44 before Maryland scored nine straight points. Reynolds stemmed the run with a layup, but Jones made two free throws and added a dunk off a steal to make it 61-57 with 5:42 left.

Minutes later, D.J. Strawberry scored off an alley-oop pass from Eric Hayes to bring the Terrapins to 63-60. Joseph then missed a 3-pointer, but Soroye got the rebound and was fouled trying to shoot. His two free throws made it 65-60.

A 3-pointer by Hayes made it a 2-point game with 54 seconds remaining, and Virginia's Mamadi Diane made one of two free throws with 23.2 seconds left to put Virginia up by three.

Reynolds and Vasquez both scored 13 points in the first half, and Virginia led 41-31 at the break by holding Maryland to 36 percent shooting.

Game #25

#16/16 DUKE 60
RV/RV MARYLAND 72

Feb. 11, 2007 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - James Gist had 16 points and 10 rebounds, freshman Greivis Vasquez scored a season-high 18, and Maryland forced 17 turnovers in handing No. 16 Duke a 72-60 loss, its most lopsided defeat of the season.

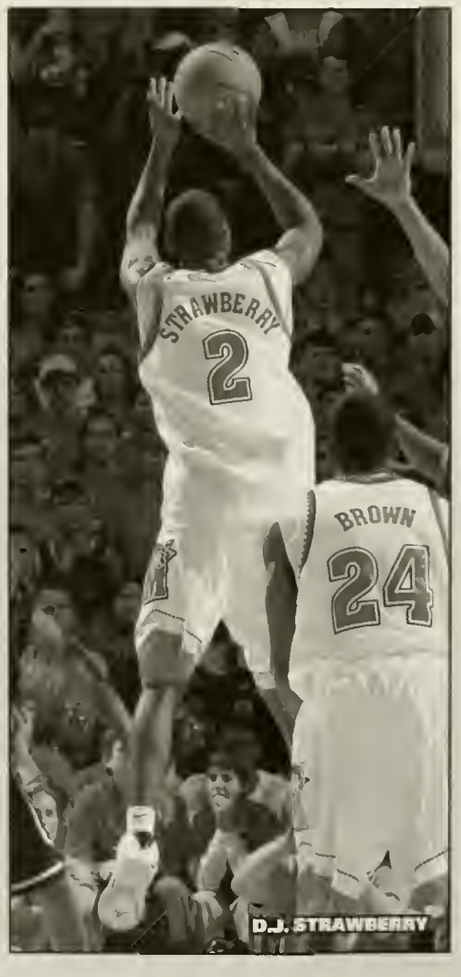
The Terrapins (18-7, 4-6 ACC) trailed early before taking control with a 29-4 run in the first half, then used a late surge to hold off a comeback bid by the Blue Devils (18-7, 5-6).

Josh McRoberts scored 20 points and Greg Paulus had 12 for Duke. The Blue Devils' previous three losses were by a combined nine points, but this turned out to be Duke's most lopsided ACC defeat since a 14-point loss to Wake Forest in February 2003.

The Blue Devils cut a 20-point deficit to 58-52 before Ekene Ibekwe and Mike Jones had two baskets apiece in a 10-2 spree that made it 68-54 with 3:33 left.

Down 40-28 at halftime, the Blue Devils closed to 50-43 on a three-point play by McRoberts. Vasquez followed with a tough layup, then added a follow-shot for an 11-point cushion.

But the Blue Devils weren't done. A driving layup by Martynas Pocius and a dunk by McRoberts made it 56-50 with 9:51 to go, and Williams quickly called a timeout to stop the momentum shift.



D.J. STRAWBERRY

Maryland went 16-for-29 from the floor and forced 12 turnovers in the first half. Paulus opened the game with a 15-foot jumper and 3-pointer, but Duke missed seven of its next eight shots and committed seven turnovers while Maryland took control.

After Ibekwe recharged the crowd by scoring five straight points, Vasquez made a three-point play and a 3-pointer to ignite a 14-0 run that made it 19-7. Paulus snapped the Blue Devils' drought with a jumper, but the Terrapins responded with 10 straight points, including a 3-pointer and a three-point play by Gist, to go up by 20 with 8:54 left in the half.

Game #26

MARYLAND 85
NC STATE 70

Feb. 14, 2007 • Raleigh, N.C.
RBC Center

RALEIGH, N.C. (AP) — D.J. Strawberry scored 18 points — including six during a decisive second-half run — to help Maryland beat North Carolina State on Tuesday night.

Greivis Vasquez added 15 points for the Terrapins (19-7, 5-6 ACC), who have won three of their last four games.

Brandon Costner scored 19 points for the Wolfpack (13-11, 3-8), who lost its third straight game since a surprising upset of UNC.

Against the Wolfpack, the Terps led throughout the first half then gradually pulled away with a 25-11 run after NC State had fought back to tie it. The Terrapins led by as many as 16 points late to snap the Wolfpack's three-game winning streak in the series.

Gist put the Terps ahead to stay at 46-44 with a layup off a feed from Eric Hayes with 16:40 left, then followed with an inside score from Ekene Ibekwe on the next possession.

Engin Atsur answered with a 3-pointer, but the Wolfpack came up empty on a key possession that turned momentum completely in Maryland's favor. With the Terrapins leading 51-47, Ben McCauley's dunk attempt off an offensive rebound rimmed out, and Gist knocked down a 3 at the other end to give the Terrapins a seven-point lead.

The margin grew steadily the rest of the way, with Will Bowers closing the spurt with a stickback that made it 69-55 with 7:20 left.

The Terrapins scored the game's first seven points and led by as many as eight points early on.

The Wolfpack hung around, closing the gap to 39-37 at halftime on a 3-pointer from Dennis Horner just before the horn before tying it at 44 on a 3 from Gavin Grant with 17:02 left.

Game #27

MARYLAND 82
RV/RV CLEMSON 66

Feb. 18, 2007 • Clemson, S.C.
Littlejohn Coliseum

CLEMSON, S.C. (AP) - D.J. Strawberry had 22 points and Maryland reached 20 victories with a win over Clemson on Sunday.

The Terps (20-7, 6-6 ACC) saw their 12-point second half lead slip to 59-58 on Cliff Hammonds' driving basket with 8:19 to go. But Strawberry scored eight of Maryland's next 15 points to regain control, 74-63.

For Clemson (19-7, 5-7), the loss continued a slide that began when these two teams met for the first time this season on Jan. 13. Then the Tigers came as the nation's last Division I unbeaten at 17-0 before Maryland ended that distinction with its 92-87 victory.

Clemson rallied from 55-43 down with a 15-4 run.

But Strawberry had a nifty drive to make it 64-58. After James Gist scored on a putback, Strawberry made two foul shots. By the time Strawberry got free for an easy layup, Maryland was back in front 70-63.

Freshman point guard Greivis Vasquez had 15 points and 11 assists for his first career double-double. Gist also had 15 points, 12 coming in the first half.

Hammonds hit four of Clemson's six 3-pointers and led the Tigers with 16 points and a career-high 10 assists.

Maryland didn't miss much the first half, hitting 19 of 30 (63.3 percent) from the field. Most of those were near the goal, the Terps running straight at Clemson's defense.

Strawberry and Vasquez led the charge, driving to the goal for easy layups. When the Tigers cut off the easy layup, Gist was there in the post to finish. Gist was 5-of-6 shooting the first 20 minutes and finished with 12 points.

Game #28

FLORIDA STATE 55
RV/RV MARYLAND 73

Feb. 21, 2007 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - D.J. Strawberry opened the second half with three straight baskets, sparking a 16-2 run that carried resurgent Maryland to its fourth straight victory, a win over Florida State on Wednesday night.

Bambale Osby scored 15 points, Mike Jones had 14 and James Gist 13 for the Terrapins. Strawberry, who failed to score in the first half, finished with 10.

The victory enabled Maryland (21-7, 7-6 Atlantic Coast Conference) to climb over .500 in league play for the first time this season.

Al Thornton had 23 points and 15 rebounds for Florida State (17-11, 5-9).

After picking up two fouls and playing only eight minutes in the first half, Strawberry returned from the break to make two layups and a dunk to put Maryland up 37-31. Osby and Jones added layups and Ekene Ibekwe capped the 12-point run with a dunk off a pass from freshman Greivis Vasquez.

Florida State, meanwhile, opened the half by missing its first 11 field goal tries. After Isaiah Swann sank two foul shots to bring the Seminoles to 43-33, Ibekwe made a layup and Strawberry added a short jumper for a 14-point cushion. FSU cut the gap to nine points with 9:23 left, but could get no closer.

The Terrapins missed 12 straight field-goal tries and were held scoreless for more than eight minutes while Florida State turned a 29-21 deficit into a 31-29 lead. Thornton scored eight points in the 10-0 run.

Feb. 25, 2007 • College Park, Md.

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - D.J. Strawberry scored a career-high 27 points, Mike Jones had 18, and Maryland rallied to beat the Tar Heels Sunday and extend its winning streak to five games.

North Carolina (24-5, 10-4 ACC) had a chance to force overtime with 3.5 seconds left, but Brandan Wright missed the first of two free throws and the Tar Heels failed to control the rebound of his second misfire.

As the final buzzer sounded, fans rushed the court to celebrate the Terrapins' first win over North Carolina in six tries since Jan. 14, 2004.

2002 NCAA CHAMPIONS
2004 ACC CHAMPIONS

James Gist had 12 points for Maryland (22-7, 8-6).

Maryland trailed 77-65 with 7:14 left before Jones scored nine points in a 16-3 run to give the Terrapins their first lead. After Terry scored for North Carolina, two free throws by Ibekwe put Maryland back in front.

Terry then made two foul shots with 1:40 left, but Strawberry countered with a layup. Ibekwe followed with a steal and sank two free throws to give the Terrapins a three-point cushion with 1:11 to go.

It was 89-84 before North Carolina's Wayne Ellington made a 3-pointer. The Tar Heels got the ball back after a Maryland turnover, setting up Wright's missed free throws.

Hansbrough scored 22 points and Ellington had 17 for North Carolina, which went 8-for-17 at the foul line.

A sellout crowd of 17,950 assembled on a snowy day to see if the Terrapins could extend their longest ACC winning streak since 2003 and end their skid against North Carolina.

Game #30

#24/RV MARYLAND 85
 # 14/14 DUKE 77

Feb. 28, 2007 • Durham, N.C.
Cameron Indoor Stadium

DURHAM, N.C. (AP) - Maryland is suddenly looking like a team that nobody wants to play in March.

Mike Jones scored 25 points and D.J. Strawberry had a pair of baskets during a decisive second-half spurt Wednesday night to lead the 24th-ranked Terrapins past No. 14 Duke, giving the Terrapins their sixth straight victory.

Strawberry finished with 17 points for the Terps (23-7, 9-6 Atlantic Coast Conference), whose win streak - all in conference games - has firmed up its NCAA tournament resume.

The contributions came from everywhere Wednesday. Ekene Ibekwe also scored 17 points, while freshman point guard Greivis Vasquez showed no sign of nerves in front of a hostile Cameron Indoor Stadium crowd en route to 13 points, 12 assists and nine rebounds in 37 minutes.

Maryland led by 12 points midway through the second half. Then, after Duke made a run to tie it, the Terrapins took control in the final five minutes for their second season sweep of the Blue Devils (22-8, 8-7) in three years.

The Terrapins shot 52 percent for the game, hit 7 of 13 3-pointers and blocked eight shots while committing just 13 turnovers. Jones went 9-for-15 from the field and 4-for-5 from 3-point range.

The Blue Devils had won four straight since losing at Maryland 72-60, a defeat that dropped the Blue Devils out of The Associated Press Top 25 for the first time in 11 years. But they couldn't avenge that loss, shooting 41 percent and coming up empty on several key possessions down the stretch.

Game #31

NC STATE 59
#24/RV MARYLAND 79

March 3, 2007 • College Park, Md.
Comcast Center

COLLEGE PARK, Md. (AP) - On Senior Day, Maryland's trio of Mike Jones, D.J. Strawberry and Ekene Ibekwe wanted to put an emphasis on finishing strong and heading into the postseason on a high note.

With a win over North Carolina State on Saturday, the No. 24 Terrapins (24-7, 10-6) did just that - winning their seventh straight game to end the season and clinch at least fifth place in the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament.

Jones led the Terps with 21 points, while Strawberry added 16 points, six rebounds and four assists. Ibekwe had 14 points and 12 rebounds for his seventh double double of the season and the 13th of his career. Junior James Gist added 10 points and nine rebounds.

Leading by six with less than 10 minutes to play, No. 24 Maryland outscored NC State 20-7 over the next 5-1/2 minutes. During that stretch, Maryland scored on 10 straight possessions, hitting nine baskets and adding two free throws.

Maryland led 35-29 at the half and stretched the lead to 49-36, but NC State battled back until the decisive run that stretched the lead from six points to 20.

Brandon Costner led NC State with 20 points and Gavin Grant added 15 points.

The win completed a sweep of the four North Carolina teams in the conference for the first time since 1932-33, with a 6-0 mark. That year, they played only North Carolina and Duke.

Game #32

MIAMI 67
#17/20 MARYLAND 62

March 8, 2007 • Tampa, Fla.
St. Pete Times Forum • ACC-1st Round

TAMPA, Fla. (AP) - Jack McClinton scored 17 points, Brian Asbury added 12 and undermanned Miami upset No. 17 Maryland in the opening round of the Atlantic Coast Conference tournament Thursday.

The 12th-seeded Hurricanes nearly squandered a 15-point lead in the second half, but McClinton and Asbury combined to make five consecutive free throws in the final 34 seconds to snap the Terrapins' seven-game winning streak.

Maryland (24-7), the tournament's fifth seed, trailed 44-29 early in the second half and chipped away at the deficit with a tenacious full-court press that forced Miami into several turnovers.

The Hurricanes (12-19) worked the clock for much of the second half and seemed content to try to hold onto the lead. It nearly backfired when James Gist's one-handed slam made it a one-point game, 63-62.

But Asbury made four straight free throws down the stretch to seal the victory. He was 8-of-9 from the line and added seven rebounds.

Mike Jones led the Terrapins with 15 points. D.J. Strawberry added 13, and Gist finished with 12. Ekene Ibekwe had eight points, eight rebounds and four blocked shots before fouling out with 2:01 remaining.

Not only did Maryland give up too many offensive rebounds, the team struggled from the field. The Terrapins shot 39 percent from the floor and 17 percent (3-of-18) from 3-point range. They also missed 11 free throws.

DAVIDSON 70
#18/22 MARYLAND 82

March 15, 2007 • Buffalo, N.Y.
HSBC Arena • NCAA-1st Round

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) - D.J. Strawberry finished with 12 points, five assists and eight rebounds along with a difficult defensive assignment on Davidson freshman Stephen Curry to lead Maryland into the second round of the NCAA tournament.

Curry scored 30 points but ran out of gas at the end, missing five of his final six attempts before fouling out with 21 seconds remaining. The Wildcats had no one else to pick up the slack, managing just one field goal - Curry's transition layup - in the final 5:51.

That was all Maryland needed in a game that featured 14 lead changes and the Terrapins - the Midwest Region's fourth seed - rallying from an eight-point second-half deficit.

Mike Jones led Maryland (25-8) with 17 points, and reserve forward Bambale Osby added 11, playing a key role in sparking an 11-4 run that put the Terps ahead 69-63 with 7:27 remaining.

The momentum turned in the opening minutes of the second half, and after Davidson opened a 52-44 lead when Curry set up Max Paulhus Gosselin for a transition layup.

The Terps responded with an 8-0 run of their own and went ahead for good courtesy of Osby, who was a force in the middle filling in after starter Ekene Ibekwe ran into foul trouble. Osby's putback with 9:53 remaining gave Maryland a 60-59 lead, and he followed that by scoring on a baseline drive. Then, after blocking Jason Richards' shot, Osby set up James Gist for an easy layup at the other end.

Game #34

#19/21 BUTLER 62
#18/22 MARYLAND 59

March 17, 2007 • Buffalo, N.Y.
HSBC Arena • NCAA-2nd Round

BUFFALO, N.Y. (AP) - A.J. Graves scored 19 points to lift Butler to a 62-59 win over Maryland in the second round of the NCAA tournament.

Butler (29-6), the No. 5 seed in the Midwest Regional advances to St. Louis next week and will play Florida.

Butler never trailed after going up 39-36 on Drew Streicher's 3-point basket five minutes into the second half and hung on in a game Maryland rallied back to tie four times.

Brandon Crone scored with three minutes left to put the Bulldogs ahead 58-56. Then, after Maryland's Ekene Ibekwe missed a jumper, Graves hit a 3-pointer from the left corner.

After D.J. Strawberry hit one of two free throws to cut Butler's lead to 61-59, Maryland failed to climb back to even on its final two possessions. The game ended when Jones was unable to control Eric Hayes' inbounds just before the buzzer sounded.

The Bulldogs improved to 21-0 when they hold an opponent to 59 points or less. They did it with a stifling defense, forcing 17 Terrapins turnovers.

Maryland struggled in the first half, going 6:29 without scoring a field goal before Gist hit a reverse layup with 1:13 remaining. The Terps missed three attempts, committed four turnovers and hit 1-of-4 free throws during its drought.

Butler improved to 4-1 in NCAA tournament games under coach Todd Lickliter, and is in the midst of its fourth 20-win season in six years.

The game was the last in the college careers for six Maryland seniors - Strawberry, Jones, Ekene Ibekwe, Parrish Brown, Will Bowers and Gini Chukura. The senior class of 2007 left the legacy, though, of returning the Terrapins to the NCAAs after a two-season hiatus.

Gary Williams with the Sears Trophy, presented annually to the NCAA Champion and No. 1 ranked team in the USA Today/ESPN coaches poll as sponsored by the NABC. Williams received the crystal trophy at a morning press conference following the national championship game, in downtown Atlanta.

NO. 1 TERPS!

Maryland has been ranked No. 2 a total of 37 times between the AP and Coaches Polls, but achieved its first and only No. 1 ranking in history on April 2, 2002 – one day after defeating Indiana for the 2002 NCAA Championship. The final AP poll was released prior to the NCAA Tournament, thus the No. 1 ranking by USA Today/ESPN remains the only poll in which Maryland has ever been ranked No. 1. The Terrapins' four losses in 2002 (Oklahoma, Duke, Arizona, NC State) were all on the road to teams ranked in the USA Today/ESPN final Top 25.

The USA Today/ESPN Coaches Final Top 25 college basketball coaches' poll, with number of first-place votes and record in parentheses, total points and previous ranking (Records through April 1, 2002):

ALL-TIME RESULTS

Game-by-game results for every Maryland basketball season since 1910-11 Maryland was known as Maryland Agricultural College until 1915, and as Maryland State College from 1916-1919 Maryland's conference affiliations Atlantic Coast Conference since 1953-54, and the Southern Conference from 1923-24 to 1952-53

An all-college basketball team was formed in 1904-05, and played just two games Due to a fire in 1912 which burnt the armory and college gymnasium, the team that was fielded in 1913-14 did not have a regular home, practiced only three times all season and lost 16 games Another team was not fielded until 1918-19

In 1918-19, Maryland State participated in the District Intercollegiate Basketball League, in which all games were played at the Washington YMCA Another season would not be conducted until Maryland opened its new facility at The Gymnasium, inside Annapolis Hall, in 1923-24 It is considered to be the school's first "varsity" team

Home games were played at The Gymnasium from 1923-24 to 1930-31 Home games were played at Ritchie Coliseum from 1931-32 to 1954-55 Home games from 1955-56 through 2001-02 were played at Cole Field House Beginning in 2002-03, Maryland moved to Comcast Center

Maryland and opponent Associated Press rankings are in brackets – AP polls began in 1948-49 From 1960-61 to 1967-68, the Associated Press ranked only the nation's top 10 teams

ACC TOURNAMENT FAST FACTS

- The only time that four players on one team scored 20 or more points in an ACC Tournament game: John Lucas (24), Owen Brown (22), Mo Howard (20) and Tom McMillen (20) scored 86 of Maryland's 105 points in the Terps' 105-85 semifinal victory over North Carolina in 1974.
- The 2004 Maryland basketball team captured the ACC Title, winning the conference tournament for the third time in history and the first time since 1984. The Terrapins defeated No. 3 seed Wake Forest (87-86), No. 2 seed NC State (85-82) and No. 1 seed Duke (95-87 (OT) to mark the third time in ACC Tournament history that a team has knocked off the top three seeds.
- John Gilchrist was named the 2004 ACC Tournament MVP, becoming the first Terrapin to earn that distinction since Len Bias in 1984. He averaged 24.0 points, 6.3 assists, 5.3 rebounds and 2.0 steals across the three ACC tourney games, including a 30-point, seven-assist, four-rebound, four-steal performance in Maryland's comeback victory over NC State in the semifinal round.

HONORED JERSEYS

Maryland athletics honors the jersey numbers of 15 Terrapin greats. Along with the coach of the 2002 national champions, each is honored with a banner hung from the rafters of Comcast Center.

BOSEY BERGER

ALL-AMERICA
1931 • 1932

6

6-2, FORWARD
FORT MYER, VA.
PLAYED: 1929-32

Louis "Bosey" Berger was regarded as one of the greatest athletes in the history of Maryland athletics ... a two-time All-America selection and a consensus pick in 1932... his selection is considered a great feat because Maryland was an agricultural school at the time and not among the athletic giants ... considered one of the best all-around players of his time ... led Maryland to the 1931 Southern Conference championship, averaging a conference-high 19.1 points over the nine-game conference season ... also played baseball and signed a professional contract with the Cleveland Indians upon graduation ... played in the major leagues for six years, with the Cleveland Indians, Chicago White Sox and Boston Red Sox ... left baseball with a .236 lifetime average.

GENE SHUE

1953 • 1954

6-2, FORWARD
BALTIMORE, MD.
PLAYED: 1952-54

Terps' first high profile basketball star ... earned Converse and Helms Foundation All-America honors as a senior, while averaging 21.8 points a game ... scored 654 points in 1953 ... scored 40 points against Wake Forest in the 1953 Southern Conference tournament and selected as the tournament MVP ... school record-holder in career scoring until 1974 ... was the third overall player selected in the 1954 NBA Draft by the Philadelphia Warriors ... was All-Pro twice and a five-time NBA All-Star during his 10-year NBA career with the Warriors, New York Knickerbockers, Ft. Wayne/Detroit Pistons and Baltimore Bullets ... enjoyed a successful career as a head coach in the NBA with the Washington Bullets, Philadelphia 76ers, San Diego and Los Angeles Clippers ... was twice named as the NBA Coach of the Year ... was general manager of the Philadelphia 76ers.

COLE FIELD HOUSE

Its official name is the "William P. Cole Jr. Student Activities Building."

That is the name that can be read on the structure that still sits between the tennis courts and the university's student union, on the main thoroughfare of the campus of the University of Maryland, College Park. It is no longer, however, the home of Maryland basketball, as it was for 47 years since December of 1955.

Everyone just called it "Cole." Like Kentucky, where the Wildcats play at "Rupp." Or in Westwood, where UCLA plays at "Pauley."

The building is Cole Field House, even though that description appears nowhere officially. The nation's only on-campus arena to play host to multiple Final Fours, it has hosted numerous NCAA tournaments for basketball, volleyball and wrestling. It also hosted a U.S. vs. China ping-pong match in 1972 before a capacity crowd in what was the first sporting event held between the two nations; it hosted U.S. Presidents and, in September 1974, it even hosted Elvis.

Besides the all-black starting five of Texas Western taking the floor against Kentucky in the national championship game of 1966, Cole Field House was also home to the first black basketball players in the ACC — Maryland's Billy Jones (1966-68) and Pete Johnson (1967-69).

In 47 seasons, Terrapin teams were 486-151 at Cole Field House. A few of Cole's most memorable basketball moments:

COLE WAS A HOUSE OF HORRORS FOR NO. 1 TEAMS

Cole Field House bears distinction as having hosted more upsets of No. 1-ranked teams than any building in the country.

When the No. 3-ranked Terrapins dispatched top-rated Duke on Feb. 27, 2002, it was Cole Field House's seventh game in which a No. 1 ranked team has fallen.

Including NCAA Tournament games, Notre Dame's Joyce Athletics & Convocation Center has hosted six No. 1 upsets and Oklahoma's Lloyd Noble Center has been the site of five.

At Cole, Maryland has beaten the nation's top team in six of those seven games. Also at Cole, No. 3-ranked Texas Western topped No. 1 Kentucky during the 1966 Final Four.

1955

Cole Field House dedicated at a cost of $3.3 million. Maryland defeats Virginia, 67-55, on Dec. 2 in the first game in the new facility.

1958

Cole is home to the Atlantic Coast Conference champions and Maryland's first NCAA Tournament team.

1965

Bill Bradley scored 41 points in the NCAA East Region championship game as Princeton topped Providence, 109-69.

1966

Cole plays host to the NCAA Final Four. In the semifinals, Kentucky defeats Duke and Texas Western (now Texas-El Paso) defeats Utah. Texas Western then defeats Kentucky in one of the most historic championship games in history.

1970

Cole plays host to the NCAA Final Four for the second time. UCLA defeats Jacksonville for the title as Sidney Wicks outduals Artis Gilmore. It was the fourth of UCLA's seven consecutive NCAA championships.

Lefty Driesell was the architect of Maryland's great teams of the '70s and '80s.

1971

Maryland defeats No. 2 South Carolina, 31-30, in one of the great "slow-down" games in the history of Cole. Leading only 4-3 at halftime, Maryland needed a lay-up from Jim O'Brien to tie the game with five seconds to go in regulation and an 11-foot jumper from O'Brien to win the game with four seconds remaining in OT.

1972

Cole is home to the National Invitation Tournament champions – the Maryland Terrapins.

The Cole Field House single-game attendance record of 15,287 was set as Maryland played host to North Carolina on Feb. 16. Maryland won 79-77 in an overtime thriller.

1975

Cole was the site of the first women's basketball game ever to be televised.

1979

On Super Bowl Sunday, Larry Gibson sank a free throw with one second on the clock to boost the Terps past top-ranked Notre Dame, 67-66, on Jan. 27, 1979. Gibson scored 11 points that day while Ernest Graham scored 28 and Buck Williams grabbed 15 rebounds.

1984

1991

In the NCAA Eastern Regional first round, 15th-seeded Richmond defeats No. 2 seed Syracuse, 73-69, in one of the great upsets in NCAA Tournament history. It was only the second time in the history of the tournament that a No. 15 seed had defeated a No. 2 seed.

1992

On Jan. 15, 1992, No. 3 Maryland hosted No. 2 Virginia in a women's basketball shootout before a sellout crowd of 14,500. The game still stands as the ACC attendance mark for a women's game.

Maryland defeats No. 10 North Carolina, 82-80, on a last-second tip-in by All-American Walt Williams. Williams put the Terps up 81-80 with 1.3 seconds remaining to lead the Terps past the Tar Heels in Cole for only the second time since the 1982-83 season.

1994

Before a sellout crowd on March 5, Maryland defeats Virginia, 70-68, to clinch a fourth-place tie in the ACC standings and virtually assure its first NCAA Tournament bid under Gary Williams.

1995

Maryland defeats No. 1 North Carolina, 86-73, in front of a sellout crowd and a national television audience.

1998

Maryland defeats No. 1 North Carolina, 89-83 in overtime, as Laron Profit scores 19 points overall and six during an overtime period. It marks the second time in three years that the Terps beat No. 1 North Carolina in Cole.

1999

Maryland sets a school record with 28 wins on the season, and the Terps host a record 14,455 fans per game at Cole. Junior sensation Steve Francis is named an All-American and later chosen as the second pick in the NBA draft.

2001

Maryland defeats Virginia 102-67 in the final game of the regular season to mark the most lopsided win ever, in the longtime series against its ACC rival. One week later, the Terps advance to their eighth straight NCAA Tournament berth and bring back to College Park the first Final Four banner in school history.

2002

Maryland defeats top-ranked Duke before a national television audience, 87-73, to take over first place in the ACC and mark the seventh time in Cole history that a No. 1 ranked team has been defeated.

Maryland beats Virginia 112-92 to win its first ACC regular season title since 1980, in what is the final game at Cole. A standing-room only crowd witnesses an emotional postgame event with returning All-Americans commemorating Cole's final game, followed by a net-cutting ceremony to celebrate the Terps' league title.

The NCAA Champion Terrapins return to Cole before a crowd of over 12,000 adoring fans, just hours after winning the first national championship in school history.

TERPS IN THE PROS

TERPS IN THE NBA DRAFT

Maryland's rising success under Gary Williams over the past 18 years has resulted in a growing number of Terrapin stars in the NBA ranks, and professionally overseas.

In the NBA specifically, the annual draft has become a barometer of Terrapin success, as Maryland has landed 16 players overall in the draft since Williams' return to College Park and nine draft picks since 1999 alone.

During Williams' 29-year career as a head coach, an incredible total of 29 players have been NBA draft choices.

In June of 2003, four-year point guard Steve Blake became the eighth Terp drafted over a five-year span with his selection in the second round by the Washington Wizards. In 2002, the Terps landed a pair of first round picks and three selections overall, as Chris Wilcox (8th, Los Angeles Clippers), Juan Dixon (17th, Washington Wizards) and Lonny Baxter (44th, Chicago Bulls) all were chosen from draft proceedings at Madison Square Garden. Wilcox, chosen eighth overall, was Maryland's first lottery pick since Steve Francis three years earlier. When Dixon was made the 17th pick of the draft, Maryland had placed two players in the first round for the first time since 1981.

Buoyed by three first and second round draft picks during the 1999 and 2002 NBA drafts, Maryland and Gary Williams have asserted themselves in recent years among the most prominent schools in developing NBA talent.

In 1999, Steve Francis was chosen as the second pick of the first round, followed by second-round selections Obinna Ekezie and Laron Profit. One year later, Terence Morris was taken in the second round of the draft.

The Terps' NBA draft tally since 1999: nine draft picks, three first-round choices and two lottery selections.

What's more, Francis, the No. 2 pick in that '99 draft, went on to become the NBA's Co-Rookie of the Year. By the 2002 season, Francis was voted to the NBA All-Star Game.

Chosen on draft day by the Vancouver Grizzlies, Francis was traded in the preseason to the Houston Rockets for whom he led all NBA rookies with 6.6 steals in 1999-00, and was the second-leading rookie scorer with 18 points per game.

Had Francis been the No. 1 overall selection, Maryland would have become the first school in NBA history to have three No. 1 selections. Previously, John Lucas was the top pick by the Houston Rockets in 1976 and Joe Smith was picked first by the Golden State Warriors in 1995.

The Terps' 2002 draft windfall brought the number of all-time Maryland lottery selections to five — a number that is tied for ninth among all NCAA schools. Wilcox's selection brought the number of lottery selections at Maryland under head coach Gary Williams to four. Overall, seven Maryland players and nine overall since 1987 have played for Gary Williams and become first-round draft picks with guaranteed contracts.

THE UNIVERSITY

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND

DEEP ROOTS, BROAD IMPACT

Charles Benedict Calvert founded the Maryland Agricultural College in 1856 with the goal of creating a school that would offer outstanding practical knowledge to him and his neighbors and be "an institution superior to any other."

One hundred and fifty years later, the University of Maryland has blossomed from its roots as the state's first agricultural college and one of America's original land grant institutions into a model of the modern research university. It is the state's greatest asset for its economic development and its future, and has made its mark in the nation and the world.

Calvert would be astounded by the depth and breadth of research activities, innovative educational programs, and the single-minded pursuit of excellence that are part of the University of Maryland today. Maryland is ranked 18th among the nation's top public research universities by U.S. News & World Report, with 31 academic programs in the Top 10 and 92 in the Top 25. It is also ranked No. 37th in the world, according to the Institute of Higher Education at at Shanghai's Jiao Tong University.

Maryland is the state's premier center of research and graduate education and the public institution of choice for undergraduate students of exceptional ability and promise. The faculty includes three Nobel laureates, six Pulitzer Prize winners, a three-time Emmy Award winner, 40 members of national academies and scores of Fulbright scholars. The university focuses great attention on the highest academic standards, affordability for all qualified students, and a President's Promise program that guarantees opportunity for extraordinary extracurricular and professional experiences for each student.

UNIVERSITY OF MARYLAND 1856 ™

It has earned a national reputation for its enriched educational experiences for undergraduates, including such widely imitated living/learning programs as College Park Scholars; Gemstone, a unique program that brings teams of students together from across disciplines to tackle specific technical problems; and the Hinman CEO Entrepreneurship Program, sponsored jointly by the A. James Clark School of Engineering and the Robert H. Smith School of Business, and widely recognized as the most successful student entrepreneurship program in the nation.

These programs are guided by outstanding faculty whose accomplishments in research abound. Whether the issue is Mideast peace, cutting-edge research in nanoscience, homeland security or bioscience advances, Maryland faculty are selected for national leadership and are making news. Many recent major faculty initiatives receiving significant external support strengthen our homeland security endeavors—centers for research on agrosecurity and emergency management; intermodal freight transportation security; behavioral and social analyses of terrorism and responses to terrorism; astrophysics and advanced world climate and weather prediction; and a national Center for Advanced Study of Language.

In addition to its academic prowess, Maryland is also home to the Terrapins, whose athletic achievements are a perennial source of pride for nearly 250,000 alumni and residents of the state. In 2005-2006, the Terrapins brought home national championships in four sports — men's soccer, field hockey, competitive cheer and women's basketball — more than any university in the nation.

In 2004, Maryland's School of Music hosted the National Symphony Orchestra in its first university residency, and its 2006 opera production was declared by the Washington Post music critic "... as good as any Bohème you are likely to see this side of the Metropolitan Opera or Covent Garden."

Whether aiming for the skies or pioneering journalism programs in China, the University of Maryland is surging ahead. Building on the work of outstanding faculty and students, and with the loyal support of alumni and friends, Maryland is moving aggressively and confidently to a decade that will shine brighter than any other in its history.

PRESIDENT C.D. MOTE JR.

In September 1998, C. D. (Dan) Mote, Jr. began his tenure as President of the University of Maryland and Glenn L. Martin Institute Professor of Engineering. He was recruited to lead the University of Maryland to national eminence under a mandate by the state. Since assuming the presidency, he has encouraged an environment of excellence across the University and given new impetus to the momentum generated by a talented faculty and student body. Under his leadership, academic programs have flourished. In 2005, the University was ranked 18th among public research universities, up from 30th in 1998. President Mote has emphasized broad access to the university's model, enriched undergraduate curriculum programs and launched the Baltimore Incentive Awards Program to recruit and provide full support to high school students of outstanding potential who have overcome extraordinary adversity during their lives.

He has spurred the university to lead the state in the development of its high-tech economy, especially in the information and communication, bioscience and biotechnology, and nano-technology sectors. President Mote has greatly expanded the university's partnerships with corporate and federal laboratories and successfully negotiated to bring to the College Park area the first Science Research Park sponsored by the People's Republic of China. Under his leadership, the University has established a research park, The University of Maryland Enterprise Campus, M-Square, located on a 115-acre site adjacent to the University of Maryland/College Park Metro with 3 million square feet of development potential. Among its first tenants are the Center for Advanced Study of Language, a joint venture of the University and Department of Defense, and the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration's new World Weather and Climate Prediction Center.

During President Mote's second year in office, the University began the largest building boom in its history, with more than $100 million in new projects breaking ground that year. New facilities address every aspect of university life, from the arts to recreation to classrooms and laboratories, and, in creative partnership with the private sector, new residential facilities. Highlights of the construction activity include the stunning Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center; the Comcast Center, a state of the art sports complex; a high tech research greenhouse; and new classrooms for chemistry, computer science, business and engineering. President Mote also led the development of a new Facilities Master Plan for development in the next 20 years, which is noted for its emphasis on environmental stewardship.

Dr. Mote is a leader in the national dialogue on higher education and his analyses of shifting funding models have been featured in local and national media. He has testified on major educational issues before Congress, representing the University and higher education associations on the problem of visa barriers for international students and scholars and on deemed export control issues. He has been asked to serve on a high level National Academies Committee appointed at the request of the Senate Energy Subcommittee of the Senate Energy and Natural Resources Committee to identify challenges to United States leadership in key areas of science and technology and to be a member of the Leadership Council of the National Innovation Initiative, an activity of the Council on Competitiveness. He has served as vice chair of the Department of Defense Basic Research Committee, and is a member of the Council of the National Academy of Engineering. In 2004-2005, he served as President of the Atlantic Coast Conference. In its last ranking in 2002, "Washington Business Forward" magazine counted him among the top 20 most influential leaders in the region.

Prior to assuming the Presidency at Maryland, Dr. Mote served on the University of California, Berkeley faculty for 31 years. From 1991 to 1998, he was Vice Chancellor at Berkeley, held an endowed chair in Mechanical Systems and was President of the UC Berkeley Foundation. He led a comprehensive capital campaign for Berkeley that raised $1.4 B. He earlier served as chair of Berkeley's Department of Mechanical Engineering and led the department to its number one ranking in the National Research Council review of graduate program effectiveness.

Dr. Mote's research lies in dynamic systems and biomechanics. Internationally recognized for his research on the dynamics of gyroscopic systems and the biomechanics of snow skiing, he has produced more than 300 publications, holds patents in the U.S., Norway, Finland and Sweden, and has mentored 56 Ph.D. students. He received the B.S., M.S. and Ph.D. in mechanical engineering from the University of California, Berkeley. President Mote has received numerous awards and honors, including the Humboldt Prize awarded by the Federal Republic of Germany. He is a recipient of the Berkeley Citation, an award from the University of California-Berkeley similar to the honorary doctorate, and was named Distinguished Engineering Alumnus. He has received two honorary doctorates. He is a member of the U.S. National Academy of Engineering and serves on its Council, and is a member of the American Academy of Arts and Sciences. He was elected to Honorary Membership in the ASME International, its most distinguished recognition, and is a Fellow of the International Academy of Wood Science, the Acoustical Society of America, and the American Association for the Advancement of Science. In Spring 2005, he was named recipient of the 2005 J. P. Den Hartog award by the ASME International Technical Committee on Vibration and Sound to honor his lifelong contribution to the teaching and/or practice of vibration engineering. In Fall 2005, he received the 2005 Founders Award from the National Academy of Engineering in recognition of his comprehensive body of work on the dynamics of moving flexible structures and for leadership in academia.

He and his wife of over 40 years, Patricia Mote, have two married children, Melissa and Adam, and four grandchildren. Patsy Mote has continued her strong support of the arts and is spokesperson for the Clarice Smith Performing Arts Center and a member of Prince George's County Arts Commission.

DEBORAH A. YOW

DIRECTOR OF ATHLETICS • 14TH YEAR AT MARYLAND

Deborah A. Yow is in the 14th year of her outstanding tenure as director of athletics at the University of Maryland, a tenure that has seen unprecedented success and achievement in Maryland athletics. In Yow's 13-plus years at Maryland, the Terrapins have won a remarkable 15 national championships and graduated student-athletes at an enviable rate as Maryland athletics has soared to sustained new heights among the nation's elite intercollegiate athletic programs.

The comprehensive success of Terrapin athletics under Debbie Yow's leadership is a clear and compelling testimony of her values of excellence, teamwork and accountability.

Likewise, her prior election to the presidency of the National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics is an indication of the wide respect with which she is regarded among its 6,100 members representing 1,600 colleges and universities in the U.S. and Canada.

She was honored recently by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal as one of the 20 most influential people in intercollegiate athletics and she has received the Carl Maddox Sport Management Award presented by the United States Sports Academy for excellence in athletics administration.

Dr. Yow was selected to serve on the U.S. Department of Education's Commission on Opportunities in Athletics to review the status of Federal Title IX regulations. She recently served as the chair of the Atlantic Coast Conference Committee on Television. The committee is charged with overseeing the league's TV contracts and dealing with issues related to television. Yow led the committee during the successful renegotiation of comprehensive, multi-year ACC football and basketball contracts with ABC, ESPN, ESPN2 and syndication entities.

Additionally, she has represented intercollegiate athletics with presentations in a number of prominent settings such as the Harvard University School of Law conference on "Shaping the Future of Collegiate Athletics" and the Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal "National Forum on the Direction of Intercollegiate Athletics" in New York. She was also recently inducted into the State of Maryland Women's Hall of Fame and the North Carolina Sports Hall of Fame, joining fellow Terp Buck Williams as honorees.

Yow, who has served on the NCAA Management Council and the NCAA Division I Budget Committee, is a strong and steady voice on behalf of intercollegiate athletics in America.

IN DECEMBER OF 2004, DEBORAH A. YOW WAS NAMED ONE OF THE MOST INFLUENTIAL PEOPLE IN COLLEGE ATHLETICS BY STREET & SMITH'S SPORTS BUSINESS JOURNAL.

Since taking over as AD at Maryland in 1994, she and her staff have:

- Transformed Terrapin athletics into a responsive, goal-oriented organization with 27 sports and more than 700 student-athletes.
- Balanced all 12 of the department's annual budgets (none of the budgets were balanced in the 10 years prior to her arrival). The budget has now reached $55 million annually and the multi-million dollar accumulated operating debt which her administration inherited has been eradicated.
- Greatly enhanced the academic support services provided for student-athletes, with an enviable exhausted eligibility graduation rate of approximately 85 percent for student athletes at Maryland.
- Led the Terrapins to a national all-sports ranking in the upper 7 percent of all NCAA Division I institutions.
- Significantly expanded marketing and fund-raising efforts on behalf of Terrapin athletics. As a result, private gifts to athletics have increased over 350 percent and corporate sponsorship revenues have increased by over 300 percent during her tenure at Maryland.
- Continued to dramatically improve venues and facilities for the department's 27 teams. The Comcast Center for men's and women's basketball and other sports that use the facility is a prime example of the remarkable upgrade of athletic facilities.
- Implemented a strategic management model.

Dr. Yow with former Terp student-athletes Boomer Esiason (left), Bonnie Bernstein (center) and Steve Francis (right).

- Developed a comprehensive Internet strategy with management, marketing and fund-raising applications.
- Significantly improved customer care in every area of Maryland athletics.

The most recent achievements of Maryland athletics are exceptional:

- Maryland captured a remarkable six national championships during the past two seasons (2005-06, 2006-07).
- In 2006, the Terrapins achieved the highest student-athlete graduation rate in the history of Maryland athletics.
- Maryland was selected by U.S. News & World Report as one of the Top 20 athletic programs in the nation (for overall quality and competitive excellence).
- In 2005-06, Maryland Athletics won the inaugural PRISM Award as the most well-managed Division I collegiate athletics program in the nation.
- In men's basketball, the Terps won the Atlantic Coast Conference title over Duke in the championship game in 2004 and won the NCAA National Championship in 2002. Under Coach Gary Williams, the men's basketball team appeared in 11 consecutive NCAA Tournaments and in 12 of the last 14 tournaments.
- Maryland was ranked as the sixth-finest athletic program in the nation by the Laboratory for the Study of Intercollegiate Athletics, based on comprehensive criteria such as graduation rates, financial efficiency, equity effectiveness and competitive excellence.
- Women's basketball won the 2006 NCAA National Championship under head coach Brenda Frese, completing an amazing turnaround that saw the program go from a 10-18 record to a National Championship in four seasons.
- In football, the Terps won the 2001 Atlantic Coast Conference championship and played in the 2002 Orange Bowl, followed that with an 11-win season and a 30-3 victory over the University of Tennessee in the Peach Bowl, again followed by a 10-win season and a 41-7 win over West Virginia in the Gator Bowl on New Year's Day 2004. In 2006, Maryland returned to the bowl scene, where the Terps beat Purdue, 24-7, in the Champs Sports Bowl. Graduation rates in football are near 80 percent and the program was recently recognized by the American Football Coaches Association for its academic excellence under Coach Ralph Friedgen.
- Additionally, Maryland is one of only nine universities to win the National Championship in football and men's basketball and is one of only three universities in the nation to win National Championships in men's basketball, women's basketball and football. Stanford and UCLA are the only other NCAA Division I institutions to achieve that mark.
- Set an ACC single-game record for women's basketball attendance by drawing 17,950 to a regular-season game at Comcast Center.
- Hired Dave Cottle, the third-winningest active men's lacrosse coach in the U.S., who guided his team to the NCAA Final Four in three of the past five seasons.
- Field Hockey earned National Championships in 2005-06 and in 2006-07, and has become a perennial participant in the Final Four in that sport.

Debbie Yow is in her 14th year as Maryland's athletics director.

- Women's Lacrosse has continued its winning ways with seven national championships from 1995-2001, with additional Final Four appearances.
- Men's Soccer has appeared in four consecutive Final Fours and won the NCAA National Championship in the 2005-06 season.
- Football facilities have been significantly enhanced with team house, stadium and practice field upgrades. The Academic Center was the first improvement, as it took priority over all other initiatives.
- The Terrapins have moved into the $130 million Comcast Center, housing athletic department offices and seating for 18,000 fans for basketball and other events – part of a remarkable $250 million upgrade and expansion of athletics facilities during Dr. Yow's leadership of Maryland Athletics.
- In 2006-07, 13 Maryland teams competed in postseason play.
- The productivity, morale, and the competitive and academic achievement of Terrapin athletics are exceptional and continue to gain momentum.

Regarding the many achievements of Terrapin athletics over the past 13 years, Yow says, "We are pleased, but we are not satisfied... our vision is to be one of the Top 5 programs in the nation consistently... we see no reason to settle for less."

Yow is known for her goal-oriented and proactive management style. She consistently inspires and challenges those around her to "raise our sights and sharpen our tools... to work hard and work smart... to recognize that our only limitations are those that we place upon ourselves."

As a manager and a leader, she clearly models these principles. She is the only known current AD in NCAA Division I who has hired both the National Coach of the Year in football (while at Maryland) and the National Coach of the Year in men's basketball (while at Saint Louis University). In 2002, she brought to the University of Maryland Brenda Frese, who at that time was the National Coach of the Year in women's basketball. Four years later, Frese led the Terrapins to the NCAA National Championship at the Women's Final Four in Boston.

Dr. Yow is known as "a coach's AD," while also being highly organized and a strategic and proactive leader and administrator. Quite simply, Debbie Yow personifies the relational and management dynamics that are necessary to be an excellent administrator.

A successful former basketball coach at the University of Kentucky and University of Florida, she moved into athletics administration at the University of Florida and the University of North Carolina, Greensboro, followed by a successful tenure as AD at Saint Louis University from 1990 through 1994.

She has authored numerous articles and books on athletics management and human behavior, and is a respected leader in intercollegiate athletics in the United States.

Summing up the entire Maryland athletics program, our athletics director recently stated, "We have the finest student-athletes, coaches, support staff and administrative team in America. It is because of their courage, hard work and cooperative spirit that we now have a strong, viable athletic program. I am immensely proud of each of them. I am equally proud of our Terrapin fans who buy tickets, our Terrapin Club members who faithfully support the Maryland athletic program with their donations for scholarships, and the M Club members who serve and give liberally. We are also blessed with a terrific President, Dr. Dan Mote, who has fostered a mindset of excellence across our institution. He is a strong and balanced advocate for what he calls 'the three A's of the University -- Academics, the Arts and Athletics'. We have a great Terrapin family. That's the foundation for all of our success... and the basis for our bright future. It's a great time to be a Terp."

CHERYL LEVICK

CHIEF OF STAFF • FIRST YEAR AT MARYLAND

Cheryl Levick, one of the top administrators in the country, is the Terrapins' new chief of staff. Levick has over 20 years experience in collegiate athletics, including the last seven running two Division I programs. She comes to College Park from Saint Louis University where she has served the last three years as director of athletics. Prior to her stint with the Billikens, Levick had a four-year run as the director of athletics of Santa Clara University.

"Cheryl Levick is widely acknowledged as one of the best collegiate athletics administrators in the country," said Maryland director of athletics Deborah A. Yow. "Her passion for the athletics enterprise and expectations for excellence are traits that will serve Maryland athletics well in the coming years. We are delighted that she will be joining us in the leadership role of chief of staff."

Levick led Saint Louis through its transition from Conference USA into the Atlantic 10, as well as spearheading the fund-raising effort for the new on-campus Chaifetz Arena and the design of the adjacent practice facilities. She also recently hired former national coach of the year Rick Majerus to run the men's basketball program. In addition, she served on the 2005 NCAA Men's Basketball Final Four executive committee and partnered with the St. Louis Sports Commission to serve as host for the 2006 NCAA Men's Soccer College Cup.

"I am excited about joining the staff at the University of Maryland, working with Debbie Yow and being on a football campus again," Levick said. "This new position is an exciting opportunity to work with one of the top collegiate athletics programs in America, led by one of the elite administrators in our profession."

Levick, a former high school coach, is also well in tune with the student-athlete. During the 2006-07 academic year, the SLU department of athletics posted an overall grade point average of 3.28. There were also 123 student-athletes named to the Atlantic 10 Conference Commissioner's Honor Roll for the spring 2007 semester.

Levick broke new ground at Santa Clara. She was the first female director of athletics in school history, as well as in the West Coast Conference. During her tenure at Santa Clara, Levick reorganized the department's administrative staff, oversaw a major renovation of the 5,000-seat basketball arena, broke ground on a 1,500-seat baseball stadium and received a $42.75 million commitment from the university's capital campaign.

Prior to Santa Clara she spent 12 years (1988-2000) at Stanford as the senior associate athletics director and senior woman administrator. She served as the department's chief operating officer, overseeing internal operations for 33 varsity sports. During Levick's time at Stanford, the Cardinal won 44 national championships.

Levick has received a number of accolades for her work in athletics. The National Association of Collegiate Women Athletic Administrators (NACWAA) honored Levick as the 2000 Division I Athletic Administrator of the Year. In 1998 and 1999, she was named one of the nation's Top 25 Female Sports Executives by Street and Smith's Sports Business Journal. In the spring of 2001, she was honored with a Bay Area Woman Achievement Award.

Levick, a native of St. Louis, is a 1974 graduate of the University of Missouri, and holds a master's degree in athletic administration from Indiana University. Levick has two daughters, Heather and Melissa, and a son-in-law, Michael Klass.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT & CAREER DEVELOPMENT

The University of Maryland is committed to providing the highest quality education to all of its students. The Department of Intercollegiate Athletics strives to provide student-athletes excellent opportunities to participate in an intercollegiate athletics program of the highest quality, with the result that their athletics participation becomes an integral and valued component of their total educational experience at the university.

Terrapin student-athletes will find that the same hard work and discipline that has earned them success in athletics competition is also required in the classroom. Balancing the significant time demands and responsibilities required to be a successful student-athlete at the highest collegiate level is no small task. Therefore, as a result of their commitment to representing the university through athletics, Terrapin student-athletes are able to utilize support programs designed to meet their specific needs.

Led by associate athletics director Anton Goff, the mission of the Academic Support and Career Development Unit (ASCDU) is to provide quality developmental programs and need-based services that will enhance academic progress, facilitate career development, and encourage the psychosocial growth of all UM student-athletes.

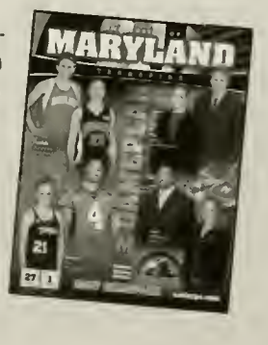
The Gossett Academic Support and Career Development Center for Terrapin student-athletes, named for long-time Terp supporters Barry and Mary Gossett, is located in the Comcast Center. It features a study center that includes 25 desktop computers, a tutoring center, a classroom, a CHAMPS/Life Skills resource room and individual offices for professional academic counselors, a director of enrichment programs, an assistant program coordinator and a graduate assistant. In addition, a new academic wing was added to the Gossett football team house recently. It features offices for two counselors, a program coordinator and three learning specialists; as well as a quiet study area, 29-desk computer lab, classroom, tutor rooms and classroom/lab for the individualized learning program.

Academic courses, programs and services offered by ASCDU include the following:

- Student-athlete orientation
- Academic counseling
- NCAA academic eligibility monitoring
- Academic enrichment and career development presentations and workshops
- Accredited tutorial support
- Individualized learning program
- EDCP 108-K (College learning strategies and skills)
- EDCP 108-M (Math learning strategies and skills)
- UNIV 100 (First-year transitions to the university)

MARYLAND GAMEPLAN

The Maryland Gameplan is intended to assist graduating Terrapin student-athletes as they begin the job search process. It is distributed to more than 500 corporations and businesses across the country, in addition to being featured on the M Club website. Prospective employers are introduced to our graduating student-athletes with resume information relative to academic, career and personal achievements. The Maryland Gameplan directory is produced annually in collaboration with the M Club.



CAREER NETWORKING NIGHT

Because career development is an ongoing process, ASCDU provides a variety of programs for student-athletes throughout the year. Professional assistance with resume-writing, interviewing skills, graduate school search and job search is readily available to all student-athletes. During the spring semester ASCDU hosts the Career Networking Night, where student-athletes can learn about career interests and career planning. Unlike typical "job fairs," the purpose of this program is to allow student-athletes to explore multiple career opportunities by speaking directly to individuals in their chosen areas of interest. Employers at the Career Networking Night recognize the marketable qualities student-athletes have gained through athletic participation. Student-athletes learn about opportunities for internships and full-time jobs.

STUDENT-ATHLETE ADVISORY COMMITTEE

The Student-Athlete Advisory Committee (S.A.A.C.) plays an important role in the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics. It consists of two representatives from each varsity sport and meets on a regular basis with representatives from the athletic administration. The S.A.A.C. mission is to enhance the total student-athlete experience by developing leadership skills, promoting student-athlete welfare and fostering a positive student-athlete image on the Maryland campus, local area and nationally.

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS

ASCDU houses the NCAA's (National Collegiate Athletic Association) CHAMPS/Life Skills Program. The ASCDU staff, in collaboration with various other Department of Intercollegiate Athletics' units and campus resources, strives to provide a systematic personal development program designed to reach each student-athlete based on his or her individual needs. The focus of the program is on the individual academically, athletically and emotionally, and on the changing needs and skills of that individual in the years during college and after graduation. The menu of presentations, workshops and seminars is a comprehensive and balanced system of "life learning" programs promoted for use by each varsity sport team.

NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills PROGRAM

Highlights of the CHAMPS/Life Skills Programs:

- Support efforts of every student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation
- Use athletics as preparation for success in life
- Meet the changing needs of student-athletes
- Promote respect for diversity among student-athletes
- Enhance interpersonal relationships in the lives of student-athletes
- Assist student-athletes in building positive self-esteem
- Enable student-athletes to make meaningful contributions to their communities
- Promote ownership by the student-athletes of their academic, athletic, personal and social responsibilities
- Enhance partnerships between the NCAA, member institutions and their communities for the purpose of education
- Encourage the development of leadership skills

CHAMPS/LIFE SKILLS PROGRAMS COMMITMENT STATEMENTS

Commitment to Academic Excellence

To support the academic progress of the student-athlete toward intellectual development and graduation.

Commitment to Athletic Excellence

To build philosophical foundations for the development of athletic programs that are broad-based, equitable and dedicated to the well-being of the student-athlete.

Commitment to Personal Development

To support the development of a well-balanced lifestyle for student-athletes, encouraging emotional well-being, personal growth and decision-making skills.

Commitment to Career Development

To encourage the student-athlete to develop and pursue career and life goals.

Commitment to Service

To engage student-athletes in service to his/her campus and surrounding communities.

ACADEMIC SUPPORT FOR RETURNING ATHLETES PROGRAM

The Academic Support for Returning Athletes Program was created in 1986 to support the academic efforts of former varsity student-athletes at the University of Maryland, College Park. In 1989, ASRAP was assigned by the President's Office to the Academic Achievements Program and enrolled 40 students that year. As a member of the National Consortium for Academics and Sports (NCAS), the University of Maryland is committed to assisting its former athletes with degree completion. A key component of the program is community outreach. Each returning student completes a "workship" that allows the cost of tuition and fees to be exchanged for community services with youth. In 2002, ASRAP moved into the ASCDU.

STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING

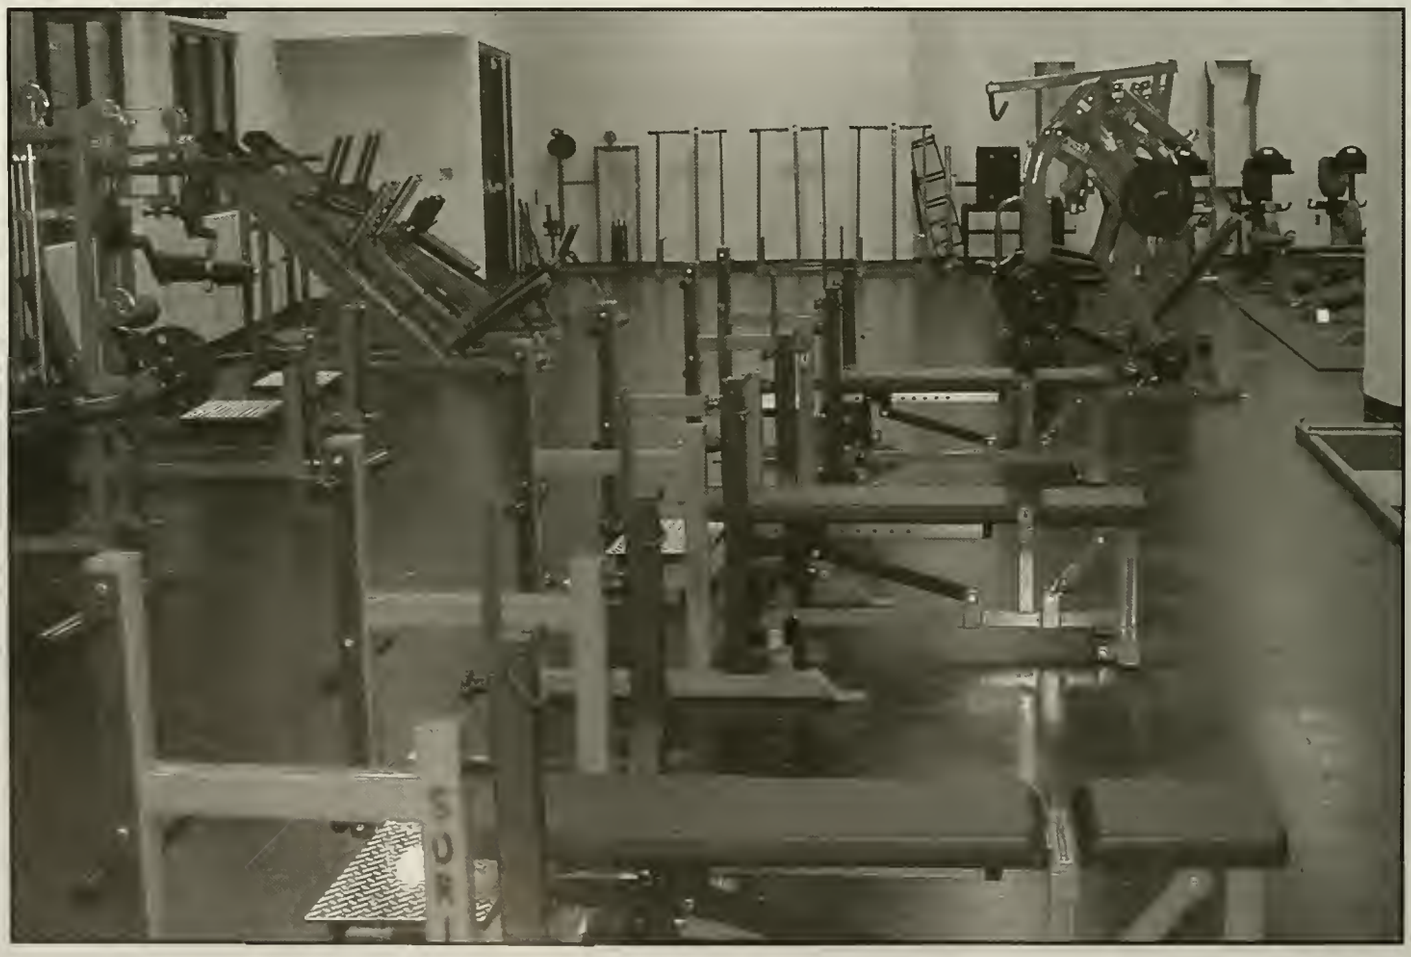
In the highly competitive world of collegiate basketball, the off-court preparation of the basketball athlete is a critical component in the on-court success of any Division I program. Pete Yurish, Maryland's strength and conditioning coach for men's basketball, believes strongly that a solid off-court training program can dramatically improve levels of performance, as well as significantly reduce the chance of injury. The benefit of performing structured strength and power training throughout the entire year has allowed the Terps to reach new levels in physical development and, in turn, has resulted in great success on the basketball court.

Pete Yurish

Yurish's philosophy consists of allowing the players to gain strength, speed and change of direction capabilities through drills that are basketball oriented. He believes that the team must be prepared to run and play the up-tempo style of basketball that is Gary Williams' trademark. Yurish trains the team so that it will be able to play up to Williams' style.

The Terps' new state-of-the-art weight room at Comcast Center.

The members of the men's basketball team have the use of a fully-equipped weight training facility located down the hall from the men's basketball office and the team's locker room in Comcast Center. The conveniently located 4,000 sqare foot facility features a combination of Sorinex weight training equipment and York free weight equipment. The strength staff utilizes this facility specifically during the season as basketball team members are personally trained before, during and after the season.



SPORTS MEDICINE

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics and the University of Maryland Medical Center's Sports Medicine program have joined forces to provide the best possible medical attention and care to all Terrapin student-athletes.

Says Deborah A. Yow, Maryland's director of athletics: "When we recruit student-athletes to play for Maryland, we owe them the best education, the best coaching and the best comprehensive health care. It is especially gratifying for us to partner with our medical center in the same fashion as other ACC institutions do with their medical schools."

DARRYL CONWAY

Assistant AD/
Sports Medicine
Delaware '93
Fourth Year at Maryland

Darryl Conway was hired in June 2004 as Maryland's assistant athletics director for sports medicine after spending three years as the head athletic trainer at the University of Central Florida. Conway oversees all medical and athletic training operations for the Terrapins' 27 varsity athletic programs.

Conway, who has been an athletic trainer at both the collegiate and professional levels, comes to the Terrapins after serving as head athletic trainer at the University of Central Florida for three years. There he was the head trainer for the Golden Knight football squad, while supervising the assistant trainers, graduate assistants and student assistants who provide training coverage of Central Florida's 17 varsity sports. At UCF, Conway was responsible for overseeing the compilation and input of daily medical records, the computerized injury surveillance program and the NCAA injury surveillance system. He served as a clinical instructor/field experience supervisor for athletic training students, assisted in the development of marketing and fundraising projects for the sports medicine department and served as the site coordinator for the NCAA drug testing program at UCF.

Prior to his position at Central Florida, Conway served as the Director of Sports Medicine at the University of Northern Iowa, working as the head trainer for the Panthers' football and men's basketball teams from 1999 to 2001. He was the head athletic trainer at Morgan State University in Baltimore for one season and was an assistant trainer and professor at Delaware, his alma mater, for two years. From 1993 to 1996, Conway was an assistant trainer with the NFL's New York Jets.

Conway earned a bachelor's degree in physical education studies, magna cum laude, from the University of Delaware in 1993, before receiving a master's degree in physical education and a certificate in sports management from Adelphi University two years later.

Conway has taught numerous collegiate courses related to athletic training, has made numerous presentations and has co-authored several scholarly publications and book chapters. He has been a member of the National Athletic Trainers' Association (NATA) since 1989, and is also a member of the United States Weightlifting Federation.

Conway and his wife, Tracy, have a son, Michael.

Orthopaedic Surgeon
Fourth Year at Maryland

Craig H. Bennett, M.D., is in his fourth season as the head team physician and orthopaedic surgeon for Maryland. Dr. Bennett is the Chief of Orthopaedic Sports Medicine at the University of Maryland School of Medicine and has also served as the head orthopaedic surgeon for the NFL's Baltimore Ravens. Prior to his arrival at Maryland, Dr. Bennett was at the University of Pittsburgh where he served as an assistant professor of orthopaedics, as a team physician for Pittsburgh's athletic department and as the associate team physician for the Pittsburgh Steelers.

A native of Buffalo, N.Y., Dr. Bennett graduated with honors from Brown University in 1985. He earned his medical degree from the University of California at San Francisco and completed his residency in orthopaedic surgery at Emory University in Atlanta, Georgia. He then completed a sports medicine-knee and shoulder fellowship at the University of Pittsburgh and subsequently stayed on staff at Pittsburgh for five years. While at Pittsburgh, he also served as the team physician for the men's basketball team.

Dr. Bennett was selected to the American Academy of Orthopaedic Surgeons Leadership Fellows Program in 2003-04 and Towson University honored him as their African-American Scholar of the Year in 2004. He is a board certified member of the American Board of Orthopaedic Surgery and a member of the NFL Team Physicians Association.

JAMES DREESE, M.D.

Asst. Team Physician/
Orthopaedic Surgeon
Second Year at Maryland

Dr. James Dreese serves as assistant team physician for University of Maryland athletic teams. He is an Assistant Professor of Orthopaedics at the University of Maryland Medical Center. He received his undergraduate degree from Penn State University, where he competed on the football team and earned a varsity letter.

After completing his Orthopaedic Surgery residency at the renowned Hospital for Special Surgery in New York, NY he received subspecialty training in Sports Medicine and Shoulder Surgery at the University of Pittsburgh in Pittsburgh, Pa. He served as a team physician at Davidson University in Charlotte, N.C., prior to joining the Orthopaedic Surgery staff at the University of Maryland.

Dr. Dreese is s subspecialist in the management of shoulder, knee, and elbow injuries.

YVETTE ROOKS, M.D.

Primary Care Physician
10th Year at Maryland

Dr. Yvette Rooks is in her 10th year as a primary care physician for Maryland's athletics programs. Dr. Rooks graduated from Update Medical School/Health Science Center in Syracuse, N.Y., in 1993. She completed her residency in family medicine and a sports medicine fellowship at the University of Maryland, Baltimore, and is currently an assistant professor in the Department of Family Medicine at the University of Maryland School of Medicine.

In addition, Rooks the Residency Program Director in the Department of Family Medicine at University of Maryland Medical School. She also serves as the Director of the Primary Care Sports Medicine Fellowship.

Rooks graduated with honors from the State University of New York at Albany where she was a four-year starter on the volleyball team. She currently lives in Ellicott City, Md., and has an eight-year old daughter, Madison.

BRIAN CORWELL, M.D.

Second Year at Maryland

Dr. Brian Corwell is in his second year as a primary care team physician at the University of Maryland. He graduated from Tufts University in 1996 with a degree in biology and psychology. He then completed a pre-doctoral clinical fellowship at the National Institute of Health.

Dr. Corwell earned his medical degree from the University of Maryland in 2002, where he was a frequent volunteer in the College Park athletic clinic. Dr. Corwell completed his residency in Emergency Medicine at the Harvard Affiliated Beth Israel Deaconess Medical Center. He then returned to the University of Maryland to complete a fellowship in Sports Medicine. He has lectured and authored numerous publications on the subjects of Emergency and Sports Medicine.

Dr. Corwell lives in Baltimore with his wife, Viveka and newborn son, Gabriel.

ATHLETIC DEVELOPMENT

TERRAPIN CLUB

Athletic excellence is a tradition at the University of Maryland—a tradition alumni and friends alike want to see continue and flourish. That's why we are inviting you to be a member of the Maryland Athletics Family by joining the Terrapin Club. Whether you are an alumnus of the University of Maryland or a friend interested in supporting the state's flagship campus, belonging to the Terrapin Club enables you to:

- Provide annual scholarship support for our student-athletes who will contribute to the community
- Share our vision to fully scholarship all sports to best represent the University
- Take pride in the achievement of athletic excellence
- Participate in the camaraderie and fellowship unique to Terrapin Club members
- Receive a tax deduction for your financial contribution for scholarships
- Enjoy access to great benefits including priority seating in Byrd Stadium for football and Comcast Center for basketball, priority parking and tickets to other events

At Maryland, the Department of Intercollegiate Athletics operates without significant University funding and receives no state appropriations or tax dollars for operational expenses. Sanctioned by the University of Maryland College Park Foundation, 100% of the funds raised through the Terrapin Club are managed by the Foundation for the exclusive use of Maryland Athletics. Your contribution directly supports an annual student-athlete scholarship cost of over $8 million and Terrapin Club and department expenses. The Terrapin Club provides scholarship support to many of the 700 student-athletes who compete on 27 varsity team representing the University of Maryland.

GETTING INVOLVED

Direct Gifts are the most common way of contributing. They are made in the form of cash, stock, checks or credit card (Visa, MasterCard, American Express or Discover). For your convenience, a personal checking account can be debited a set amount every month.

In many cases, corporate matching gifts may be used to make your Terrapin Club contribution. Please contact your employer to see if you are eligible for a matching gift program.

MAJOR GIFTS FUNDRAISING

In the Fall of 2006, the University of Maryland publicly launched Great Expectations: The Campaign for Maryland, a $1 billion fund raising effort that will transform the University from excellence to greatness. Intercollegiate Athletics, one of the most visible units of the University will seek to raise a total of $133 million to: (1) enhance and improve competition, practice and training facilities for a number of our teams; (2) fund annual scholarships for student athletes; and (3) endow student athlete scholarships, coaching positions and teams.

A centerpiece of the ambitious Great Expectations fund raising campaign, enhancements to Chevy Chase Bank Field at Byrd Stadium will begin in Winter 2007. Phase One of this project includes the expansion of Tyser Tower along the South concourse, allowing for the addition of 64 luxury suites of varying sizes. Additionally, mezzanine seating for approximately 500 will be added (featuring heated and covered seating and food service); a University Suite with seating for 200 guests; new work areas for television, radio and print media; new work areas for coaches and game day operating staff; a new game-day merchandise outlet; enhanced seating for disabled customers; and a state-of-the-art video scoreboard on the West concourse.

Phase Two includes the installation of railings in the North and South lower bowl to enhance fan safety and comfort; chair back seating in the 200 level on the North side; and additional restrooms and concessions on the South side. The playing field will be lowered to improve sight lines for seats on the first 10 rows, converting those 3,000 seats from obstructed view to some of the best views in the stadium. Additionally, all of the blue roofs in the stadium will be painted.

Future Expansion includes the renovation of Gossett Football Team House to include larger locker rooms and training areas, as well as the transformation of the West End Zone with the addition of nearly 8,000 seats which will bring stadium capacity to approximately 60,000 seats.

This expansion plan is an ambitious one. Critical to its success is the leasing of all available Suites within the expanded Tyser Tower. You can support the proud tradition and future growth of Maryland Football by contributing to the Great Expectations campaign or leasing a luxury Suite at the stadium.

To obtain information on leasing a suite at Byrd Stadium, or any other component of the Great Expectations Campaign for Athletics, please contact the Athletics Major Gifts Office at (301) 314-7020, or toll free at (800) 653-7667, by email at terrainclub@umd.edu, or visit www.GreatExpectationsAthletics.com

THE M CLUB
AN 84-YEAR TRADITION OF "ATHLETES HELPING ATHLETES"SM

The M Club was founded in 1923 by a group of former University of Maryland athletes led by Dr. H.C. "Curley" Byrd to encourage excellence in athletics. It is one of the oldest and most respected letterwinner clubs in the country with an organization of more than 4,500 former Maryland varsity athletes and a leader in the National Letter Winners Association.

The M Club goals are to help achieve the very best overall academic and athletic program for all the varsity teams, to aid the athletes in making positive contributions to the community, to obtain and maintain funds for awards and scholarships and to cultivate networking, social contact and good sportsmanship among the wearers of the "M."

Membership participation, through the payment of annual dues, helps build the scholarship endowment fund, support student-athletes' awards and recognition efforts and provide for career development initiatives. Members receive information about the current teams and news about former teammates through a monthly electronic newsletter and a quarterly printed newsletter.

In addition, active members receive information about, and discounts for, various M Club activities. Many benefits are intangible, though, including the satisfaction of having lettered at a great university and being a part of a unique and exclusive organization that is nationally recognized.

University of Maryland letterwinners interested in the M Club should call David Diehl at (301) 314-5372 or Dotti Warren at (301) 314-7020, or visit our website at www.themclub.org.

TERRAPIN SPORTS RADIO NETWORK

All of Maryland's games will be broadcast live on the Terrapin Sports Radio Network, which boasts one of the strongest coverage areas in college sports. Terrapin Sports Marketing, a division of CBS Sports, manages the Terrapin Sports Radio Network. In its sixth year as the multi-media marketing rights partner for University of Maryland Athletics, Terrapin Sports Marketing has built a stronger network that provides coverage in Maryland, Virginia, West Virginia, Pennsylvania, Delaware, New Jersey, and Washington D.C.

Live 105.7 FM (WHFS) and ESPN Radio 1300 AM (WJFK-AM) in Baltimore serve as network's flagship stations, with many more affiliates across the state picking up the games.

Maryland's broadcasts will be accessible on the Internet via the Terps' official athletics website, www.umterps.com.

The Maryland Radio Network: Brett Bessell (statistics), Johnny Holliday (play-by-play), Head Coach Gary Williams, Chris Knoche (color analyst) and Tom Marchitto (engineer).

JOHNNY HOLLIDAY

PLAY-BY-PLAY ANNOUNCER
29TH YEAR

One Washington's most versatile broadcasters, Johnny Holliday, is now in his 29th season as play-by-play voice of the University of Maryland. Holliday has broadcasted more than 1,100 Terrapin football and basketball games, including 10 bowl games, 10 Sweet 16 and two Final Four appearances, including Maryland's national championship victory over Indiana in 2002.

Holliday's sports reports are heard mornings coast-to-coast on the ABC Radio Network, as well as on XM and Sirius. Dick Vitale has named Holliday one of his "top 15 play-by-play voices in the nation." Holliday's list of credits includes ABC's coverage of the Winter and Summer Olympic Games, championship boxing, the USFL with hall of fame member Paul Hornung, The Masters and television coverage of the Liberty and Aloha Bowls. Holliday also co-hosts the Ralph Friedgen and Gary Williams shows on both radio and television. Holliday was public address announcer for the Cleveland Browns, Oakland Raiders, San Francisco Warriors and the Washington Bullets.

In Washington, Holliday hosted the Washington Senators pregame show on the radio with Ted Williams and in San Francisco the Giants pregame show on television. He also handled play-by-play duties for George Washington University basketball, Navy football radio and television coverage of the Washington Bullets and Wizards and hosted a Redskins television show with Dexter Manley, Mark Moseley, Bobby Beathard and Charley Casserly. Holliday also handled television play-by-play duties of ACC Women's basketball, Baltimore Orioles and national gymnastics events.

Holliday has been honored by Washingtonian Magazine as "Washingtonian of the Year". His basketball and softball teams have raised in excess of $1.5 million for charity. Holliday has been honored by the University of Maryland with the school's Distinguished Citizen award, and by the Touchdown Club of Washington with the outstanding achievement in Sports Broadcasting "Timmie" award.

Holliday was inducted into the Radio Television Broadcasters Hall of Fame in 2003. In 2005, he was given the Lindsay Nelson Outstanding Sportscaster award by the All-American Football Foundation, and in 2006 was honored by the National Football Foundation and the College Football Hall of Fame with the Chris Schenkel Award. In 2006 the Catholic Youth Organization named Holliday its National Person of the Year, and the Diabetes Association recognized him as its Father of the Year. Holliday last year was inducted into the Baltimore Sports Media Hall of Fame.

Holliday also received the "Smile" award from Operation Smile for outstanding service to the community. Holliday still finds the time to participate in a variety of community activities, among them, Catholic Charities, Special Olympics and The Youth Leadership Foundation. Holliday is on the Board of Directors of Victory Youth Centers and Children's Charities Foundation. Holliday has served as television host for Muscular Dystrophy, Leukemia, Cerebral Palsy, Children's Hospital, March of Dimes and Easter Seals telethons.

His network credits include announcing duties for NBC's "Hullaballoo" and "The Roger Miller Show," ABC's "This Week with David Brinkley" and "This Week with Sam and Cokie", along with ABC radio's Sam Donaldson Show. Holliday was also seen on the CBS television series "Good Morning World." His face and voice are one of the most familiar in all of Washington radio and television with hundreds of commercials and narrations to his credits.

Holliday was born and raised in Miami, Fla. Before coming to Washington in 1969 he was a top-rated radio personality in Cleveland, New York City and San Francisco. Before giving up music, Holliday was named America's number one disc jockey. A visit to the Rock and Roll Hall of Fame in Cleveland will enable you to listen to Holliday during DJ days in Cleveland. Holliday also co-hosts "Catholic Radio Weekly" with Carol Lehan, syndicated radio stations throughout the country.

Holliday and his wife Mary Clare are the proud parents of three daughters, Kellie, Tracie and Moria, three son-in-laws, Steve, Chris and Bob, seven grandsons, J.T., Devin, Anthony, Christopher, Nicholas, Jack and Liam, and one granddaughter Maggie.

CHRIS KNOCHE

COLOR ANALYST
EIGHTH YEAR

Chris Knoche, a former player and head coach at American University who has worked in radio and television for the past eight years, is in his ninth season as the color analyst for the Terp men's basketball radio broadcasts.

Knoche spent 17 seasons at American, playing the 1979-80 and '80-81 seasons under current Terp coach Gary Williams before moving into an assistant coaching position and later serving seven seasons (1991-97) as the Eagles' head coach.

Prior to joining Maryland's broadcast crew, he worked 40-50 games each of the previous two seasons as a color commentator, including stints on the Ivy League Game of the Week on Westwood One/CBS Radio and Ivy League Game of the Week for DirecTV and for HDTV. He has also worked telecasts for ESPN and CSN, in addition to doing radio and television analysis for George Mason University games. Currently he makes regular guest appearances on the highly rated "The Sports Reporters" on Sportstalk 980 in Washington, D.C.

"Chris Knoche brings an outstanding background as a player, coach and fan to our basketball broadcasts," said Williams, the Terps' 16th-year head coach. "Being able to work with Johnny Holliday, Chris provides the opportunity for Maryland fans to listen to someone who has very good experience as a color commentator. More important, he is someone who has a great feel for the game of basketball. I have known Chris as a player and a coach for more than 20 years. He has been an exciting addition to our basketball program."

MEDIA CREDENTIALS POLICY

The University of Maryland issues press credentials under the priorities and according to the guidelines set out below. These priorities and guidelines are designed to achieve efficient use of limited space available for working members of the media and of other types of access not enjoyed by members of the public at University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic events.

The University of Maryland Department of Intercollegiate Athletics Office of Media Relations is responsible for administering this policy. Credential requests must be made by sports editors or sports directors online at UMTerps.com no later than five days prior to an event. For more information, contact the Media Relations Office at 301-314-7064.

PRIORITIES:

1. Originating radio and television personnel involved in a live television or radio broadcast of a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition.
2. Daily newspapers, wire services, and regional and national publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions.
3. Non-originating radio and television personnel producing reports on a University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competition. Only local radio stations with a full-time sports director conducting a regular and substantial sports show reporting on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions receive consideration for credentials.
4. Officially recognized University of Maryland daily student publications and daily student electronic media outlets that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions; and official websites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools, non-conference opponents, and the Atlantic Coast Conference office.
5. Non-daily newspapers or publications that regularly and substantially report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions.
6. Online entities that meet the requirements set out in guideline number 7, below.

GUIDELINES:

1. Season media credentials are issued to those organizations that report on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletic competitions on a regular and substantial basis, as outlined above. Issuance of season media credentials does not guarantee working space in media work areas.
2. With the exception of Terrapin beat reporters reporting on the team on a daily basis and producing daily reports, all passes are approved and issued on a game-by-game basis.
3. Except as otherwise provided for in this Policy, all passes and credentials are non-transferable and are subject to immediate revocation if transferred to any other person, including non-working members of a media organization.
4. Due to limited space and to ensure compliance with NCAA guidelines, credentials will not be issued to "free-lance" writers or photographers without a specific assignment received in writing by the assigning organization.
5. The University of Maryland and the NCAA prohibit the issuance of credentials to representatives of an organization that regularly publishes gambling information, such as "tout sheets" or "tip sheets."
6. Credentials may be issued to the official websites of Atlantic Coast Conference schools, non-conference opponents, and the Atlantic Coast Conference office.
7. Credentials may be issued to other online entities that: a) are affiliated with a national or regional media organization; b) host a website that regularly and substantially reports on University of Maryland intercollegiate athletics, and; c) employ for that University of Maryland dedicated website at least one full-time, permanent employee who writes a substantial majority of all material posted on the site. An online entity that is an outlet primarily devoted to the recruitment of student-athletes will not qualify for credentials.
8. All persons picking up credentials will be required to furnish positive identification. No credentials will be issued to individuals under the age of 18.
9. Media Relations may deny or revoke credentials for noncompliance with the Priorities or Guidelines set out in this Policy; for violations of University, Department of Intercollegiate Athletics, NCAA, or ACC policies; and for conduct for which there are reasonable grounds to believe violate state or federal law, or constitute a breach of professional ethics. Any organization that wishes to contest a denial or revocation shall: a) request Media Relations provide a written rationale for the denial or revocation; b) submit a written response to that rationale to the Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations. After reviewing the response, the Associate Athletic Director for Media Relations, in consultation with appropriate University officials, shall issue a decision to uphold or reverse the denial or revocation. The Associate Athletic Director's decision shall be final.

CREDENTIAL REQUESTS

Credential requests must be made through Maryland's online credential manager, which can be found at umterps.com. Requests should be made no later than five days prior to an event. Admission to media facilities are for working media only.

GAME DAY PRESS PARKING

Parking is located to the north of Comcast Center – in lots P1 and P2. Media parking is best accessed from the University Drive (Rt. 193) entrance to campus at Paint Branch Drive. Access to the media parking area is parking pass only, and is available on a limited basis.

For lots P1 and P2, after entering campus on Paint Branch Drive, take the first right at Terrapin Trail, and proceed approximately 100 yards to the media parking area on the right.

PHOTOGRAPHY REGULATIONS

All photographers and camera operators must remain seated in baseline photo areas, as per NCAA regulations. Locations will be assigned for more crowded games. Photographer and videographer positions are at the complete and absolute discretion of the basketball game officials and the Maryland media relations office at all times, without exception.

The NCAA has established a policy to control congestion in photography areas. Priority shall be given, in all instances, to photographers and videographers on assignment. Only game photographers (no runners, assistants or producers) shall have access to courtside photo areas.

Strobe lights may be installed in Comcast Center, but arrangements must be made through the media relations office two weeks in advance. Space for strobe lights is available on a first-come, first-served basis.

PRESS SEATING AND MEDIA WORK ROOM

The courtside press area and work room both are at the northeast corner of the arena. Both are available for working media only.

Working space in the press area of Comcast Center is limited and seats are expressly reserved for those working on deadline, with no exceptions. Children and other non-workers are not allowed in the press area.

Located on the court level of Comcast Center, the work room is directly across from the men's basketball locker room and directly behind the courtside press area. They are connected by the tunnel area adjacent to the loading dock and service entrance on the arena's northeast corner.

A limited number of long distance phone lines are available in the work room on a first-come, first-served basis, and require a credit card for billing. Dedicated phone lines in the courtside press area are available by placing an advance order with Scott Sargent, Asst. Director of Operations and Facilities, at 301-314-9729.

The work room opens well before game time and media representatives are welcome upon arrival at the arena. A pregame food service is served buffet style. A halftime beverage service is also available. The pregame buffet is available one hour before tipoff.

TELEPHONES

Six complimentary phone lines are available in the Comcast Center press work room, as dictated by ACC policy (calling card or reverse charges required). Additional requests for dedicated lines, either for the work room or courtside, should be directed to Nick Morrow, Asst. Director of Operations and Facilities, at 301-314-7027. List Doug Dull or Jason Yaman as the contact person for all installations.

POSTGAME PRESS CONFERENCE

Postgame press conferences for both head coaches will be conducted at the conclusion of each game.

The Maryland locker room is open to credentialed media for a brief period after Coach Williams concludes his comments to the media. The visiting team's locker room access policy is determined by officials of that school.

POSTGAME STATISTICS

A statistics packet including running play-by-play, first half and final box scores, and postgame notes and home and visitor head coach quotes, are compiled for each game and made available to the media at press row and in the media work room.

E-MAIL SERVICES

IN-SEASON INTERVIEW POLICIES

Maryland players and head coach Gary Williams will be available for interviews with accredited members of the media throughout the season. All interview requests must be made through the media relations office, contacting Jason Yaman. Please give 24 hours notice.

Players' individual phone numbers will not be given to the media. Players will not be available for live call-in radio shows.

WEEKLY TELECONFERENCE

Beginning on January 7 and continuing through each Monday through the end of the season, the Atlantic Coast Conference will conduct a weekly teleconference featuring all 12 league coaches, beginning at 10:30 a.m.

Each coach will be available to furnish comments and take questions for 10 minutes. Gary Williams is available from 11:20 to 11:30 a.m.

This weekly press conference can be accessed by calling 913-312-6672. There will be an instant replay of each teleconference on the Conference's internet site, theacc.com each Monday afternoon.
